At each evening a different person or group was invited to lead.

8th April. Bernie & Paul

Palms

We are requesting palms for the week beginning 4 April.

We require larger fronds for the altar and court yard. If you can help we will have a garbage bin with water at the side of the piety stall to leave the palms during the week.

Also on Friday 8th we will need some helpers to decorate and also to cut palms and put in baskets for the 4 Masses over the weekend.

Reconciliation

There are three ways – rites – that the Sacrament of Reconciliation can be celebrated.

The first rite is a dialogue between the priest and the penitent. This is what we celebrate on Saturday mornings from 8.30am to 10am.

The second rite has some parts celebrated together (hymns, readings, act of contrition, penance) with individual confession of sins by the penitent and individual absolution by the priest. We will be celebrating this rite on Saturday 9 April at 10am. There will be a number of priests helping out.

The third rite in which everything is done in common, there is no individual confession of sins and the prayer of absolution is prayed once, over everyone. This can only be celebrated in times of emergency.

Listening to one another and journeying forward together, guided by the Holy Spirit.

Summary of 23/03/2022 in the Parish Office

Last Friday's bookclub discussed Chesterton's Orthodoxy. There was general agreement that this was a challenging book but at the same time immensely interesting. All agreed that it was worth reading once you could decipher the multilayered complexities of the imagery and paradoxes. While claiming never to have read any apologetics, it was nevertheless an apology for the reasonableness of the Christian faith. His journey to the faith began in the nursery and never really left there. "Fairy tales are more than true- not because they tell us dragons exist, but because they tell us dragons can be beaten." Children and dogs it seems sense the invisible. For Chesterton the problem of disbelieving in God is not that one ends up believing nothing. "Alas, it is much worse. One ends up believing anything." "God is like the sun; you cannot look at it, but without it you cannot look at anything else."

"Christianity has not been tried and found wanting; it has been found difficult and not tried." Clearly Chesterton would have been a star on twitter. He is a constant reminder that life itself is proof of miracles. The next book for discussion will be Brideshead Revisited while the following month, we will be reading and discussing C S Lewis' The Screwtape Letters. Join us if you can.

Garry gazbo2@ozemail.com.au

A friendly small group, please feel free to join us. I have spare copy of Brideshead Revisited if you would like to read and join us at the next book club gathering on Friday 29th April at 4pm. Last month Garry also spoilt us with an amazing cake for afternoon tea.

CatholicCare needs Foster Parents

Tragically, there are many children and young people in our community who are unable to live with their families through no fault of their own.

CatholicCare are looking for foster carers right across the Diocese. We are seeking families to provide essential support, care and stability for children and young people affected by family breakdown, to enable them to recover and thrive. Through our suite of services, and the dedication of our specialist support teams and foster carers, we are transforming the lives of children and young people to create positive futures. Our priority is to ensure these children and young people have a safe, stable home. If you are interested in knowing more about fostering a child or young person, please contact us on (02) 4320 7777 or visit www.catholiccaredbb.org.au/can-you-help/.

The Vatican text of the Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, sent to bishops throughout the world. Pope Francis invited bishops and the rest of the world to join him. This was recited on March 25 in St. Peter's Basilica at 5pm and at St Mary's Cathedral at 3am March 26 to correspond with the same time the Pope prayed in Rome.

Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Mary, Mother of God and our mother, in this time of trial we turn to you. As our mother, you love us and know us: No concern of our hearts is hidden from you. Mother of mercy, how often we have experienced your watchful care and your peaceful presence! You never cease to guide us to Jesus, the prince of peace.

Yet we have strayed from that path of peace. We have forgotten the lesson learned from the tragedies of the last century, the sacrifice of the millions who fell in two world wars. We have disregarded the commitments we made as a community of nations. We have betrayed peoples' dreams of peace and the hopes of the young. We grew sick with greed, we thought only of our own nations and their interests, we grew indifferent and caught up in our selfish needs and concerns.

We chose to ignore God, to be satisfied with our illusions, to grow arrogant and aggressive, to suppress innocent lives and to stockpile weapons. We stopped being our neighbor's keepers and stewards of our common home. We have ravaged the garden of the earth with war, and by our sins we have broken the heart of our heavenly Father, who desires us to be brothers and sisters. We grew indifferent to everyone and everything except ourselves. Now with shame we cry out: Forgive us, Lord!

Holy Mother, amid the misery of our sinfulness, amid our struggles and weaknesses, amid the mystery of iniquity that is evil and war, you remind us that God never abandons us, but continues to look upon us with love, ever ready to forgive us and raise us up to new life. He has given you to us and made your Immaculate Heart a refuge for the church and for all humanity. By God's gracious will, you are ever with us; even in the most troubled moments of our history, you are there to guide us with tender love.

We now turn to you and knock at the door of your heart. We are your beloved children. In every age you make yourself known to us, calling us to conversion. At this dark hour, help us and grant us your comfort. Say to us once more: "Am I not here, I who am your Mother?" You are able to untie the knots of our hearts and of our times. In you we place our trust. We are confident that, especially in moments of trial, you will not be deaf to our supplication and will come to our aid.

That is what you did at Cana in Galilee, when you interceded with Jesus and he worked the first of his signs. To preserve the joy of the wedding feast, you said to him: "They have no wine" (Jn 2:3). Now, O Mother, repeat those words and that prayer, for in our own day we have run out of the wine of hope, joy has fled, fraternity has faded. We have forgotten our humanity and squandered the gift of peace. We opened our hearts to violence and destructiveness. How greatly we need your maternal help!

Therefore, O Mother, hear our prayer. Star of the Sea, do not let us be shipwrecked in the tempest of war. Ark of the New Covenant, inspire projects and paths of reconciliation. Queen of Heaven, restore God's peace to the world. Eliminate hatred and the thirst for revenge, and teach us forgiveness. Free us from war, protect our world from the menace of nuclear weapons. Queen of the Rosary, make us realize our need to pray and to love. Queen of the Human Family, show people the path of fraternity. Queen of Peace, obtain peace for our world.

O Mother, may your sorrowful plea stir our hardened hearts. May the tears you shed for us make this valley parched by our hatred blossom anew. Amid the thunder of weapons, may your prayer turn our thoughts to peace. May your maternal touch soothe those who suffer and flee from the rain of bombs. May your motherly embrace comfort those forced to leave their homes and their native land. May your sorrowful heart move us to compassion and inspire us to open our doors and to care for our brothers and sisters who are injured and cast aside.

Holy Mother of God, as you stood beneath the cross, Jesus, seeing the disciple at your side, said: "Behold your son" (Jn 19:26). In this way, he entrusted each of us to you. To the disciple, and to each of us, he said: "Behold, your Mother" (Jn 19:27). Mother Mary, we now desire to welcome you into our lives and our history.

At this hour, a weary and distraught humanity stands with you beneath the cross, needing to entrust itself to you and, through you, to consecrate itself to Christ. The people of Ukraine and Russia, who venerate you with great love, now turn to you, even as your heart beats with compassion for them and for all those peoples decimated by war, hunger, injustice and poverty. Therefore, Mother of God and our mother, to your Immaculate Heart we solemnly entrust and consecrate ourselves, the church and all humanity, especially Russia and Ukraine. Accept this act that we carry out with confidence and love. Grant that war may end and peace spread throughout the world. The "fiat" that arose from your heart opened the doors of history to the Prince of Peace. We trust that, through your heart, peace will dawn once more. To you we consecrate the future of the whole human family, the needs and expectations of every people, the anxieties and hopes of the world.

Through your intercession, may God's mercy be poured out on the earth and the gentle rhythm of peace return to mark our days. Our Lady of the "fiat," on whom the Holy Spirit descended, restore among us the harmony that comes from God. May you, our "living fountain of hope," water the dryness of our hearts. In your womb Jesus took flesh; help us to foster the growth of communion. You once trod the streets of our world; lead us now on the paths of peace. Amen.
