Reflection

What is perhaps most marvellous is the way this God of majesty and power has drawn so close to us. In Jesus, God assumed our human condition. In the Spirit, we have become God's children able to address God by the intimate title, 'Abba, Father!'

The metaphor highlighting the sun being 150 million kms away but we feel the warmth of the rays. God being the Sun, Jesus being the rays being sent out and the Holy Spirit being the warmth generated by both God and Son. Stories and images are useful tools but they are never fully adequate. At the end of the day, the mystery of the Trinity requires an act of faith on our part.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament Week Days

From Tuesday to Friday Fr Philip will have exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 8am to 9am. You are welcome to come for private prayer before Mass. Thursday's exposition after 9:15am Mass will also continue.

Vox Episcopi - The Voice of the Bishop

It has been suggested that human beings are drawn to bad news possibly because sudden disaster is more gripping than slow upturns. Every day I receive messages of joy and hope from people from various backgrounds and from different places. Read Bishop Anthony's full message here

Social Justice

Why Do Christians Care?

Father Ron Rolheiser, an American Oblate priest said, "The Jesus who invites us into personal piety and church doctrine is the same Jesus who tells us that nobody will get to heaven without a letter of reference from the poor".

The Sojourners magazine, a peace movement and spirituality gave seven principles of engagement for Christian 'political' involvement in the world which are:

- God hates injustice;
- The kingdom of God is a new order the Church is an alternative community;
- The kingdom of God transforms the world by addressing the specifics of injustice;
- The Church can be the conscience of the state, holding it accountable for upholding justice and restraining violence;
- Take a global perspective;
- Seek the common good.

Are you interested in getting involved in social justice? You are welcome to come to our next meeting on Tuesday 22 June 2021 at 7.00 pm in Mackillop Catholic Church, Warnervale. NB: the new time. If you wish to come please email Chris Firmstone on chrisfirmstone@gmail.com.

There is a lot of uncertainty around the expectations of the post-pandemic Church. There is, however, one certainty that gives us hope and confidence, and that is the role of the Holy Spirit in the renewal of the Church. From the moment Jesus breathed the Holy Spirit upon the apostles to this exact moment in time, the Spirit continues to renew, and that renewal starts in our own hearts first. For more info, visit:
