Darkinjung people

Readings: Gen 14-18-20; 1Cor 11:23-26; Lk 9:11-17

Response:

You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Reflection

Food for the Multitudes. After feeding the crowds with the loaves and fishes blessed by Jesus, his disciples gathered twelve basket of leftovers. Jesus, the generous giver, always provides too much, a sign that his gifts are never meant to be hoarded but to be shared with others. Seeing the poor and hungry of our world, he says to us what he said to his disciples, 'give them something to eat yourselves'. Nourished by his body and blood in the Eucharist, let us go out and generously share our gifts with others.

Return and Earn

This fortnight we raised $151.90

You probably know about the 10c cash refund on some recyclable containers. As a way of raising money for the Parish, Steve Rolls a parishioner has set up the return and earn in 2018 and to date we have raised a lot of money to go towards things like our new air-conditioners and running of the church.

The return containers are set up at the side of the church (drive-way side) for us to drop containers off when we come to mass.

Most containers between 150ml and 3L that are made of PET/HDPE, Aluminum / Steel, Glass and Liquid cardboard are eligible for return. Containers need to be marked with the 10c refund logo on the label; empty of liquid; and not crushed or broken.

Thank you for your continued support!

Most 150ml to three litre drink containers will be eligible for a 10c cash refund at an approved NSW collection point. Container materials that may be eligible for a refund include:

- Glass

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), Year C

First Reading

Genesis 14:18-20

Melchizedek brought bread and wine.

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing:

‘Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.’

And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 109:1-4

R. You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

The Lord’s revelation to my Mater:

‘Sit on my right:

I will put your foes beneath your feet.’ R.

The Lord will send from Zion

your sceptre of power:

rule in the midst of all your foes. R.

A prince from the day of your birth

on the holy mountains;

from the womb before the daybreak I begot you. R.

The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.

‘You are a priest for ever,

a priest like Melchizedek of old.’ R.

Second Reading

St Paul to Corinthians 11:23-26

Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the death of the Lord.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this in memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 9:11-17

They all ate and were filled.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need to healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging the food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five hundred men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

The Gospel of the Lord.
