Prayer to St Michael

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and
snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and you,
O Prince of the Heavenly
Hosts, by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA TERRIGAL

Everyone, and more importantly every domestic animal, is invited. Dogs, birds, guinea pigs are usually the most popular. Cats tend to find the ceremony difficult and frightening.

Visiting Nursing Homes

We have a number of parishioners who visit the nursing homes in the parish each week to take Holy Communion to Catholics who can no longer attend Mass.

We would like to have more people involved in this ministry - the more people going to each home means less visits for each volunteer and more time can be spent with each resident.

Are you interested in this important ministry? Please contact Janette of Fr Vince at the Parish Office for more details.

Book club

For September book club we will be discussing one of Saint John of the Cross' works-The Dark Night of the Soul. One of the great spiritual works, it is a guide and preparation for deep contemplative prayer. Born just three years before the Council of Trent in 1542 he was deeply influenced by Saint Theresa of Avila. Contemplation is a difficult subject to study and Dark Night is often a misunderstood work, but it belongs to a great tradition in our faith. It is reminiscent of The Cloud of Unknowing by an unknown author, another great guide to contemplative prayer. In October we will be reading Heretics by Gilbert Chesterton. One of Chesterton's well known works. It preceded Orthodoxy. Chesterton responds to his critics with humour wisdom and kindness. If you've ever thought to dip into Chesterton this would be a good starting point. Join us if these interest you. Last Friday of the Month at 4pm gazbo2@ozemail.com.au

Men's Buswalking Group

After having to postpone the scheduled fortnightly walk last, we took the opportunity to hike this past Tuesday with the beautiful conditions forecast. We walked the Daley's Point track in Killcare Heights. Great to have 3 first timers with us. Photo shows the gentlemen enjoying the vista overlooking Woy Woy and Waterfall Bay in the distance. The easy grade track was enjoyed by all. Lunch was at the Empire Bay Tavern. Our next walk is this coming Tuesday 29 August. We plan to follow a section of the Mouat Trail in the Rumbalara Reserve in Springfield. Lunch will be at the Elanora Hotel in East Gosford. The walks start at 10 am on a Tuesday on a fortnightly basis and take an hour and a bit, followed by lunch at a nearby venue for our 'chat and chew'. Any gentlemen interested in participating in any of our walks, please contact Stim Robinson at stimrobinson@hotmail.com or on 0401 058 329 and you can get further details including where to meet for the walk. If you would like to join us for lunch, please contact Stim as above.

The Women of the Well Book Club

We are excited to share that we have a date for our next Book Club Gathering. We will be gathering via Zoom on 30 October 2023 from 7-8:30pm. The upcoming book is...

'The Diary of Jesus Christ' by Bill Cain SJ.

About this book

While obviously not really the diary of Jesus Christ, here is a first-person account of the life of Jesus by noted Jesuit playwright Bill Cain. The diary places us inside Jesus's consciousness, where the Spirit of discovery, surprise, learning, doubt, failure and growth is very present.

Register for our book club below to keep updated with the details of this and future Book Club gatherings.

WYD Pilgrims have arrived home safely

Just over 4 weeks ago, an excited group of Broken Bay pilgrims departed Sydney for Italy and WYD in Lisbon. For most pilgrims this was their first experience of overseas travel and for many their first pilgrimage experience.

Thank you for your continued prayers for the success of the Broken Bay pilgrimage and the safe return of all our pilgrims.

As our pilgrims settle back into the regular rhythm of life, filled with much joy and gratitude, please invite pilgrims to share their stories over the coming weeks and months with their family and friends; at their schools and/or in their parishes, and beyond.

Social Justice Sunday

Since the 1940s, the bishops have published annual statements that urge the Catholic community to reflect and act on social, economic and ecological issues. This year the bishops have called on the nation to seek "a new engagement" with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

In launching the statement, Listen, Learn, Love: A New Engagement with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples, Bishop Long states

"One of the objectives of this statement is that we want Catholics to understand that Catholic social teaching and Catholic social action are not simply theoretical and academic exercises." "We hear what God is saying to us about justice by being with our sisters and brothers on the peripheries of society."
