*We gather as a community of believers in Jesus,
to grow as his disciples,
using our gifts, to proclaim the Gospel*

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT 12 DECEMBER 2021, YEAR C

Readings: Zeph 3:14-18; Is 12:2-6
Lk 3:10-18

Response:

Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;
he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.

Alleluia!

Third Sunday in Advent

Rejoice in the Lord! A theme of joy always runs through the liturgy from the 3rd Sunday of Advent. The joy of this day springs from our anticipation and excitement that the Lord's coming is very near. We ask the Lord to remove any sadness from our hearts that may hinder us from embracing the peace and hope which his presence will bestow on us this Christmas.

Farewell Mass

On Sunday 12 December at the 10am Mass we will farewell Steve Todd the College Principal.

2022 Bible Diary

We have 50 copies of The Joy of the Gospel in the breezeway. $15 each.

Advent 1:23

This week, you are encouraged to start offering an invitation for people to come to Christmas Mass. As Christians, we are called to share the Good News of Jesus Christ with all. What is important here is the invitation rather than the response. Let's find the courage to invite others back home this Christmas. Prayer cards have arrived and are located near the Blessed Sacrament Chapel and in the entrance of the church.

Social Justice

Safe Homes and the Staying Home Leaving Violence program.

Safe Homes is short-term crisis support for high risk men, women and their children who have experienced domestic violence. This team also runs Caring Dads which works with men who choose to use violence assisting them to recognise the negative impact of their behaviour on their children. This support can be coupled with one-on-one counselling and/or the Caring Dads group sessions. We also have a child trauma specialist onboard.

Staying Home Leaving Violence is a longer-term support program for women and their children wanting to live free from violence in a safe home of their choice. This program offers a therapeutic group both face-to-face or via zoom enabling women to take back control of their lives and regain their sense of self-worth and self-esteem. Support can include safety planning, home safety audits and advocating with housing, Centrelink, police and the courts. We can arrange referrals to key services such as mental health, drug and alcohol, culturally specific services, counselling, family support, Victims' Services applications, the Department of Communities and Justice (formerly FACS) and Housing Start Safely.

Third Sunday of Advent, Year C

First Reading

Zephaniah 3:14-18

With gladness the Lord will rejoice over you.

Shout for joy, daughter of Zion, Israel, should aloud!

Rejoice, exult with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem!

The Lord has repealed your sentence; he has driven your enemies away.

The Lord, the king of Israel, is in your midst; you have no more evil to fear.

When that day comes, word will come to Jerusalem: Zion, have no fear, do not let your hands fall limp.

The Lord your God is in your midst, a victorious warrior. He will exult with joy over you, he will renew you by his love; he will dance with shouts of joy for you as on a day of festival.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Isa 12:2-6

Cry out with joy and gladness:

for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Truly, God is my salvation,

I trust, I shall not fear.

For the Lord is my strength, my song,
he became my saviour.

With joy you will draw water
from the wells of salvation. R

Give thanks to the Lord, give praise to his name!

Make his mighty deeds known to the peoples!

Declare the greatness of his name. R

Sing a psalm to the Lord

for he has done glorious deeds,

make them known to all the earth!

People of Zion, sing and shout for joy

for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel. R

Third Sunday of Advent, Year C

Second Reading

St Paul to Philippians 4:4-7

The Lord is near.

I want you to be happy, always happy in the Lord; I repeat, what I want is your happiness. Let your tolerance be evident to everyone: the Lord is very near. There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;
he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.

Alleluia

Gospel

Luke 3:10-18

What, then, must we do?

When all the people asked John, 'what must we do?' He answered, 'If anyone has two tunics he must share with the man who has none, and the one with something to eat must do the same.' There were tax collectors too who came for baptism and these said to him, 'Master, what must we do?' He said to them, 'Exact no more than your rate.' Some soldiers ask him in their turn, 'what must we do?' He said to them, 'No intimidation! No extortion! Be content with your pay!'

A feeling of expectancy had grown among the people, who were beginning to think that John might be the Christ, so John declared before them all, 'I baptize you with water, but someone is coming, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.' As well as this, there were many other things he said to exhort the people and to announce the Good News to them.

The Gospel of the Lord.
