Pope Leo XIV's official prayer intention for February

For Disarmament and Peace

Let us pray that nations move toward effective disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that world leaders choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy instead of violence.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Siena Catholic College

Catholic Schools Broken Bay (CSBB) is delighted to announce that a new K-12 Co-educational College is being established in Pymble from 2027. Prayer on International Women's Day Loving God, on this International Women's Day let us follow Mary's example of faith and care.

Creator God, we celebrate your gifts and your love. On this day and every day, we commit ourselves to the promotion of the full humanity of all women everywhere. May we know and remember that whatever denies, diminishes, or distorts the full humanity of women is not of God and not worthy of us. Help us to be faithful to your call to love all your children.

Give us the courage to strive for what is right and to ensure that the women in our lives are sure of our respect for them.

Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

Third Sunday of Lent

Entrance Antiphon Cf Psalm 24: 15-16

My eyes are always on the Lord,
for he rescues my feet from the snare.
Turn to me and have mercy on me,
for I am alone and poor.

First Reading Exodus 17: 3-7

A reading from the book of Exodus

Tormented by thirst, the people complained against Moses. ‘Why did you bring us out of Egypt?’ they said. ‘Was it so that I should die of thirst, my children too, and my cattle?’ Moses appealed to the Lord. ‘How am I to deal with this people?’ he said. ‘A little more and they will stone me!’ The Lord said to Moses, ‘Take with you some of the elders of Israel and move on to the forefront of the people; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the river, and go. I shall be standing before you there on the rock, at Horeb. You must strike the rock, and water will flow from it for the people to drink.’ This is what Moses did, in the sight of the elders of Israel. The place was named Massah and Meribah because of the grumbling of the sons of Israel and because they put the Lord to the test by saying, ‘Is the Lord with us, or not?’

Responsorial Psalm Ps 94: 1-2, 6-9 R. v8

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

1. Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;
hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come before him, giving thanks,
with songs let us hail the Lord. (R.)
2. Come in; let us bow and bend low;
let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we
the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand. (R.)
3. O that today you would listen to his voice!
‘Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your fathers put me to the test;
when they tried me though they saw my work.’ (R.)

Second Reading Romans 5: 1-2, 5-8

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Through our Lord Jesus Christ by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God’s glory. This hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us. We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man – though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners.

Gospel Acclamation See John 4: 42. 15

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!
Lord, you are truly the Saviour of the world;
Give me living water, that I may never thirst again.
Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel John 4: 5-15, 19-26, 39-42
(shorter form)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus came to the Samaritan town called Sychar, near the land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Jacob’s well is there and Jesus, tired by the journey, sat straight down by the well. It was about the sixth hour. When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, ‘Give me a drink.’ His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, ‘What? You are a Jew and you ask me, a Samaritan, for a drink?’ – Jews, in fact, do not associate with Samaritans. Jesus replied:

‘If you only knew what God is offering and who it is that is saying to you:
Give me a drink,
you would have been the one to ask,
and he would have given you living water.’

‘You have no bucket, sir,’ she answered ‘and the well is deep: how could you get this living water? Are you a greater man than our father Jacob who gave us this well and drank from it himself with his sons and his cattle?’
Jesus replied:

‘Whoever drinks this water
Will get thirsty again:
but anyone who drinks the water that I shall give will never be thirsty again:
the water that I shall give will turn into a spring inside him, welling up to eternal life.’

‘Sir,’ said the woman, ‘give me some of that water, so that I may never get thirsty and never have to come here again to draw water. I see you are a prophet, sir. Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, while you say that Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship.’ Jesus said:

‘Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know; for salvation comes from the Jews. But the hour will come—in fact it is here already - when true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth:

that is the kind of worshipper the Father wants.
God is spirit,
and those who worship
must worship in spirit and truth.’

The woman said to him, ‘I know that Messiah – that is, Christ – is coming; and when he comes he will tell us everything.’ ‘I who am speaking to you,’ said Jesus ‘I am he.’

Many Samaritans of that town had believed in him on the strength of the woman’s testimony, so, when the Samaritans came up to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed for two days, and when he spoke to them many more came to believe; and they said to the woman, ‘Now we no longer believe because of what you told us; we have heard him ourselves and we know that he really is the saviour of the world.’

Gospel Reflection

The shorter version of the reading omits the lines about the woman’s husband, the return of the disciples and the woman going to tell her story to the people of the town; these omissions are a pity. But then there is also a longish passage in which Jesus addresses the disciples about sowing, reaping and the harvest (which perhaps could be more easily omitted because it seems like a digression).

As he does on other occasions, John unfolds his narrative by means of a series of deliberate misunderstandings. Jesus is speaking about ‘living water’ – an interior spring, the Spirit, which brings eternal life. But the woman takes it at a concrete level: You have no bucket and the well is deep; Give me some of that water so that I won’t get thirsty and won’t have to make these trips to the well.

John is able to use the location of Jacob’s well, the dialogue and the symbol of water to unfold the sacramental mystery of God’s life-giving gift of the Holy Spirit. Here we find grace and true worship and Jesus is revealed as the prophet who introduces the messianic age.

For us in Lent, the woman’s journey to faith is our journey. The sacrament of water speaks of our baptism. This magnificent passage puts our baptism firmly into the realm of God’s grace, the gift of the Holy Spirit, our mission and our participation in the reign of God.

Children's Liturgy at Sacred Heart

Last Sunday, our Children's Liturgy focused on unpacking the Transfiguration of Jesus. We read the gospel, accompanied by images to help the children visualise what the disciples witnessed on top of the mountain. While discussing ways we can be close to Jesus on Earth and what we imagine it will be like to be in Heaven with Jesus one day, the children worked to create a spinner which had several windows depicting the sequence of events of the Transfiguration from the Gospel.

Our next Children's Liturgy at Sacred Heart Church is at the 9:30 am Mass on March 15th. We hope to see you there!

Children, the young, and the vulnerable must be safe

Supported by adults who ...

CARE for us as we are a precious gift from God

RESPECT our rights, abilities, contributions, needs and wishes

ASK us how we are feeling and what we are thinking, ask us what we need

LISTEN to what we are really saying

TELL us about dangers – and what's being done to protect us

SEE what other adults are doing, and how they are behaving

DO what they are supposed to do and what they say they will do

STEP UP AND SPEAK OUT when we are being hurt, bullied or treated badly.
