Prayer to St Michael

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and you,
O Prince of the Heavenly
Hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

Understanding the Mass

Last week, in his third of four seminars Fr David Orr guided us through the Liturgy of the Eucharist which includes the Preparation of the Gifts, the Eucharistic Prayer, and Communion Rite.

Fr David will be here again next Saturday 25th March from 3pm to 4.30pm in the Parish Hall. He will be touching on the Concluding Rite and most of the session will be a practical application of what we have learnt, looking how we might celebrate the Mass differently at Our Lady Star of the Sea, and how we would be put this into practice.

Funeral

On Tuesday 21st at 10am we farewell John Goodwin. John enjoyed his ministry in the Parish as an acolyte for many years.

Are animals worthy of God's blessing? from the PPC.

St Francis of Assisi thought so. He even preached to the birds in the trees, anxious that every living creature should hear the Word of God. Every living creature is God's creation and worthy of God's blessing.

The church made St Francis the patron saint of animals. The United Nations commemorates World Animal Day on his birthday.

This year our Parish, following the traditions of the church for hundreds of years, will have its own festival for the blessing of the animals. This will be on the Sunday 17th September, which is the Sunday in the school term which is closest to the feast of St Francis.

The blessing will be at the shrine of Our Lady, but if they're too many animals it will be transferred to the oval. The church has a fully established ritual for this day and it has traditionally been a significant event in the church calendar.

Everyone, and more importantly every domestic animal, is invited. Dogs, birds, guinea pigs are usually the most popular. Cats tend to find the ceremony difficult and frightening.

So come along. Like St Francis rejoice in the glory of God's creation.

Franz Joseph Haydn

An introduction to the beautiful music of Franz Joseph Haydn (1732 – 1809) touching on his oratorio "The Creation" and his "Seven Last Words of Christ" – two of his greatest works!

All are invited to come and hear how the music can speak to us in a profound and spiritual way.

Presented by John Sheehan.
 Saturday 1st April from 3pm to 4.30pm in the Parish Hall.

Church in the Café from the PPC

A new idea? No, it's been around for a while. It's a simple concept that every so often we all meet together in a more informal atmosphere for divine worship. In some parishes people actually meet in a cafe, have coffee, share the scriptures and have a religious discussion. (There is also "Spirituality in the Pub").

What we are suggesting in our parish is that we would meet in the parish hall, grab ourselves a coffee or a tea, listen to some high-quality and inspiring religious music, read the Scriptures, discuss them, and pray. It would not be a substitute for Mass but an additional act of worship in a more modern format.

The PPC has requested Fr Vince to agree to a proposal and he has generously agreed. We all remember the great feast of Ascension Thursday, the day our Saviour ascended into heaven 40 days after his resurrection. In our church this was traditionally celebrated as a holy day of obligation on the Thursday, being the 40th day. The Holy See and ACBC have, in recent years, reorganised the church calendar and we now celebrate the Ascension on a Sunday. This year Ascension Thursday falls on 18th May. The PPC proposes we have our first Church in the Café experience on this day, starting at about 10am.

We have some excellent proposals for a musical presentation and would follow up by reading the story of the Ascension and discussing it.

Are you interested? Then save the date. One of the great mysteries of our faith is the 40 days that Christ spent on earth after his Resurrection culminating in his glorious Ascension. Something we celebrate but rarely actually discuss.

SERRA VOCATIONS MASS AND DINNER MEETING

Father Ireneusz (Irek) Czech SDS, Parish Priest of Pymble Catholic Parish, will be celebrating Mass for Serra at Sacred Heart Church Pymble on Thursday 23rd March 2023.

The evening commences with Mass at 6.00 PM followed by a light meal and a short meeting.

Following the meeting Father Irek will speak to us about his vocation journey and discuss Savatorian Spirituality.

Everyone is welcome. Please "come and see".

Please remember to pray every day for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, the consecrated life, ecclesial women, all seminarians and novices and for the perseverance of existing vocations.

Please telephone: Terry Scanlan on 0438 887 295 or email terry_scanlan@bigpond.com if you would like to attend.

Our volunteers have flexibility to choose a day and time that suits them, we just ask for a commitment of at least one hour per fortnight.

If you can help, please contact Nicki on 0418 4.35 304 or visit www.catholiccaredbb.org.au/volunteer.

A warm invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

NSW State Election

The 2023 New South Wales state election will be held on 25th March.

Topics include cost of living; energy; housing; families; education; transport; health; infrastructure; environment; domestic violence; homelessness; law and justice; and religious freedom.

This not a comprehensive list of each major party's election pledges and it is not either an endorsement or opposition to the parties or their policies.

The Guide can be viewed at <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/news/latest-news>

Knowing how wonderful the parishioners have been during the fete. They have a number of sweat towels that we would love to have embroidered with their names.

Please contact Samantha Rawling if you can help on 0418 221 565.

Book Club

Sally Read's book "Annunciation" will be the subject of discussions at the next bookclub meeting on Friday 31st March at 1600 hrs in the parish offices. Two days before making her first Holy Communion, Sally Read's daughter told her mother "I don't know if I believe in God" The book emerges as a response to her daughter. A response that is in fact a 'universal close and remote dance with God', while meditating on the Annunciation.

April bookclub will be discussing Rabbi Jonathon Sack's book. The Persistence of Faith. Reflections of why religious faith has failed to die despite the predictions.

In May we will be discussing Scott Hahn & Benjamin Wiker's book "The Decline and Fall of Sacred Scripture: How the Bible Became a Secular Book". If any of these books interest you please join us on the last Friday of every month at 1600 hrs in the parish offices.

Catenian Walks

Unfortunately, we had to postpone the walk as the weather forecast was very threatening so we decided to simply have a chat over coffee at the hotel. Very pleasant and good company.

Our next walk is on Tuesday 28th March and we will be covering trails in the Kincumba Mountain Reserve. Lunch is at Kincumber Hotel for our 'chat and chew'.

Each fortnightly walk takes an hour or so and we select generally easy/modest grade tracks. Any gentlemen interested in participating in any of our walks, please contact Stim Robinson at stimrobinson@hotmail.com or on 0401 058 329 and you can get the details of where to meet.

If you would like to join us for lunch, please contact Stim as above.

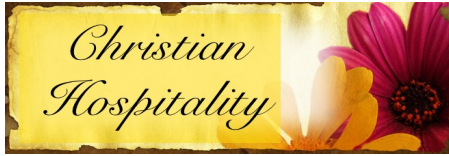

Discernment Retreat for Men

Are you considering a vocation to the Priesthood? Join us at the Seminary of the Good Shepherd for a special retreat from the 24th - 26th of March and take this opportunity to really focus on listening to God. Hear talks from inspiring speakers, spend time in personal prayer, receive the sacraments, spend time in adoration, and get spiritual guidance and Q&A with seminarians. Come and be inspired by the gentle and loving initiative of God and accept the invitation to respond with courage!
