Memories - Remembering our first Parish Priest

Before the original church was built overlooking the Haven, Mass was celebrated on Sunday morning in the Picture Theatre in Kurrawyba Ave, Terrigal, in the midst of the debris remaining from the Saturday night show.

Before the presbytery was built, the Doc stayed at a small motel on the outskirts of Terrigal.

Bill Gates was an able assistant. He was the 70's equivalent of our Dennis. Eric Riddington, a retired accountant, was also a great support with his financial acumen.

Doc Joiner was a heavy smoker. He could fill an ashtray faster than any would consider humanly possible. Confessions were held in the church on every Saturday afternoon and if there was nobody waiting the Doc would step outside and light up. The unwritten law was that if you arrived while he was smoking you waited until he had finished before going in to the church. It was a surprise to everyone to find that when Doc returned for a parish dinner years after he had left, that he had given up smoking.

Doc Joiner was responsible for building the first school as well as introducing acolytes to the parish. His homilies were always written in an exercise book and were read from the book. I don't know his reason for this but I suspect that it was an insurance in case he was reported to the Bishop as having said something heretical.

Doc Joiner studied in Rome after he was ordained. The college dining room had tables that seated four students. Every night for dinner, a carafe of wine was placed on each table. Doc said that Rome was a very happy time as he was seated with three Chinese students who did not drink.

One of the highlights was the visit of Cardinal Freeman to Terrigal. The visit brought joy to many.

The Doc had a keen sense of humour ... when it was announced that Mons Marley would replace him at Terrigal he observed, tongue in cheek, that it “took minor prelate to replace me.”

John

This Synod in Rome begins this week. What is it all about? This is what the Pope has to say:

We must rediscover the word together. Walk together. Question together. Take responsibility together for community discernment, which for us is prayer, as the first Apostles did: this is synodality, which we would like to make a daily habit in all its expressions. Precisely for this purpose, in just over a month, bishops and lay people from all over the world will meet here in Rome for a Synod on synodality: listening together, discerning together, praying together. The word together is very important. We are in a culture of exclusion, which is a kind of communication capitalism. Perhaps the usual prayer of this exclusion is: "I thank you, Lord, because I am not like that, I am not like that, I am not...": they exclude themselves. We must thank the Lord for so many good things!

I am well aware that speaking of a "Synod on Synodality" may seem something abstruse, self-referential, excessively technical, of little interest to the general public. But what has happened over the past year, which will continue with the assembly next October and then with the second stage of Synod 2024, is something truly important for the Church. It is a journey that Saint Paul VI began at the end of the Council, when he created the Secretariat of the Synod of Bishops, because he had realised that in the Western Church synodality had disappeared, whereas in the Eastern Church they have this dimension. And this years-long journey – 60 years – is bearing great fruit. Please, let us get used to listening to each other, to talking, not cutting our heads off for a word. To listen, to discuss in a mature way. This is a grace we all need in order to move forward. And it is something the Church today offers the world, a world so often so incapable of making decisions, even when our very survival is at stake. We are trying to learn a new way of living relationships, listening to one another to hear and follow the voice of the Spirit. We have opened our doors, we have offered everyone the opportunity to participate, we have taken into account everyone's needs and suggestions. We want to contribute together to build the Church where everyone feels at home, where no-one is excluded. That word of the Gospel that is so important: everyone. Everyone, everyone: there are no first-, second- or third-class Catholics, no. All together. Everyone. It is the Lord's invitation.

Visiting Nursing Homes

We have a number of parishioners who visit the nursing homes in the parish each week to take Holy Communion to Catholics who can no longer attend Mass.

We would like to have more people involved in this ministry - the more people going to each home means less visits for each volunteer and more time can be spent with each resident.

Are you interested in this important ministry?

Please contact Janette or Fr Vince at the Parish Office for more details.

Name Badges

Name tags can be ordered at a subsidized price of $10 (normally $17). It is good to see more and more wearing them. You can choose from safety pin style or magnetic back.

Place order at the Parish Office or the Piety Stall.

MEN'S BUSHWALKING GROUP Good to have eleven gentlemen on this walk. Very pleasant conditions as we traversed the park towards the eastern shore of Tuggerah Lake. We had to modify our planned route as there is construction work underway for the cycleway / path Council is building. (Should be great once completed.) Took us a while to leave as we had to wait for them to load a roller unit on to a lowbed trailer. Note - Very limited parking if anyone is visiting the park. Our next walk is on Tuesday 10 October. As we move towards summer with the greater risk of very hot weather, the choice of track will only be made closer to the date. We will also need to be flexible on the starting time and may well start off earlier (e.g. – 8.30 am). The walks are on a Tuesday on a fortnightly basis and take an hour and a half, followed by lunch at a nearby venue for our 'chat and chew'. Any gentlemen interested in participating in any of our walks, please contact Stim Robinson at stimrobinson@hotmail.com or on 0401 058 329 and you can get further details including where to meet for the walk. If you would like to join us for lunch, please contact Stim as above.

Book Club

October is Chesterton's month. We will be discussing "Heretics", one of his early books. In this book he is engaging with modernism and critics of faith. Chesterton is known as the apostle of common sense. He is hugely entertaining. Join us for what will be an interesting discussion. It is also the month of The Chesterton's society's annual lecture series at Campion College. Google it.

One-Day Gathering on Sunday 15th October 2023 from 9:30am - 3:30pm (arrive from 9am) at Mary McKillop Place in North Sydney. The theme of the Gathering is "Leaning into God".

Come along to explore ways we "lean into" each other and how we "lean into" God. Spend the day with other women, reflecting on this theme in our lives and unpacking it through journaling, reflection, song and sharing story. We suggest contribution of $20 for this gathering.

The document reflects on the proclamation of the Gospel, drawing on recent Papal teaching and referring to well-known Gospel parables.

This document offers good formation for parish leaders, ministers and all parishioners in better understanding the key concepts of evangelisation, discipleship and mission in a clear and relevant way.
