

First Reading

A reading from the book of Genesis Gen 2:7-9, 3:1-7

The Lord God fashioned man of dust from the soil. Then he breathed into his nostrils a breath of life, and thus man became a living being.

The Lord God planted a garden in Eden which is in the east, and there he put the man he had fashioned. The Lord God caused to spring up from the soil every kind of tree, enticing to look at and good to eat, with the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil in the middle of the garden.

The serpent was the most subtle of all the wild beasts that the Lord God had made. It asked the woman, 'Did God really say you were not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?' The woman answered the serpent, 'We may eat the fruit of the trees in the garden. But of the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden God said, "You must not eat it, nor touch it, under pain of death"! Then the serpent said to the woman, 'No! You will not die! God knows in fact that on the day you eat it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods, knowing good and evil.' The woman saw that the tree was good to eat and pleasing to the eye, and that it was desirable for the knowledge that it could give. So she took some of its fruit and ate it. She gave some also to her husband who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened and they realised that they were naked. So they sewed fig-leaves together to make themselves loin-cloths.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 50:3-6, 12-14, 17

R. Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness.
In your compassion blot out my offence.
O wash me more and more from my guilt
and cleanse me from my sin. R.

My offences truly I know them;
my sin is always before me.
Against you, you alone, have I sinned;
what is evil in your sight I have done. R.

A pure heart create for me, O God,
put a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
nor deprive me of your holy spirit. R.

Give me again the joy of your help;
with a spirit of fervour sustain me.
O Lord, open my lips and my mouth shall declare your praise. R.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans
Rom 5:12, 17-19

Sin entered the world through one man, and through sin death, and thus death has spread through the whole human race because everyone has sinned. If it is certain that death reigned over everyone as the consequence of one man's fall, it is even more certain that one man, Jesus Christ, will cause everyone to reign in life who receives the free gift that he does not deserve, of being made righteous. Again, as one man's fall brought condemnation on everyone, so the good act of one man brings everyone life and makes them justified. As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by one man's obedience many will be made righteous.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation Matthew 4:4

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!
No one lives on bread alone,
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Mt 4:1-11

Jesus was led by the Spirit out into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, after which he was very hungry, and the tempter came and said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to turn into loaves.' But he replied, 'Scripture says:

Man does not live on bread alone
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'

The devil then took him to the holy city and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said, 'throw yourself down; for scripture says:

He will put you in his angels' charge,
and they will support you on their hands
in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

Jesus said to him, 'Scripture also says:

You must not put the Lord your God to the test.'

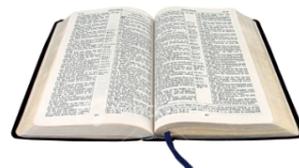

Next, taking him to a very high mountain, the devil showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour. 'I will give you all these', he said, 'if you fall at my feet and worship me.'

Then Jesus replied, 'Be off, Satan! For scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God,
and serve him alone.'

Then the devil left him, and angels appeared and looked after him.

First Sunday of Lent Time Year A 1st March 2020

Today's Gospel passage gives a brief narrative of the temptations of Jesus in the wilderness. Jesus went through a time of serious reflection and challenges during those days in the desert. As we know from experience, athletes prepare diligently for long duration. Similarly professional artists rehearse painstakingly for long hours and good teachers do their preparations meticulously. Before starting His public ministry, Jesus went into the desert to prepare Himself for the divine task entrusted to Him by the heavenly Father and to purify His mind and cleanse His heart. Jesus emerged from His forty days of fasting and prayer and prepared for the ultimate test of strength and skill against the powers of evil. Lent is a time when all followers of the Lord try to renew their lives. In a sense, we go into the desert with Jesus.

Every person needs to be tested in life- trials and challenges bring out the best and the worst in our lives. Only through trials and tests we come to know our strengths and our weaknesses. An awareness of our strengths and weaknesses is important for any success in our lives. The book of Proverbs very succinctly puts it (4: 23), "Above all else, keep watch over your heart, for therein lies the well springs of life". "Lent comes providentially to reawaken us to shake us from our lethargy" - Pope Francis.

most welcome here in our Parish Family. Please feel free to make yourself known to us, and we look forward to speaking with you.

Sharing God's Light—A Gift in Your Will

Our parish is very grateful for the bequests that have been left to the parish in the past. These bequests have supported our Faith Community and enabled us to maintain our parish church and buildings and implement pastoral initiatives. By leaving a gift in your will, or honouring the memory of a loved one, you are supporting your Family of Faith. Booklets available at doors of the church.

Thank you for Clavinova

Thank you to Raymond and Margaret Johnson for their donation of a keyboard to the parish and to the anonymous donor of $1000 for their generous donation to the parish.

Parish Finance Meeting

The Parish Finance committee will meet on this Monday 2nd March at 12 pm in the Presbytery.

Parish Pastoral Council

We are happy to have Peter Huby (Chairperson), Tricia Humphreys (Deputy Chairperson), Ellen Sheerin (Secretary), Jo Moore & Bob Steele as new Parish Pastoral Council members. Two members from Mission Council are expected to be part of all Pastoral Council meetings together with One representative from Parish Finance Committee, Liturgy Committee, Religious Sisters and Schools. We wish the new team all the blessings and a wonderful team work.

Mental Health First Aid

Robyn Rosina, a parishioner and an accredited mental health first aid trainer, will be running a group for our parishioners on Mental Health First Aid. The aim of the learning, is to share an understanding of a range of mental illness and how the average person can help, not diagnose or treat, just chat in a helpful way. Very similar to physical health first aid but, just chatting in a helpful safe way instead. Please talk to each other about the importance of discussing Mental Health issues. The training is over two sessions, likely on Saturdays, but can be during the week. We are hopeful to have the first group after Easter. The cost will be $30 per participant. This covers the textbook and all materials.

What you can expect from mental health first aid training.

KNOWLEDGE - Improves knowledge of mental illnesses, treatments and first aid actions.

CONFIDENCE - Increases confidence in providing first aid.

DE-STIGMATISING - Decreases stigmatising attitudes.

SUPPORT - Increases the support provided to others.

If you are interested in training to be a mental health first aider as an individual or in your workplace/team, please call Robyn Rosina 0402 968 388.

Will you put your hand up to minister?

We invite all our parishioners, especially our new parishioners, to consider joining one of our many Ministries, to serve our sisters and brothers in this Neighbourhood of Grace.

Maybe your children have gone off to school, and you have a few hours to give - to the sick in their homes, reading at Mass, distribution of Holy Communion or help those less fortunate than you. Please collect a brochure from the foyer of the churches.
