Prayer to St Michael

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and you, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

Church Cleaning

A great thanks to those who have volunteered to clean the church for Christmas. A special thanks to our organiser who willingly fills in any gaps and to one parishioner who has cleaned all the windows in the church!

There are still some things needing to be done.
The list is at the back of the church.

If you see something that you think needs doing, please step up and get it done.

Church Ceiling

The mold that has formed on the ceiling of the church will be cleaned during the week. Catholic Church Insurances are progressing with the investigation into its cause and will rectify the problem to ensure it does not happen again.

Twenty Years in our Church

Welcome to Bishop Anthony who will be celebrating the 10am Mass this weekend to recognise twenty years since the dedication of the church. We thank him for joining us for this important occasion.

We encourage all parishioners to attend this Mass, even if you are a regular at another time.
Other Masses this weekend will be without music and other ministries.

Thanks to all the parishioners who have helped prepare for the celebrations.

Parish Pastoral Council

At our meeting last week Michael Slattery resigned as Chair and stepped down from the PPC after many years of service. We can't thank Michael enough for his wisdom, guidance and leadership and look forward to the new ways he will continue to be involved in the parish. Chris Hartcher has accepted the position of Chair for the next year and we look forward to the initiatives under Chris' leadership.

Congratulations to Curtis Stephenson who will be received into the church, confirmed and make his First Communion at the 10 am Mass this weekend.

Please welcome Curtis and his family into our community.

The latest edition includes safeguarding measures for adults with a focus on adults at risk. You can access Who is an adult at risk training and other ACSL resources through <https://www.acsltd.org.au/services/support-materials/acsl-training/>

Supporting Parents

The eSafety Commissioner has released resources to support parents with safe and secure tech gifts for children. For further information and resources visit <https://www.esafety.gov.au/parents/resources/>

NEW PARISH NAME TAGS

The latest order has come back. You can collect from the parish office or after the Masses at the greeting table.

Name tags are $10
(subsidised by the parish)

Book Club

The next bookclub meeting will be discussing Bishop Robert Barron's book Arguing Religion. This is a book based on a talk he gave at Facebook and Google where he outlines a mechanism for discussing religion in a way that best exemplifies faith seeking understanding. He believes there is a middle ground between violent imposition and bland, subjectivizing indifference—namely the art of arguing religion. His YouTube clip "Ideas have Consequences" have had close on a million views suggesting that there is a great thirst for understanding of where religion fits into this ever changing world. If this sounds at all interesting come and join us. The book is available from the Australian branch of the Word on Fire website.

Parish Pastoral Plan 2022

Mission: We, the parishioners of Our Lady Star of the Sea Terrigal are a community of Catholic people whose faith in God is inspired by the love and example of Jesus and his command to 'love one another as I have loved you' and whose actions are guided and empowered by the Holy Spirit.

Vision: We love one another so that all may have a sense of belonging; desire a relationship with God; and want to share the Good News with others.

Objectives:

1. Everyone in the Parish takes a personal interest in others, introducing themselves to people they have not met before; greeting new people to the parish; and inviting family and friends to come to our church. (Community)
2. Everyone in the Parish does something each year to grow in their knowledge of the faith and to deepen their relationship with God. (Conversion)
3. As a result of hearing the Good News, everyone in the Parish is given the opportunity to be involved in good works through a Ministry. (Mission)

Can you assist? Cash donations or credit card details can be placed in the Pastoral Works envelope and put in either collection bag. Also, contact the parish office if you would like to have a regular (monthly) deduction from your credit card.

All donations over $2 are 100% tax deductible.
