Reflection

CALLED BY NAME. It can be hard to believe that God knows each of us by name. Sometimes we need a wise guide, like the old priest Eli or John the Baptist, to help us recognise the voice of God in our life. Let us try to hear God's personal call to us in this Mass and in the events of this day, a call which says in different ways, 'come and dwell with me, share my life.' Here I am Lord, I have heard you calling in the night.

From Fr Philip

Hi everyone. Happy New Year to one and all. It was a surprise to hear from Bishop Anthony asking me to return to Warnervale parish. Having experienced ministering in this parish in 2019, I didn't have to ponder too long and I'm glad to be back. I look forward to working and praying with this loving community.

Social Justice

Asylum-seekers during COVID

Just before Christmas a letter was sent by Catholic Religious Aust., to the PM and the Minister for Immigration, Citizenship, and Multicultural Affairs urging the Australian Government to show mercy to asylum-seekers. The letter stated that as a result of Covid-19 many Australians had experienced restrictions and were deprived of their liberty.

"In Australia and on islands off-shore, there are other people who continue to live with total restrictions on their liberty and whose incarceration is indefinite, with no end in sight.

They are not criminals, they only wanted a better life for themselves and their families. It is time for the Government to release the asylum-seekers and refugees who have been incarcerated for years. There is no purpose to their imprisonment. They are suffering needlessly. Now is the time to give them some mercy.

As advocates for social justice we support this request and suggest that it warrants the support of all Catholics. You are welcome to come to our next meeting Tuesday 16 February 2:30pm in the Mackillop Church, Warnervale.

The Holy Rosary

Leading up to Christmas and New Year we have been through the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary.

Last weekend we celebrated the first Luminous Mysteries with the Christ's Baptism in the Jordan River:

*The Spirit descended like a dove on Him.
And a voice came from heaven,
'You are my Son, the Beloved and with you I am well pleased.'*

Fruit of the Mystery: Openness to the Holy Spirit - Bishop Anthony reflects on this in part 2 of his pastoral letter.

This is who we are: One Journey With Many Roads

In a family, different members contribute in different ways to a common way of life. Similarly, in the Catholic Church, members contribute differently through their chosen vocations. A vocation, in the Catholic sense, is more than a job or function, it is a calling from God, a way of living, with specific relationships and responsibilities. This week we look at :

Couples

For many Catholics, the vocation of married life is the way they give expression to their life of faith. Through their commitment to their spouse and children, the couple show what it means to love one another with the unconditional love that Jesus Christ offers us. Their life of union is so profound that the Church holds up marriage as a sign to all its members of the unity to which they are called. It is our love inspired by Jesus Christ that makes us who we are.

Readings at Mass

First reading

Samuel 3:3-10, 10

Speak, O Lord, your servant is listening.

Samuel was lying in the sanctuary of the Lord where the ark of God was, when the Lord called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' He answered, 'Here I am.' Then he ran to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' Eli said, 'I did not call. Go back and lie down.' So he went to lay down. Once again the Lord called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me, 'He replied, 'I did not call you, my son; go back and lie down.' Samuel had as yet no knowledge of the Lord and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. Once again the Lord called the third time. He got up and went to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' Eli then understood that it was the Lord who was calling the boy, and he said to Samuel, 'Go and lie down, and if someone calls say, 'Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.' So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

The Lord then came and stood by, calling as he had done before, 'Samuel! Samuel!' Samuel answered, 'Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.'

Samuel grew up and the Lord was with him and let no word of his fall to the ground.

The Lord of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.

I waited, I waited for the Lord

and he stooped down to me;

he heard my cry.

He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God.

R

You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings, but an open ear.

You do not ask for holocaust and victim.

Instead, here am I.

R

In the scroll of the book it stands written that I should do your will.

My God, I delight in your law in the depth of my heart

R

Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly.

My lips I have not sealed; you know it, O Lord .

R

Second reading

St Paul to the Corinthians 6:13-15, 17-20

Your bodies are members of the body of Christ.

The body is not meant for fornication; it is for the Lord, and the Lord of the body. God who raised the Lord from the dead, will by his power raise us up too.

You know, surely, that your bodies are members making up the body of Christ; anyone who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him.

Keep away from fornication. All the other sins are committed outside the body; but to fornicate is to sin against your own body. Your body, you know, is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you since you received him from God. You are not your own property; you have been bought and paid for. That is why you should use your body for the glory of God.

The Lord of the Lord.

Gospel

John 1:35-42

They saw where Jesus lived and they stayed with him.

As John stood with two of his disciples, Jesus passed, and John stared hard at him and said, 'Look, thee is the lamb of God.' Hearing this, the two disciples followed Jesus. Jesus turned round, saw them following and said, 'What do you want?' They answered, 'Rabbi—which means Teacher—'where do you live?' 'Come and see' he replied; so they went and saw where he lived, and stayed with him the rest of that day. It was about the tenth hour.

One of these two who became followers of Jesus after hearing what John had said was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter. Early next morning, Andrew met his brother and said to him, 'We have found the Messiah' - which means the Christ—and he took Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked hard at him and said, 'You are Simon son of John; you are to be called Cephas' - meaning Rock.
