ON CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME

Paragraph 9: Pope Francis refers to a lecture in June 2003 by Patriarch Bartholomew who drew attention 'to the ethical and spiritual roots of environmental problems, which require that we look for solutions not only in technology but in a change of humanity; otherwise we would be dealing merely with symptoms.'

SUNDAY FRIENDS OF JESUS
(Children's Liturgy 8.30am)

At 8.30 Mass the children are invited to the front of the Altar to receive a blessing and go out with the Children's Liturgy teachers into the hall.

If you would like to be part of this Ministry, please contact Michelle 0439449929 also if circumstances have changed and you need to come off the roster please also contact Michelle.

The CWF brings joy!

Next CWF Collection 2/3 November. We will be sharing Rachel and Clare's stories about their experience as students and now catechists themselves! Our catechists bring joy and spiritual fulfilment to children in their Catholic Scripture classes. There are 16,500 children who receive Catholic Religious Education in NSW Public Schools in our Diocese.

When you make the decision to give to the Charitable Works Fund you are helping your local community. Donations received are distributed between the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD), CatholicCare Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Practitioners, St Lucy's School, St Edmund's College and the Ephpheta Centre. All these charities and agencies minister to our families, friends and neighbours in the Diocese of Broken Bay. For more information on the beneficiaries please visit the Diocese of Broken Bay website <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/give/charitable-works-fund>

Dear God,
Please give me strength
when I am weak, love when I feel forsaken, courage
when I am afraid, wisdom
when I am foolish, comfort
when I am alone, hope when I feel rejected, and peace when I am in turmoil.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

Spiritual Direction being offered in our Parish. In spiritual direction you reflect deeply on the experiences of your daily life, your loves, hurts, dreams, joys and fears.

Gradually, as you contemplate, you may begin to discover how God's spirit is moving in your life and that God has been waiting for you to see this closer relationship. Spiritual direction is really not about being directed, nor is it therapy, or counselling. Rather, it is very much about being encouraged to draw closer to God whether that be in your prayer life, relationships, in nature, or in the events of your life. The privilege and responsibility of a spiritual director is to journey with you, in one on one conversations, as you deepen your relationship with God. What is shared is held in confidence.

If you are interested in participating in spiritual direction please call Robyn Wild 0410454650

STATEMENT FROM OUR BISHOP ELECT

Most Rev Anthony Randazzo appointed fourth Bishop of Broken Bay

I am honoured and humbled by this appointment, and grateful to the Holy Father for the confidence he has shown by entrusting me with the privilege and responsibility of being the fourth Bishop of the Diocese of Broken Bay. Ultimately, this appointment is not about me; it is about Jesus Christ, and about how we, as living members of the Body of Christ, bring Him to the world by the way we live out our baptismal vocation with love. We are instruments in His hands. The Coat of Arms for the Diocese of Broken Bay features an image of the lighthouse on the Barrenjoey Peninsula, with the Chi Rho – one of the earliest symbols for Christ – marked on the side. It is a reminder that Christ is our Light. He leads us and guides us, both to the open waters and back in to safe harbour. He is not just light for me or for the Diocese. He is the light of the world. It is a reminder to all of us that we best meet the challenge of living the Gospel in the world today by following Christ our light. I am grateful to Father David Ranson for his leadership of the Diocese of Broken Bay as its administrator over the past 15 months. I look forward to having him alongside me as I begin this new ministry in Broken Bay.

I am grateful also to my three predecessors in the Diocese, and I hope to continue their good work. To the people and priests of Broken Bay: I look forward to being officially installed as your Bishop, but please know that you are already in my heart and in my prayers during this time. Along with the priests and deacons of the Diocese, I am eager to walk with you, imitating Christ as the Good Shepherd who is always present amongst His flock.

Yours in Christ
Bishop Anthony Randazzo

CATHOLIC WEEKLY $2.00
Money in the poor box please

Our latest Saint: John Henry Newman, C.O. was a theologian and poet, first an Anglican priest and later a Catholic priest and Cardinal, who was an important and figure in the religious history of England in the 19th century. In his lifetime he wrote many beautiful prayers and reflections, here are two.

Dear Jesus,
Help me to spread Your fragrance everywhere I go.
Flood my soul with Your spirit and life.
Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly,
that my life may only be a radiance of Yours.

Shine through me, and be so in me that every soul I come in contact with may feel Your presence in my soul.
Let them look up and see no longer me but only Jesus!

Stay with me and then I shall begin to shine as You shine, so to shine as to be a light to others; The light, O Jesus will be all from You; none of it will be mine;
It will be you shining on others through me.

God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments. Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about.

Cardinal John Henry Newman will be Canonised in Rome 13 October 2019
