Homelessness Appeal

CatholicCare
Diocese of Broken Bay

COMBATING HOMELESSNESS TOGETHER

Please donate to CatholicCare's
homelessness services
across the Diocese

Thank you

Donor envelopes available during Mass
Saturday and Sunday 9 & 10 August

There is no place like home, but for many having a home is not a reality. The causes may be diverse, but the impact is the same— a loss of dignity and a sense of hopelessness. CatholicCare supports the homeless with services like women's refuges, transitional housing, young parents homelessness services and street sleeping outreach supports. We also run Dom's Place in Hornsby and Mary Mac's Place in Woy Woy, offering meals, showers, laundry facilities, and community support.

CatholicCare donation envelopes are available at the back of the Church, on each pew, and can be placed in any collection spot or the donation box outside the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

New Weekly Mailout

In the coming weeks, our parish will transition away from using Mailchimp to distribute our weekly emails. Due to ongoing issues—such as emails not being received or properly displayed—we will instead be moving to a new platform called PACEM, which also serves as our updated parish database system.

To continue receiving weekly updates from the parish, we kindly ask you to scan the QR code provided and complete your registration.

Please note: Mailchimp will be deactivated on 30th August, and beginning in September, all communications will be sent via the new PACEM system.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation during this transition.

Santa Maria Feast Day

The Central Coast Santa Maria Committee warmly invites all parishioners to join in the celebration of the Feast of Santa Maria on Sunday, 17th August at our parish.

Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Anthony Randazzo at 3:00pm, followed by a procession at 4:00pm and Benediction. The evening will conclude with a fireworks display at 6:00pm.

Please note: There will be no 5:00pm Mass on this day.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

First Reading

Book of Wisdom 18:6-9

Just as you struck our enemies, you made us glorious by calling us to you.

That night had been foretold to our ancestors, so that, once they saw what kind of oaths they had put their trust in they would joyfully take courage.

This was the expectation of your people, the saving of the virtuous and the ruin of their enemies; for by the same act with which you took vengeance on our foes you made us glorious by calling us to you.

The devout children of worthy men offered sacrifice in secret and this divine pact they struck with one accord: that the saints would share the same blessings and dangers alike; and forthwith they had begun to chant the hymns of the fathers.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just;
for praise is fitting for loyal hearts.

They are happy, whose God is the Lord,
the people he has chosen as his own. R

The Lord looks on those who revere him,
on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. R

Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you. R

Second Reading

Letter to the Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

We will look for the city designed and built by God.

Only faith can guarantee the blessings that we hope for, or prove the existence of the realities that at present remain unseen. It was for faith that our ancestors were commended.

It was by faith that Abraham obeyed the call to set out for a country that was the inheritance given to him and his descendants, and that he set out without knowing where he was going. By faith he arrived, as a foreigner, in the Promised Land, and lived there as if in a strange country, with Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. They lived there in tents while he looked forward to a city founded, designed and built by God.

It was equally by faith that Sarah, in spite of being past the age, was made able to conceive, because she believed that he who had made the promise would be faithful to it. Because of this, there came from one man, and one who was already as good as dead himself, more descendants than could be counted, as many as the stars of heaven or the grains of sand on the seashore.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful and ready:

you know not when the Son of Man is coming.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 12:32-48

See that you are prepared.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'There is no need to be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom.

'Sell your possessions and give alms. Get yourselves purses that do not wear out, treasure that will not fail you, in heaven where no thief can reach it and no moth destroy it. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

'See that you are dressed for action and have your lamps lit. Be like men waiting for their master to return from the wedding feast, ready to open the door as soon as he comes and knocks. Happy those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. I tell you solemnly, he will put on an apron, sit them down at table and wait on them. It may be in the second watch he comes, or in the third, but happy those servants if he finds them ready. You may be quite sure of this, that if the householder had known at what hour the burglar would come, he would not have let anyone break through the wall of his house. You too must stand ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

Peter said, 'Lord, do you mean this parable for us, or for everyone?' The Lord replied, 'What sort of steward, then, is faithful and wise enough for the master to place him over his household to give them their allowance of food at the proper time? Happy that servant if his master's arrival finds him at this employment. I tell you truly, he will place him over everything he owns. But as for the servant who says to himself, "My master is taking his time coming", and sets about beating the menservants and the maids, and eating and drinking and getting drunk, his master will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not know. The master will cut him off and send him to the same fate as the unfaithful.

'The servant who knows what his master wants, but has not even started to carry out those wishes, will receive very many strokes of the lash. The one who did not know, but deserves to be beaten for what he has done, will receive fewer strokes. When a man has had a great deal given him, a great deal will be demanded of him; when a man has had a great deal given him on trust, even more will be expected of him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
