From the Dioceses: Vox Populi

Every member of the Church is called to holiness – that is called to love.

We are called to love God and to love each other. The particular way that you live out that call to holiness is your vocation.

This month we are recognising and celebrating Vocations in the Diocese with a number of events where we can hear about what “vocation” might mean to you, as well as testimonials from our priests and religious. Vocation is by invitation, a personal invitation from God. It is also an expression of who you are. It is not a job or a career but the way God invites you to love and give of yourself to others.

It may seem a little odd talking of the priesthood, religious life, married life and single life all as vocations. Aren't they very different?

Of course there is diversity but at the heart, each shares a common commitment to love. As St John Paul II said; “Love is the fundamental and innate vocation of every human being.” And of course we always have the freedom to choose.

Our Vocations Team in Broken Bay has already organised some wonderfully engaging events including a Youth Mass and BBQ on the Central Coast followed up this week with a Seminarian Benefit Dinner at Our Lady of Dolours, Parish, Chatswood where Broken Bay seminarians will share their own vocational journey.

Keep an eye on our Diocesan Facebook page where you will also see more inspiring stories from our priests and religious and on our Diocese website <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/vocations>

If you're not sure what your vocation is perhaps Archbishop Fulton Sheen's advice is helpful: “God does not shouts but whispers.” Maybe we just need to create a space where we can be quiet, still and attentive.
