Prayer to St Michael

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and
snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we
humbly pray; and you,
O Prince of the Heavenly
Hosts, by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

Giving in the Parish

We have two regular collections in the parish each weekend.

The First Collection goes to a common fund (Pastoral Revenue) across all diocesan parishes and is used to support the Bishop and all the priests (active and retired) in the Diocese. Donations for Baptisms, Weddings, Funerals and Easter and Christmas offerings also go to the Pastoral Revenue.

The Second Collection (Church Account) stays in the parish to meet all our expenses. Rents, planned giving, regular direct debits and other donations (unless explicitly directed elsewhere) go to the Church Account. Funds from the account built, and is now used to maintain the church, hall, offices, presbytery and grounds. It pays for all our running costs including insurance, employment and office, church and pastoral expenses. Donations through Tap 'n' Go in the church and Donate Now on our website go to the Church Account.

All other special collections go to the charity or activity that is advertised when we have the appeal.

Thank-you all for your on-going generosity to all these collections.

Thank-you

To everyone who assisted with the liturgies for Holy Week and Easter. This includes those who provided and cut palms, arranged flowers, decorated the church, organised the liturgies, office staff, servers, readers, collectors, cleaners, welcomers, choir, musicians everyone!

Do Jews, Christians, and Muslims worship the same God?

Last week in the Prayers of the Faithful we prayed that we would all realise that Jews, Muslims and Christians worship the same God. I received one strong objection, but if one person objects, then others might also be puzzled. So, here is the teaching of the church, in answer to the objection.

It's clear to most people that Christians and Jews worship the same God. The Catechism of the Catholic Church calls the Jewish people "the first to hear the Word of God" and says that, unlike other non-Christian religions, the Jewish faith is "already a response to God's revelation in the Old Covenant" (CCC 839). See also Nostra Aetate 4.

The object of worship for Muslims is less clear, but the Church dispels such confusion in the Second Vatican Council's Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium in which it says: "The plan of salvation also includes those who acknowledge the Creator. In the first place amongst these there are the Mohammedans, who, professing to hold the faith of Abraham, along with us adore the one and merciful God, who on the last day will judge mankind." (LG 16) See also Nostra Aetate 3.

This is not to say that everything Muslims believe about God is the same as Christians. But they do believe enough for the Church to say that the God they worship is the same God that Christians and Jews worship. - Fr Vince.

The new times of 7.30am and 9.30am will start next weekend of 6th / 7th April.

Book Club

The next book club meeting will take place on 26th April at 1600 hrs in the parish offices. (The meeting for March has been cancelled as it would have fallen on Good Friday)

We will be discussing Thomas Merton's The Seven Storey Mountain. Evelyn Waugh had a lot to say about Merton's skill as a writer but of this particular book he wrote that "it may well prove to be of permanent interest in the history of religious experience." Graham Greene called it "an autobiography with a pattern and meaning for us all." Clare Boothe Luce predicted, "it is to a book like this that man will turn one hundred years from now to find out what went on in the heart of man in this cruel century." It is the twentieth century bookend to Theresa of Avila and John of the Cross.

In May we will be reading Born Bad by James Boyce and in June we will be reading Jacques Phillipa's book on prayer called Time for God.

If you find any of these books interesting please join us the last Friday of every month at 1600 in the parish Offices. (Excepting March)

Men's Bushwalking Group

Our ten walkers enjoyed another great day out on Tuesday. The view from the Colin Watters lookout (atop Kincumba Mountain) provided pretty good views across Picketts Valley and Avoca Beach despite the cloud conditions. The new trails we followed were enjoyed by all and we had a healthy workout by the time we finished. We also welcomed a new young gent to the group. Lunch at the Kincumba Hotel was good again.

Our next walk will start at 10am on Tuesday 9th April and we are planning to visit the Strickland Forest area if the weather conditions permit.

Any gentlemen interested in participating in any of our walks, please contact Stim Robinson at stimrobinson@hotmail.com or on 0401 058 329 and you can get further details including where to meet for the walk. Our walks usually take an hour and a half and then we head off for lunch nearby.

If you would like to join us for lunch, please contact Stim as above.

CatholicCare's supported playgroups
