29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Year B 17 October 2021

The Month of the Holy Rosary

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering.
If he offers his life in atonement,
he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life
and through him what the Lord wishes will be done.

His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content.
By his sufferings shall my servant justify many,
taking their faults on himself.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 32:4-6 R Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-6

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them, 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

Return to Mass

If we reach 80% double vaccinated over the weekend, and if the government announces that we have moved to the next level of easing the restrictions, and if the Bishop gives approval for Masses to resume ...

then we will put the Mass timetable for Monday 18 October to Sunday 24 October here and will email to everyone on our mailing list.

Watch this space.....

Easing of COVID restrictions

The church is now open for private prayer from 9am to 5pm and Reconciliation is available, by appointment. Funerals and weddings can have up to 100 people. (The limit is 10 people if an unvaccinated person is attending.)

From Monday 25th October, Mass, Reconciliation and Baptisms will resume as usual and devotions such as Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet and the St Michael Prayer Group may also resume if they are meeting in the church.

COVID-safe practices will be required in the church and there will be limitations of what we can do in the celebration of Mass. From 1 December there will be even less restrictions and we will be settling into the new normal with COVID-19 in the community.

The parish staff have been fully vaccinated and, until 1 December, only those who are also fully vaccinated may visit the parish office or hall. Please register with the QR code when you arrive and wearing masks is recommended.

Euthanasia

The NSW parliament has started to debate a bill legalising euthanasia in our state. The church has consistently been against the taking of human life and in the debate high standard palliative care is rarely presented as a positive alternative.

Gosford Hospital now has a 40 bed care palliative care unit which is excellent. I visit it almost every Saturday, when I am on call for the Hospital, to anoint Catholics who are approaching the end of life. It is always a positive experience for the patient, the family and myself. They also provide wonderful palliative care in the home.

The PPC has arranged to have a forum in the parish about palliative care which was postponed due to COVID. We will re-schedule it as soon as possible. If you want to read more about palliative care, click here for a good article.

BULLETIN NEWS

Next week we will return to a smaller bulletin. Fr Vince and I with contributions from Chris with Plenary Council updates and Synod notes, have kept your Isolation busy with your parish reading.

Thank you for the positive encouragement over the weeks. It was our way not only to keep you informed, but to remind you (and us) we are an extended parish family built on Faith. It was an opportunity as some told us to draw closer to God and to learn more about what is important in their life through the variety of material presented.

Personally I will miss putting together our BIG bulletin, but will still add a spiritual touch. Janette

PARISH FAMILY AND FRIENDS CHRISTMAS DINNER

More information to come.

COVID-safe practices at church after 25 October

When we arrive at the church we need to register our attendance by using the QR code. If you do not have a smartphone please arrange to have a personal QR code card that can be scanned. Contact the Parish Office if you need help to get a card – it only takes a few minutes.

We need to sanitise our hands, wear a face mask and socially distance.

We always need help with social distancing:

- We will not have chains across the pews, but every second pew will have a sign asking you not to use this pew. Fill the pews without a sign first. If you are the first to sit in one of these pews, take a position in the middle of the pew so others do not need to squeeze past you. Households need to keep at least 1.5 metres apart.

- If the other pews need to be used as the church fills, the person sitting in that pew needs to take responsibility for being more than 1.5 metres from the people in front or behind you.

- Spread out in the communion line. You are responsible not to come closer than 1.5 metres to the person in front of you.

As an act of love and a sign of welcome, let's make our church as safe as possible for everyone. Please stay safe yourself and let's keep each other safe.

Financial Counselling & Emergency Relief Programs

Throughout Australia, housing prices are on a sharp increase. Therefore, you'd think that Australia's economy is booming too, right? After all, property sales are driving housing costs up, so this means that people have the means to purchase new houses and cars. Yes? Unfortunately, this isn't always the case. Currently record numbers of Australians seeking emergency relief services and financial counselling. CatholicCare can help. This recent article provides more information www.catholiccaredbb.org.au/news/financial-counselling-emergency-relief.

The Worldwide Synod of Bishops

The Catholic Church throughout the world this weekend officially begins preparations for a Worldwide Synod of Bishops which shall take place in October 2023 in Rome.

The theme Pope Francis has chosen for the gathering is: "For a synodal church: communion participation and mission."

In doing so, he is seeking to give a new impetus to a synodal process that has involved the whole people of God since the very beginning of the Church. From the earliest days of the church people gathered to discern when they were faced with a crisis or at a turning point. The Acts of the Apostles tell that when the early Christian church needed to resolve certain practical problems or pastoral questions, they held an assembly of believers, and called on the Holy Spirit and discussed with those in authority.

In announcing the worldwide Synod the Pope urged Catholics to be conscious of three risks as they embark on the path. The Pope said that proceedings could be impeded by "formalism," "intellectualism" and the "temptation of complacency."

In relation to formalism the Pope said: "... We cannot remain satisfied with appearances alone; we need content, means and structures that can facilitate dialogue and interaction within the people of God, especially between priests and the laity ... sometimes there is some elitism in the clergy that makes it detached from the laity."

In relation to intellectualism he said the Synod could turn into... "a kind of study group losing itself in abstraction... the usual people saying the usual things and ending up... far removed from the reality of the people of God and the life of communities around the world."

In relation to the temptation to complacency the Pope said: "... an attitude of we have always done it this way... those who think this... make the mistake of not taking seriously the times in which we are living... the danger, in the end, is to apply old solutions to new problems."

The Vatican announced in May that a diocesan phase would commence in October 2021 and last until April 2022. A second continental phase will take place from September 2022 to March 2023. The third phase will be the gathering of the Bishops in Rome in October 2023.

The Pope emphasised the role of all Catholics, not just Bishops. He said: "... we must acknowledge the frustration and impatience felt by many pastoral workers, members of diocesan and parish consultative bodies and women, who frequently remain on the fringes... enabling everyone to participate is an essential ecclesial duty."

In his address, the Pope acknowledged the challenge of involving everyone in the process. In September, last month, the Vatican released a preparatory document encouraging dioceses to consult all baptised, including those no longer participating in church life. Consultation must involve practising Catholics as well as non-practising Catholics. All baptised Catholics are members of the People of God.

Mary, Queen of Peace,

Pope St John Paul II Pray For Us

Double Vaccination

There are some mixed messages begin received from social media that priests are against vaccination. I want to remove any ambiguity and re-assure everyone in the parish that Fr Jack Robson, Janette, Nellie and I have all been double vaccinated.

The Pope has said that “being vaccinated is an act of love” and inoculation is a “moral obligation”. Likewise, our Bishop has told us that he has been double vaccinated and encouraged us to do the same “for the common good”. Also, our Vicar General has noted that the large numbers being vaccinated has meant that our churches can now open for public worship.

Rosary for the Family

The Vatican has a gift for families for the month of October, which is traditionally dedicated to the Rosary. The gift is a free e-book that features watercolor illustrations of the mysteries of the Rosary, quotes from Pope Francis' 2016 document, Amoris Laetitia ("The Joy of Love"), and questions meant to prompt sharing about faith in the family.

"The meditations are brief, taken from Amoris Laetitia and are accompanied by short questions and images that can help you reflect in faith, even with children."

Many of the questions take an event in the life of the Holy Family and encourage parents to share something of their experience. For example, after praying the third joyful mystery – the birth of Jesus – parents are asked, "How did you feel when you discovered that you were to become parents? What was it like to welcome children to the world?"

Spiritual Corner: Feasts and saints of the week: (Our extended family in Heaven).

Monday 18 St Luke the Catholic Church and other major denominations venerate him as Saint Luke the Evangelist and as a patron saint of artists, physicians, bachelor surgeons, students and butchers . St Luke is one of the Four Evangelists—the four traditionally ascribed author of the canonical gospels. The Early Church Fathers ascribed to him authorship of both the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles, which would mean St Luke contributed over a quarter of the text of the New Testament, more than any other author.

Tuesday 19 St Paul of the Cross originally named Paolo Francesco Daneii, was born on 3 January 1694, in the town in northern Italy. Paul's parents were Luca and Anna and he was the second of sixteen children, six of whom survived infancy; and learned at an early age the reality of death and the uncertainty of life.

Paul received his early education from a priest who kept a school for boys, in Cremolino, Lombardy. He made great progress and at the age of fifteen he left school and returned to his home at Castellazzo. In his early years he taught catechism in churches near his home.

Paul experienced a conversion to a life of prayer at the age of 19. Influenced by his reading of the "Treatise on the Love of God" by Saint Francis de Sales and the direction he received from priests of the Capuchin Order, it became his lifelong conviction that God is most easily found in the Passion of Christ.

When he was 26 years old, Paul had a series of prayer-experiences which made it clear to him that God was inviting him to form a community who would live an evangelical life and promote the love of God revealed in the Passion of Jesus. A legend tells that in a vision, he saw himself clothed in the habit he and his companions would wear.^[5] The first name Paul received for his community was "the Poor of Jesus"; later they came to be known as the Congregation of the Passion of Jesus Christ, or the Passionists. With the encouragement of his bishop, who clothed him in the black habit of a hermit, Paul wrote the rule of his new community (of which he was, as yet, the only member)^[2] during a retreat of forty days at the end of 1720. The community was to live a penitential life, in solitude and poverty, teaching people in the easiest possible way how to meditate on the Passion of Jesus.

Wednesday 20 St Irene of Rome was a Christian woman in the Roman Empire during the reign of Diocletian. She was the wife of Saint Castulus. According to Christian legend, she attended to Saint Sebastian after he was wounded by Mauretanian archers.

Thursday 21 St Laura Montoya (26 May 1874 – 21 October 1949) – known in religion as Laura of Saint Catherine of Siena – was a Colombian Roman Catholic religious sister and the founder of the Congregation of the Missionary Sisters of the Immaculate Virgin Mary and Saint Catherine of Siena (1914). She was well known for her work with Indigenous peoples and for acting as a strong role model for South American girls. Pope John Paul II beatified her in 2004 and Pope Francis canonized her as a saint on 12 May 2013. Montoya is the first Colombian to be made a saint

— SAINT
JOHN PAUL II ✝

Friday 22 St John Paul 11 bishop of Rome and head of the Roman Catholic Church (1978–2005), the first non-Italian pope in 455 years . He is remembered for his successful efforts to end communism, as well as for building bridges with peoples of other faiths, and issuing the Catholic Church's first apology for its actions during World War II. He was succeeded by Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger, who became Pope Benedict XVI. Benedict XVI began the process to beatify John Paul II in May 2005, and in 2014 John Paul II was canonized. He is unofficially referred to as Pope John Paul the Great when Emeritus Pope Benedict XVI honored St. John Paul II on the centenary of his birth (2020) and floated the idea that he should be called "the Great," as only two other popes have been.

OCTOBER THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

"You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary"
- Mary to Blessed Alan de la Roche

"The Rosary is a prayer that always accompanies me; it is also the prayer of the ordinary people and the saints... it is a prayer from my heart." - Pope Francis

*"Our Lady has never refused me a grace through the recitation of the Rosary."
"Abandon yourself in the hands of Mary. She will take care of you."* - St. Padre Pio

"The whole purpose of the Rosary is to lead to this deep experience of Our Lady, who together with Jesus breathes the Spirit into us." - Thomas Keating

"I take refuge, then, in prayer, and turn to Mary, and our Lord always triumphs." - St Therese of Lisieux

"The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary shall not perish."
- Mary to St. Dominic

"The Rosary is the most beautiful and the most rich in graces of all prayers; it is the prayer that touches most the Heart of the Mother of God...and if you wish peace to reign in your homes, recite the family Rosary." - Pope Saint Pius X

"Let us run to Mary, and, as her little children, cast ourselves into her arms with a perfect confidence." - St. Francis de Sales

"When you say your Rosary, the angels rejoice, the Blessed Trinity delights in it, my Son finds joy in it too, and I myself am happier than you can possibly guess. After the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, there is nothing in the Church that I love as much as the Rosary."

- Our Lady to Blessed Alan de la Roche

This is the month of the Holy Rosary, let's call on our Beautiful Mother everyday, Amen.
