On Good Friday abstinence from meat is to be observed by those who have completed their fourteenth year of age. Those who are aged between 18 and 60 are also required to fast on these days. To "fast" means eating two small meals and one normal meal, and nothing else during the day.

On all other Fridays in Lent the law of the common practice of penance is fulfilled by an act of prayer, self-denial or helping others.
Between Ash Wednesday and Trinity Sunday (at the end of Easter) all the faithful are obliged to receive Holy Communion and to confess any grave sins.

Bookclub

Tolstoy is almost synonymous with Russia. His fame was widespread. War and Peace and Anna Karenina were met with exuberance, yet his response to his fiction was the same as St Thomas Aquinas at the end of his career- it all counted for nothing. His later writings were a reflection of his spiritual journey. His "Confession", the subject of our next book club meeting outlines that spiritual journey. In that respect he would have done well to have read St Augustine rather than the influence that was most prominent in his reading: Rousseau.

In April our Bookclub club will be reading "Mere Christianity" by CS Lewis. In May we will read Bishop Robert Barron's little book on Thomas Aquinas. If these interest you please join us. gazboantonius@gmail.com
