First Fruit Offering

As we begin the second year of our First Fruits planned-giving initiative, we give thanks for the generosity that has already strengthened our community.

Your commitment has sustained the mission, ministries and ongoing maintenance of our parish.

This week, we invite you once again to reflect on God's blessings and consider renewing or deepening your First Fruits offering for the year ahead. Together, we continue building a vibrant parish rooted in gratitude and service.

Look out for the QR code for simple, easy planned giving! Or envelopes are available where you collect your bulletins.

Salesian Thought

The loving heart loves God's commandments; and the harder they are the more sweet and agreeable it finds them.

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

First Reading

Prophet Zephaniah 2:3, 3:12-13

In your midst I will leave a humble and a lowly people.

Seek the Lord all you, the humble of the earth, who obey his commands. Seek integrity, seek humility: you may perhaps find shelter on the day of the anger of the Lord. In your midst I will leave a humble and lowly people, and those who are left in Israel will seek refuge in the name of the Lord.

They will do no wrong, will tell no lies; and the perjured tongue will no longer be found in their mouths. But they will be able to gaze and rest with no one to disturb them.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free.

R.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind
who raises up those who are bowed down,
the Lord, who protects the stranger and upholds the widow and orphans.

R.

It is the Lord who loves the just
but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age.

R.

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

Second Reading

Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 1:26-31

God has chosen what is weak by human reckoning.

Take yourselves, brothers, at the time when you were called: how many of you were wise in the ordinary sense of the word, how many were influential people, or came from noble families? No, it was to shame the wise that God chose what is foolish by human reckoning, and to shame what is strong that he chose what is weak by human reckoning; those whom the world thinks common and contemptible are the ones that God has chosen - those who are nothing at all to show those who are everything. The human race has nothing to boast about to God, but you, God has made members of Christ Jesus and by God's doing he has become our wisdom, and our virtue, and our holiness, and our freedom. As scripture says: if anyone wants to boast, let him boast about the Lord.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Rejoice and be glad:
your reward will be great in heaven.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12

Happy are the poor in spirit.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit;
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.

Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.

Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.

Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.

Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.

Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.

Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
