Prayer for HSC Students

Please pray for our students who are continuing their HSC this week.

Thanks

I had a very quiet and restful break in the Southern Highlands over the last two weeks. Thank-you to everyone who covered for me while I was away. Vince.

It's World Mission Month

To see mission in action today, take a look at this wonderful reflection on gentle leadership from the compassionate Jesuit Bishop Enrique Figaredo Alvargonzalez. Bishop 'Kike' is the driving force behind Catholic Mission's 2020 Cambodia Project appeal. His mission is simple: that everyone has the opportunity to live life to the full, to have hope, joy and happiness. [https://

Message from Bishop Anthony

It is hard to believe that ten years have gone by since Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop was canonised in Rome. I was fortunate to be at Saint Peter's for the occasion. . Click here for full message.

Next Sunday is All Saints Day. The day is dedicated to the saints in heaven, especially those who are not celebrated at other times in the Church's year.

Next Monday we celebrate All Souls Day when we remember and pray for all those who have died. Next weekend we will have available at the back of the Church small prayer cards where you can write

Broken Bay News

The October issue celebrates one year since Bishop Anthony Randazzo's appointment as the fourth Bishop of Broken Bay, as well as testimonies from our seminarians on their next steps in their journey to priesthood, CatholicCare's services for domestic violence and the Social Justice Statement for 2020-21 on Mental Health. The digital version is available at https://issuu.com/bbcatholic/docs/broken\_bay\_news\_october\_2020\_issue\_207

Printed copies are available at the church door.

Social Justice It's Real Cost for All of Us

The Productivity Commission estimates that the cost of mental ill-health and suicide is between $43 and 51 billion each year and that there is an additional cost of $130 billion per annum associated with diminished health and reduced life expectancy. These costs will increase as Australia responds to the pandemic.

But the real cost of mental illness is far more than economic. It is felt in the stigma and discrimination experienced by the most vulnerable – being labelled, shunned, denied support, or not even being recognised. This denies a person's human dignity and their right to live life to the full. It is a rejection of the gifts that they have to offer and their membership in the Body of Christ.

People living with mental illness can be judged incompetent and denied opportunities for advancement in the workplace. They also suffer greater discrimination when seeking employment, renting accommodation and purchasing insurance.

Stigma undermines self-esteem, the treatment of ill-health, and the process of recovery.

Our next meeting is on 17 November at 2.30 pm. All are welcome.

Catholicism

After this course was enjoyed several years ago, we will be presenting it again. Continuing on Monday 26 October at 7pm and continuing on successive Mondays over the next nine weeks.

The series explores the whole faith in light of the Transcendental Virtues – Truth, Goodness and Beauty. The beauty of the filming makes these very attractive, visible and presents examples from all around the world. Bishop Barron's commentary illustrates the points very well. You will be most welcome to attend any or all sessions.

Any questions, call Terry Pate 0408 973 316.

The DR Ministry began through the success of the 2014 book Divine Renovation by Fr James Mallon about his experiences at St Benedict's Parish in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada.

The lunch of DR Australasia, a regional branch of the Divine Renovation Ministry, will take place online this

Saturday 24 Oct, 9:30am – 11am.

Fr James Mallon will participate live, addressing the topic of "Casting a Vision for DR Australasia." Please click here to register. The new webpage can be accessed here: <https://divinerenovation.org/australasia>

Readings at Mass

First reading

Exodus 22:20-26

If you are harsh with the widow or the orphan, my anger will rage against you.

The Lord said to Moses, ‘Tell the sons of Israel this, “You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans.

“If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him; you must not demand interest from him.

“If you take another’s cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity.”

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 17:2-3, 47, 51

R I love you , Lord my strength.

I love you, Lord my strength,
my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise:
When I call I am saved from my foes.

R

Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me.
He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed.

R

Second reading*1 Thessalonians 1:5-10

You turned away from idols to serve God and await his Son.

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instructions, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread—and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started to work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants to the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The word of the Lord

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jn 14:23

All who love me will keep my words,
and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 22:34-40

You shall love the Lord your God and your neighbour as yourself.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest of the first commandment. The second resembles it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
