Reflection

We cannot spend all of our lives blaming others for what has happened to us. At a certain stage we must accept responsibility for our own lives and deeds. Sometimes we need to admit, 'I have done wrong, I am sorry. God, help me to do right in future.' Change is always possible. If we have the desire, God will guide us in the right path.

Messengers of God

On Tuesday 29 September we celebrate the feast of Sts Michael, Gabriel and Raphael the archangels. On Friday 2 October it is the feast of The Holy Guardian Angels.

Angel of God, my Guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here, ever this day (or night) be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen.

We turn our clocks forward one hour on Sunday 4 October at 2am as we start daylight savings.

After this course was enjoyed several years ago, we will be presenting it again. Starting on Monday 5th October 2020 at 7pm and continuing on successive Mondays over ten weeks.

The series explores the whole faith in light of the Transcendental Virtues – Truth, Goodness and Beauty. The beauty of the filming makes these very attractive, visible and presents examples from all around the world. Bishop Barron's commentary illustrates the points very well. You will be most welcome to attend any or all sessions.

Social Justice

How to Help Someone Experiencing Abuse

If you are worried about a friend's safety, stay in touch and be creative. Avoid making the abuser suspicious so that communication can stay open.

Ask your friend how they prefer to connect. It is important to establish a safe communication channel.

Be supportive and believe them. Reassure them that they are not alone. Listen carefully and be empathetic.

Help them think through how to stay safe during COVID-19. Help create a plan for lockdown situations. Consider helping them to reach out to family/friends

Respect their right to consent. Unless your friend's life is in danger, avoid taking actions without their consent.

Respect their privacy. Because of safety issues /feelings of shame, it is critical that their identity remains confidential.

Offer practical assistance and share resources. If you are able, offer them a safe place to stay, transportation, or other forms of support ..

Provide them with information about Trained helpers at 1800 RESPECT.

Our next meeting is on 17 November at 2.30 pm. All are welcome.

Readings at Mass

First reading

Ezekiel 18:25-28

When the sinner renounces sin, he shall certainly live

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows: ‘You object, “What the Lord does is unjust.” Listen, you House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust? When the upright man renounces his integrity to commit sin and dies because of this, he dies because of the evil that he himself has committed. When the sinner renounces sin to become law-abiding and honest, he deserves to live. He has chosen to renounce all his previous sins; he shall certainly live; he shall not die.’

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 24(25):4-9

R Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:
For you are God my saviour. R

Remember your mercy, Lord,
and the love you have shown from of old.
Do not remember the sins of my youth.
In your love, remember me, because of your goodness, O Lord.
The Lord is good and upright. R

He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor. R

Philippians 2:1-11

Be united in your love

If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no conceit; but everybody is to be self-effacing. Always consider the other person to be better than yourself, so that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people's interests instead. In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus:

His state was divine, yet he did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are; and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord

Alleluia, alleluia!

John 10:27

My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord;
I know them, and they follow me.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 21:28-32

Tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people, 'What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He went and said to the first, "My boy, you go and work in the vineyard today." He answered, "I will not go," but afterwards thought better of it and went. The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, "Certainly, sir," but did not go. Which of the two did the father's will?' 'The first' they said. Jesus said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you, a pattern of true righteousness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
