The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ Corpus Christi

19th June 2022

We gather this weekend to remember and celebrate the Body and Blood of Christ. We listen to Christ's words as shared by Paul: "Do this in remembrance of me..." and we hear again Paul's exhortation "for as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes." Today, we again remind ourselves that when Jesus commands his disciples to eat his flesh and drink his blood, he invites each of us to take his life into the very center of our being. The life which he offers is the very life of God himself.

We embrace the Eucharist not merely to eat and drink, but to be healed of anger, to be refreshed in our weariness, and to strengthen the bond of love and concern that makes us a family. The Lord invites us to gather around the table of the altar to give and receive reconciliation and forgiveness, to be filled with new vigor when we have grown tired in our struggle to be witnesses to the Gospel, and to reinforce the oneness in faith and love that makes us a holy people, a "holy communion", a group of people bound together as His faithful followers.

When we gather to celebrate and share the Eucharist together, we proclaim that we wait in joyful hope for the coming of the kingdom. It does not allow us to be indifferent to suffering and injustice. It challenges us and forces us to be involved with the pain of the world, but not absorbed or overwhelmed by it... because our hope is always rooted in the goodness and faithfulness of God. Jesus' invitation is urgent - not only to receive His Body and Blood, but also to become His Body and Blood for others. We all experience brokenness in our relationships with one another. It is here in the Eucharist where we are together made one. The Eucharist is a gift, not just to be adored and revered, but also to be consumed, digested and lived by every Christian.

It is not a private gift, but a communal one. Today's feast is a witness to this. Our oneness in faith and love is the strongest evidence that Jesus and His spirit are in fact working among us to bring all people together in the peace and justice of God's kingdom. It is the testament of a shared "communion" in which we are all aware of our commitment to "be" the body and blood of Christ in all we do.

Welcome to our Parish. Today we celebrate The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). Thank you for being here.

Sacrament of First Eucharist

We welcome our candidates for First Eucharist and their families, as they receive the Sacrament at Masses this weekend. We will be reserving pews/seats at the front of the churches for the candidates and their families. A big thank you to our Sacramental Coordinator, Lorrie, and our Sacramental Leaders, Sr Josie, Sr Jennifer, Alison, Jo, Tricia and Peter for their time and dedication in preparing the candidates for the Sacrament. We also welcome Yr 4 from St Mary's who are leading the 9am Sunday Mass this weekend. Please continue to pray for our candidates and their families as they receive the Body of Christ for the first time. Congratulations to our candidates and their families!

Parish Morning Teas

On the next first Sunday of the month, Sunday 3rd July, only St Brendan's will have a Parish Morning Tea. There will be no 'First Sunday' morning tea in July at St Mary's as we will be having a morning tea for the Feast Day on Sunday 26th June.

Office Closure:

Please note that the Parish office will be closed on Friday 24th June.

Online Prayer Service for Refugee Week

Monday 20 June 2022 at 6pm AEST - The World Day of Refugees Australian Catholic Migrant and Refugee Office and the Office for Justice, Ecology and Peace are inviting you to participate in an online prayer service to pray for asylum seekers and refugees and mark Refugee Week from Sunday 19 June to Saturday 25 June 2022. The theme for the week is "healing".

We will be holding a working bee on Friday 24th June after 9.15am Mass to prepare for the Feast Day Celebrations. Please come along if you are able to help.

We Need You! Request for Readers, Wardens & Servers

Our Parish needs more Readers, Wardens & Altar Servers to assist at Masses. Both Churches are in need. Be the voice who shares the Word of God! Be the servant of the Lord who serves at his altar! Be the face of God who prepares our Church and greets our Parishioners! If you are able to help your Parish Community in any of these ministries, please see one of the priests or contact the Parish Office, ph 43964455.

Training of Altar Servers

We have formed a new team for training of altar servers in the parish. The St Brendan's team is Peter Huby, Jacqui Fletcher and Alli Foskett. The St Mary's team is Sr Josie & Sr Jennifer (and others to be advised in near future). These teams will be officially in charge of training altar servers. No other person is permitted to train altar servers. If there are any concerns, please see the Parish Office.

First Reading

Genesis 14:18-20

Melchizedek brought bread and wine.

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing: 'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.' And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 109:1-4

R. You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

The Lord's revelation to my Master:
'Sit on my right:
I will put your foes beneath your feet.' R.

The Lord will send from Zion
your sceptre of power:
rule in the midst of all your foes. R.

A prince from the day of your birth
on the holy mountains;
from the womb before the daybreak I begot you. R.

The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.
'You are a priest for ever,
a priest like Melchizedek of old.' R.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the death of the Lord.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation John 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live for ever.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 9:11-17

They all ate and were filled.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing. It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
