Feast of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop

08 August 2021

First Reading : 1 Kings 17:8-16

And then the word of the Lord came to Elijah, 'Up and go to Zarephath, a Sidonian town, and stay there. I have ordered a widow there to give you food.' So he went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives,' she replied 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go ahead and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel:

"Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth" The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.
The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 63:1-8

R. My soul clings to you; your right hand holds me fast.

Second Reading : Colossians 3:12-17

You are God's chosen race, his saints; he loves you and you should be clothed in sincere compassion, in kindness and humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with one another; forgive each other as soon as a quarrel begins. The Lord has forgiven you; now you must do the same. Over all these clothes, to keep them together and complete them, put on love. And may the peace of Christ reign in your hearts, because it is for this that you were called together as parts of one body. Always be thankful.

Let the message of Christ, in all its richness, find a home with you. Teach each other, and advise each other, in all wisdom. With gratitude in your hearts sing psalms and hymns and inspired songs to God; and never say or do anything except in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.
The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel : Matthew 6:25-34

Jesus said to his disciples: That is why I am telling you not to worry about your life and what you are to eat, nor about your body and how you are to clothe it.

Surely life means more than food, and the body more than clothing!

Look at the birds in the sky. They do not sow or reap or gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they are?

Can any of you, for all his worrying, add one single cubit to his span of life?

And why worry about clothing? Think of the flowers growing in the fields; they never have to work or spin; yet I assure you that not even Solomon in all his regalia was robed like one of these.

Now if that is how God clothes the grass in the field which is there today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow, will he not much more look after you, you men of little faith?

So do not worry; do not say, "What are we to eat?

What are we to drink? How are we to be clothed?"

It is the pagans who set their hearts on all these things.

Your heavenly Father knows you need them all.

Set your hearts on his kingdom first, and on his righteousness, and all these other things will be given you as well.

So do not worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will take care of itself.

Each day has enough trouble of its own.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Thank you to those who have advised us of changing envelopes to credit cards or debit cards. There is no time limit for this if you still want to choose this mode.

Thank you also for using the Parish Mail Box in the door to the Parish Office.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

These past five weeks or so, have triggered unending questions from various corners of the community. Some enquiries are helpful, as they raise awareness around the neighbourhood, they highlight what might be of assistance to others as we navigate new spaces and evolving relationships.

As you may realise, the next Australian Census will be taken on Tuesday, 10th August, 2021

Please note there will be a No Religion option. Please ensure you answer with YOUR religion as your answer is important. The total number of each religion will have an influence on the allocation of resources. The Census isn't just numbers, but what those numbers tell us – every stat tells a story.

Please pass on to family and friends.

First Spiritual Exercises Field Hospital

Pope Francis has said that the Church should be like a “field hospital”. Michael Hansen has taken this to heart and produced a wealth of prayers based on the First Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius Loyola.

One prayer suggested for this time of lockdown is a prayer for Inspiring Energy.

“God knows we could all do with some more energy these days. Have you thought about energy from God? This energy reaches from the mystery of our Creator right into the mystery of our own hearts and bodies. It is an arc of blazing life, wild and powerful, sure and deep, a zap, if you will, to our soul. Such spiritual energy can inspire us. To 'inspire', 'respire' and 'find inspiration', all have the same root - to breathe or inhale. So an inspiring energy from the Spirit is about an animating, quickening, even exalting influence that is breathed in and out. If you need some of this inspiring energy today, try this exercise: <https://tinyurl.com/5ydtbr6a>”

The Field Hospital Post Office has some fifty similar prayers to try. Go to <https://tinyurl.com/y7n4yn7r> You can also invite a friend to sign up to these Field Hospital Exercises or to do the First Spiritual Exercises at <https://www.first-exercises.com/field-hospital-sign-up/>

What a wonderful resource. Without leaving home, you can begin a Jesuit / Ignatian retreat. Give it a go!

The Angelus

This is another traditional prayer that celebrates the incarnation and is usually prayed at 6am, midday and 6pm to sanctify the whole day. It is often accompanied by bells that ring at this time. Historically these bells were to tell the workers in the fields it was time to start work; to stop for lunch; and to return home. Now it is a reminder to us to pray. The Angelus bells ring in our parish every day at 12 noon. For the prayers of the Angelus and more about its history click on Angelus

The 19th century painting by the French painter Jean-Francois Millet (above) is of a farming couple praying the Angelus at dusk.

The Epic Intimacy Challenge

by Joyful Ever After

Damon and Melanie Owens from Joyful Ever After have created something for married couples that is worth sharing.

Did you know that most marital frustration and conflicts are the result of what they have labelled EPIC Drift?

Rarely is it one isolated incident that causes a problem in a marriage. Rather, it's a series of small communication breakdowns across four key areas of intimacy that take place over time:

- Emotional intimacy
- Physical intimacy
- Intellectual intimacy

Communicative intimacy

These unresolved intimacy and communication breakdowns creates a drifting apart between the husband and wife which plays out in a host of negative ways from a general unhappiness and boredom to real resentments and escalating conflicts.

Damon and Melanie have created the four day EPIC Marriage Intimacy Challenge to help married and engaged couples learn how much they really understand each other and identify, prevent, and repair those areas of drift present in even the best of marriages.

The EPIC Challenge is fun, 100% free to sign up and only takes a few minutes a day.

We hope you take the challenge! Your marriage is worth it!

Plenary Council Report

Each month the Holy Father, Pope Francis, gives the Pope's monthly prayer intentions to the world through the Apostleship of Prayer. For this month of August he prays: Let us pray for the Church, that she may receive from the Holy Spirit the grace and strength to reform herself in the light of the Gospel.

Since his election in 2013 Pope Francis has worked hard to gradually reform and update the Church. Examples of this event have been highlighted in the bulletin – the opening up to women the orders of acolytes and lectors/the re-institution of the order of catechist, again open to women/the continual emphasis on Synodality which means the devolution of power and responsibility of local problems to local churches, his implicit acceptance of widespread changes and reforms in the churches of Germany, Netherlands and Belgium.

Now in furtherance of church reform he has called a Worldwide Synod of Bishops to meet in Rome in October 2023. The Vatican says the Synod is to be “a process not an event “ and is to be a process whereby, as the Vatican statement says, “the views of the faithful, the people of God, are heard and listened to”. The Pope is explicit – he wants the views of the people of God, the 1.3 billion Catholics throughout the world. The bishops are to listen and hear what the people are saying and bring it to Rome. The Pope wants the Synod to be an expression of the “sensus fidelium”– the collective views of the whole universal Church.

The Holy Spirit guides the Pope and the bishops; and also guides every baptised Catholic.

Our own Plenary Council, commencing in October this year, is there to hear the views of the faithful as expressed in the 222,000 submissions the secretariat received. It must hear and listen so the bishops can honestly and properly represent the views of Australian Catholics in Rome in 2023.

The Diocese of Broken Bay, like every diocese throughout the world, has been instructed by the Pope to open a listening phase commencing October 17, 2021. This diocesan phase will last from October 2021 to April 2022 and will be a consultative process with lay people throughout the world as the Vatican statement puts it: “ ...so that the synodal process is carried out through listening to all the baptised... the time is ripe for a wider participation of the people of God in a decision-making process that affects the whole Church and everyone in the church. The Second Vatican Council teaches that the people of God participate in the prophetic office of Christ. Therefore we must listen to the people of God. The Pope, in endorsing synodality, has allowed considerable changes to be trialled to church governance.

In the Lausanne diocese of Switzerland lay people are now appointed as "pastoral agents" to govern different sections of the diocese. The pastoral agent has jurisdiction over each parish in his region including the parish clergy. The pastoral agents, not the clergy, are hence the Bishop's advisors. Lausanne diocese is a particularly significant choice for this experimentation as it is not subject to the Swiss Episcopal Conference but reports directly to Rome.

Spiritual Corner: Feasts and saints of the week:

Sunday 8 August St Mary of the Cross MacKillop Mary Helen MacKillop RSJ was an Australian religious sister who has been declared a saint by the Catholic Church, as St Mary of the Cross. Of Scottish descent, she was born in Melbourne 1842, died in North Sydney and is best known for her work in establishing Catholic schools throughout Australia. Australia's first saint—Pray for Us

Some of St Mary MacKillop's quotes

- Whatever troubles may be before you, accept them bravely, remembering whom you are trying to follow. ...
- We must teach more by example than by word. ...
- Find happiness in making others happy. ...
- Believe in the whisperings of God to your own heart.

Monday 9 St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein) Edith Stein was born in Breslau (now Wrocław, Poland) - Born 12 October 1891 – died 9 August 1942. She was a German Jewish philosopher who converted to Catholicism and became a Discalced Carmelite nun. She is canonized as a martyr and saint of the Catholic Church. She is one of six co-patron saints of Europe.

Tuesday 10 St Lawrence Martyr was one of the seven deacons of the city of Rome, Italy, under Pope Sixtus II who was martyred in the persecution of the Christians.

Wednesday 11 St Clare of Assisi & St Philomena

Saint Clare of Assisi was an Italian saint and the founder of the Order of Poor Ladies, (the poor Clares) and one of the first followers of Saint Francis of Assisi. The group became known for their austere and devout lifestyle and for the power of their prayer, which is credited with saving Assisi from invaders twice. After Francis' death, Clare continued his work and broadened her own influence. Clare died in 1253 and was canonized two years later by Pope Alexander IV.

Thursday 12 St Jane Frances de Chantal

St. Jane was born in Dijon France in 1572. Her mother died when she was 18 months old and her father saw to her education. Her marriage into a noble family at age 21 made her a well-known social figure of the time. As a wife and mother, she was very devoted to her family. She also had great compassion for the poor and is said to have always welcomed them into her home when they needed food. Jane became a widow with the care of four children when her beloved husband was killed while out shooting. At the death of her husband, St. Jane de Chantal, was broken-hearted, and would not forgive the individual responsible for her husband's accidental death. She had a change of heart after hearing the holy bishop, St. Francis de Sales preach on the love of God. De Sales became a friend and later her spiritual director. Together with his support and the support of her father and brother, she founded the Congregation of the Visitation and established several convents throughout France.

Friday 13 St Pontian & St Hippolytus Martyrs

Saturday 14 St Maximilian Kolbe

Maximilian Kolbe, born in Poland in 1894, was a Franciscan friar and Catholic priest. It was said that St Maximilian survived without food or water for two weeks in an underground prison cell. He was the last of the ten to die, eventually executed by lethal injection. Maximilian Kolbe died as prisoner 16770 in Auschwitz-Birkenau, and is much remembered in the Catholic Church and beyond, as he offered his own life to save a fellow prisoner.

We learn so much from the saints. Why not google and find out more about the saints mentioned—something extra to do for our faith building in our "isolation"!

To quote our own Australian Saint Mary MacKillop of the Cross

“Never see a need without doing something about it.”

Thank you Terrigal Parish and Friends for following that message.

The groceries left at our Parish Office door were taken to Sally (from Mary Mac's Place) who drove the Mary Mac van to George's Food Barn car park and we filled it there. George's again gave us more groceries and we were able to buy even more from the cash donations we had received.

In Sally's own words from Mary Mac's Place.

This week has been huge! Such a great response from our community near and far of donations to help people in need. A huge thank you to Our Lady Star of the Sea, Terrigal you have always supported us and have taken it a step further this time with helping supply more food, fruit and vegetables to our community. This is also thanks to George's Fruit Barn at Terrigal, thank you for the lovely fruit and vegies. I have also had individuals contacting me and asking how they can help and its just amazing how supportive the Central Coast people can be of each other!

Thank you so much to everyone!!!
