Prayer to St Michael

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and you,
O Prince of the Heavenly
Hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

On the table outside the church you will find our wish list of jobs to do before Christmas. If you can assist, please put your name beside one of the jobs that need to be done.

You may like to work by yourself, in pairs, or form a group. Just come in your own time for as long as you want.

Before coming it is best to phone and check with the Parish Office that nothing is happening in or around the church.

If cleaning windows sometimes, it is easier to bring your own supplies.

HOPE

First Sunday
of Advent

Advent Wreath Blessing

Dear Jesus, you are the hope in our messy world. This Advent, help us slow down, listen to your voice, and focus on what's really important. We place our hope in you as we prepare our hearts to celebrate your birth on Christmas.

All: Amen

Advent Program

The Coming of Christ

Every Thursday at 7 pm – Parish office.

For 2000 years Jewish people awaited the coming of the promised Messiah. He was to crush Satan and restore the great Kingdom of David.

This week the advent study group examined the biblical prophecies.

We looked at the whole story of the lead up to Advent- why did the Messiah have to come from the house of David? If it's the house of David why is it called the tree of Jesse?

Why did he have to be born in Bethlehem?

What kingdom was he going to restore?

We also looked at the 90 mile journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem along the valleys of the river Jordan taken over five days by a heavily pregnant Mary sitting uncomfortably on a donkey.

We examined the interpretations in scripture of the virgin birth.

The coming of Christ is an extraordinary story. It is the greatest event in history. Our aim is to explore it and understand it.

This week we will be focusing on the spiritual aspects of Christ's birth. What it means to each of us. What it has meant to humankind.

Everyone is invited. No registration is necessary. Bibles are supplied.

Thursday 7 pm in the Parish Office.

Each session lasts for one hour.

MEN'S BUSHWALKING GROUP

Our next walk is on Tuesday 12 September in the Kincumba Mountain Reserve where we will follow two trails at the top of the mountain. Lunch will be at the Kincumber Hotel.

Any gentlemen interested in participating in any of our walks, please contact Stim Robinson at stimrobinson@hotmail.com or on 0401 058 329 and you can get further details including where to meet for the walk.

Bibles for Year 6 Scripture Students Graduation

Over the years we have asked if anyone would like to contribute $14 or what you can afford to sponsor a Bible to gift to young students in Year 6. Our Catechists who are so dedicated love to present each child with a signed Bible from our Parish. If this is something you would like to help with, please put your donation (no matter how small, ever dollar helps) in an envelope marked BIBLES and place on the plate at Mass, or if easier give directly to the parish account, and mark as BIBLES. There will also be a box outside at Mass.

Thank you for helping the Catholic Students in our six Public Schools.

Voluntary Assisted Dying Act 2022

came into effect on 28 November 2023 which means that eligible people in NSW will be able to request medical assistance to end their life.

The Diocese has produced a booklet, an Interim Pastoral Guideline on Voluntary Assisted Dying, which includes a full explanation of the Act as well as the Catholic Response. The Australian Catholics Bishop Conference has also produced a document titled To Witness and to Accompany with Christian Hope to guide priests, chaplains and pastoral workers who are asked to provide pastoral support to Catholics who are considering euthanasia.

Both booklets are available on the Diocese website at: <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/news/latest-news/euthanasia-now-legal-in-nsw>

Catechists

Next weekend we will be hearing about the work of our catechists, teaching special religious education in our government schools. Have you ever considered this as ministry you might do. Please think and pray about it.

Christmas Appeal

This weekend the St Vincent de Paul Society will begin its annual Christmas Appeal. As in past years, Parishioners will be given the chance to assist the Society's work by donating hampers or helping financially with the envelopes provided. Hamper tags will be available at the back of the church and the hampers can be returned at any time during the following fortnight.

Demands on the Society have increased over the last year as the cost of living crisis causes hardship to those living on the margins. Our work is very dependent on the generous support that we receive from these appeals.

We can't wait to have you join us at this special event. Please kindly let us know by December 7th if you will be able to attend, so we can prepare accordingly and make everyone feel welcomed. RSVP to 0418 522 449 or vocations.ministry@bbcatholic.org.au

Book Club

Bookclub will meet on 15th December at 1600 in the parish offices as an end of year get together. Bring a poem or piece of music or an article of interest.

In January we will be reading Will Carter's book Death Comes for the Archbishop. In 1851, Fr John Marie Latour comes as the apostolic vicar to New Mexico. What he finds is a vast territory of red hills and torturous arroyos, American by law, Mexican and Indian in custom and belief. In the almost 40 years that follow, Latour spreads his faith in the only way he knows – gently, although he must contend with an unforgiving landscape, derelict, and sometimes openly rebellious priests, and his own loneliness. Out of these events Carter gives us an indelible vision of life unfolding in a place where time itself seems suspended. A novel based on the life of Archbishop Jean Baptiste Lamy.

Join us if these interest you.

What is spiritual direction?

In spiritual direction you reflect deeply on the experiences of your daily life, your loves, hurts, dreams, joys and fears.

Gradually, as you contemplate, you may begin to discover how God's spirit is moving in your life and that God has been waiting for you to see this closer relationship.

Spiritual direction is really not about being directed, nor is it therapy, or counselling. Rather, it is very much about being encouraged to draw closer to God whether that be in your prayer life, relationships, in nature, or in the events of your life. The privilege and responsibility of a spiritual director is to journey with you, in one-on-one conversations, as you deepen your relationship with God. What is shared is held in confidence.

A meeting time is agreed upon, usually once a month, for an hour.

If you are interested in participating in spiritual direction please call Robyn Wild on 0410 454 650
