Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop Parish, Warnervale.

We gather as a community of believers in Jesus,
to grow as his disciples,
using our gifts, to proclaim the Gospel

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, 9TH MAY 2021, YEAR B

Diocese of Broken Bay
Ancestral home of the Darkinjung people

Readings: Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48;
1 Jn 4:7-10; Jn 15:9-17

Response:

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them

Alleluia!

Reflection Do we think of Jesus, as he thinks of us, as a friend? In Jesus we have both the best teacher and the best friend we could ever hope to have.

This week John's gospel continues the true vine narrative. The vine is a strong metaphor for community. God is the owner of the vine, Jesus is the vine. All those who respond to the call of God become grafted to the vine in the universal love of God.

Pope Francis has three social encyclicals. The first 'Evangelii Gaudium' was restoring our relationship with God, then 'Laudato Si' was restoring relationship with the earth. 'Fratelli Tutti' restores our relationship with each other. Love builds bridges to cross boundaries and sow seeds of peace. It helps us walk alongside the poor, the abandoned, infirm and outcast.

Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you watch over your Church. Bless these women, that they may be strengthened as Christian mothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. Amen.

Social Justice

Coercive Control Explained

Police in Australia would have dealt with, on average 277 domestic violence matters today.

Experts say more middle-aged, older women are fleeing relationships. Angie Jordan, 60, was subjected to 40 years of controlling, abusive and manipulative behaviour. She tried to leave this relationship several times unsuccessfully.

After her husband died, she found a eulogy he had written for her, along with life insurance documents.

Domestic and Family Violence Prevention Month runs throughout May. With many DV cases in the news, five states are looking at the best ways to criminalise coercive control. Beyond DV, a DV help agency, says reach out for help. Also recognise the signs of DV and coercive control. Do you know someone you can help?

There are brochures at the back of the church.

Next meeting Tues 22/6 @ 7pm in the church.
