Parish Consultation Invitation

The Pastoral Discernment Central Coast project has been launched by Bishop Anthony. We now begin Phase 2 of the project and invite you to join us for the consultation phase.

Our consultation phase will include two short listening and dialogue sessions after Mass for our themes: Participation in Mission (22/23 January) and Moving Forward (26/27 February).

We want to hear from you on how our parish can give God thanks for the way in which the Spirit is at work in the life of the local Church, and to consider new possibilities for both the growth and future of the region.

Please consider joining us! Invite family, friends, neighbours, young people and others – we want everyone to participate in these two listening and dialogue sessions.

Our community ideas will be collated and compiled into our parish's submission to the Bishop. We would like to invite you to attend at 9am on Sunday 27 March in our Church for a summary of our parish's proposed submission.

If you can't make the parish listening and dialogue sessions, visit www.bbcatholic.org.au/pdce to submit your individual submission for consideration.

Vox Episcopi Voice of the Bishop

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Greetings in the Lord as we commence another year. Many people are hoping for a smooth 2022 compared to 2020 and 2021. With the Christmas Season not far behind us, I have not lost sight of the Star of Hope – the symbol and sign of Emmanuel, God-with-us.

Despite the challenges that continue to emerge during this pandemic, I would like to encourage you to remain strong in your faith and to be vigilant in your love and care for others. We are people of hope, but we are also people of faith and love (cf 1 Corinthians 13:4-13).

Social Justice

Pope Francis and Ecological Conversion

Pope Francis invites us to conversion saying "many things have to change course, but it is we human beings above all who need to change". The state of our common home calls us to a "profound interior conversion ... whereby the effects of [our] encounter with Jesus Christ become evident in [our] relationship with the world around [us]". It is not just a matter of awareness or changing our minds, but a shift at the level of the heart and will that results in changed action.

To achieve reconciliation with creation, "we must examine our lives and acknowledge the ways in which we have harmed God's creation through our actions and our failure to act. We need to experience a conversion, or change of heart". Lament, repentance, the effort to repair damage done, and the transformation of behaviour - these are the elements of a process of conversion".

Such an ecological conversion calls us to a renewed way of understanding the cosmos and humanity - a new vision of what it is to be a human being before God and in the world. It calls us to a new spirituality, or way of understanding and expressing our relationship with the Divine in our lives.

To bring about lasting change, it must also be a "community conversion". We are being called to a new way of thinking, feeling, understanding, and living. If you wish to come to our meetings please email Chris Firmstone on chrisfirmstone@gmail.com.

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

First Reading

Isaiah 62:1-5

As the bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so will your God rejoice in you.

About Zion I will not be silent, about Jerusalem I will not grow weary, until her integrity shines out like the dawn and her salvation flames like a torch.

The nations then will see your integrity, all the kings your glory, and you will be called by a new name, one which the mouth of the Lord will confer. You are to be a crown of splendour in the hand of the Lord, a princely diadem in the hand of your God; no longer are you to be named 'Forsaken', nor your land 'Abandoned', but you shall be called 'My Delight' and your land 'The Wadded' for the Lord takes delight in you and your land will have its wedding. Like a young man marrying a virgin, so will the one who built you wed you, and as the bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so will your God rejoice in you.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 95:1-3, 7-10

Proclaim his marvellous deeds to all the nations.

O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
O sing to the Lord, bless his name. R

Proclaim his help day by day,
tell among the nations his glory
and his wonders among all the peoples. R

Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
give the Lord glory and power,
give the Lord the glory of his name. R

Worship the Lord in his temple.
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
He will judge the peoples in fairness. R

Second Reading

St Paul to Corinthians 12:4-11

One and the same Spirit distributes different gifts as he chooses.

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. One may have the gift of preaching with wisdom given by the Spirit; another may have the gift of preaching instruction given him by the same Spirit; and another the gift of faith given by the same Spirit; another again the gift of healing through this one Spirit; one, the power of miracles; another, prophecy; another the gift of recognising spirits; another the gift of tongue and another the ability to interpret them. All these are the works of one and the same Spirit, who distributes different gifts to different people just as he chooses.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel

John 2:1-11

The first of the signs given by Jesus was at Cana in Galilee.

There was a wedding in Cana in Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited. When they ran out of wine, since the wine provided for the wedding was all finished, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' Jesus said, 'Woman, why turn to me? My hour has not come yet.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' There were six stone water jars standing there, meant for the ablutions that are customary among the Jews; each could hold twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, 'Fill the jars with water,' and they filled them to the brim. 'Draw some out now' he told them 'and take it to the steward.' They did this; the steward tasted the water, and it had turned into wine. Having no idea where it came from—only the servants who had drawn the water knew—the steward called the bridegroom and said, 'People generally serve the best wine first, and keep the cheaper sort till the guests have had plenty to drink; but you have kept the best wine till now.'

This was the first of the signs given by Jesus: it was given at Cana in Galilee. He let his glory be seen, and his disciples believed in him.
