Message from Bishop Anthony

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, In the past, the topic of mental health and wellbeing tended to have a negative label attached to it. That is an unfortunate situation and hopefully one that is consigned to the history books. For the full message click here

Social Justice Sunday

is today, 30 August. The Bishops' Social Justice Statement 2020-21, To Live Life to the Full: Mental health in Australia today, encourages us to make mental health a priority. Parishes are called to be places of welcome and inclusion, overcoming the barriers and stigma often faced by people experiencing mental ill-health. Policy-makers are urged to prevent so many people falling through the cracks and especially consider First Australians, refugees and asylum-seekers. Download the statement

Social Justice To Live Life to the Full

Today we celebrate Social Justice Sunday when our Australian Catholic Bishops invite us to remember to care for the mental health of each other as an important social justice issue.

Today and over the next few months we shall look at extracts from the Social Justice Statement which our bishops have produced.

Mental health has been defined by the World Health Organisation as “a state of well-being in which the individual realises his/her own abilities, can cope with the normal stresses of life, can work productively and fruitfully, and is able to make a contribution to his/ her community”.

The Bishops affirm that an abundant life to which Jesus invites us (John 10:10) “engages our whole selves, physically, psychologically, and spiritually. It touches all aspects of our life together in community – social, economic and cultural – because God created us out of love and for loving relationships...”

As creatures made in the image and likeness of God we stand before the mystery of the Transcendent. We feel deeply connected to something, and indeed Someone, beyond ourselves. These bonds of loving relationship to one another, to all of creation, and to the Creator of all that is, help us to experience meaning in life, even in its suffering and limitations... and promote the fullness of life for all”.

Our next meeting is on 15 September at 2.30 pm. All are welcome.

Coronavirus restrictions

The number of people permitted to attend a church service is 100.

All other restrictions continue for hygiene and social distancing. Please use hand sanitiser and keep 1.5 metres apart when entering and leaving the church, when queuing for communion and when chatting before and after Mass.

We are all encouraged to wear a mask when visiting the church.

Sign in sheets for Mass are in the two folders in the breezeway. Please ensure you are signing in for the Mass you are attending.

The sign in sheet for visits to the church are on the table at the back of the church. Please ensure the date and time are also recorded.

The Sacraments

This course will continue on Monday 23rd August 2020 at 10am and again at 7pm in the church.

This third session concerns the Eucharist, arguably the most important of the seven sacraments. The Vatican described it as ‘the source and summit of our faith observance’.

Please bring a pencil and paper as time will be available at the end for questions and discussion.

You are very welcome to join us. If you have any questions contact Terry Pate on 0408 973 316.

Catholic Youth of Broken Bay (CYBB) invites you to our next young adult (18+) Zoom Gathering. This month we will be focusing on “What do we do in Mass?” presented by Deacon Jonathan Vala from Sydney.

Readings at Mass

First reading

Jeremiah 20:7-9

You have seduced me, Lord, and I have let myself be seduced;
you have overpowered me: you were the stronger.
I am a daily laughing-stock,
everybody's butt.
Each time I speak the word, I have to howl
and proclaim: 'Violence and ruin!'
The word of the Lord has meant for me insult, derision, all day long.
I used to say, 'I will not think about him,
I will not speak in his name any more.'
Then there seemed to be a fire burning in my heart,
imprisoned in my bones.
The effort to restrain it wearied me,
I could not bear it.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 62:2-6, 8-9

R My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you
like a dry, weary land without water. R.

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary
to see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips will speak your praise. R.

So I will bless you all my life,
in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise you with joy. R.

For you have been my help;
in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.
My soul clings to you;
your right hand holds me fast. R.

Second reading

Romans 12:1-2

Think of God's mercy, my brothers, and worship him, I beg you, in a way that is worthy of thinking beings, by offering your living bodies as a holy sacrifice, truly pleasing to God. Do not model yourselves on the behaviour of the world around you, but let your behaviour change, modelled by your new mind. This is the only way to discover the will of God and know what is good, what it is that God wants, what is the perfect thing to do.

The word of the Lord

Alleluia, alleluia!

Eph 1:17, 18

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart, that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus began to make it clear to his disciples that he was destined to go to Jerusalem and suffer grievously at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, to be put to death and to be raised up on the third day. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. 'Heaven preserve you, Lord,' he said. 'This must not happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because the way you think is not God's way but man's.'

Then Jesus said to his disciples, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it. What, then, will a man gain if he wins the whole world and ruins his life? Or what has a man to offer in exchange for his life?

'For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and, when he does, he will reward each one according to his behaviour.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
