May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and you, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Pentecost Sequence

Holy Spirit, Lord of Light,
 From the clear celestial height.
 Thy pure beaming radiance
 give.

Come, thou Father of the poor,
 Come, with treasures which endure;
 Come, thou Light of all that live!

Thou, of all consolers best,
 Thou, the soul's delightful
 guest,
 Dost refreshing peace
 bestow.

Thou in toil art comfort
 sweet;
 Pleasant coolness in the heat;
 Solace in the midst of woe.

Light immortal, Light divine,
 Visit thou these hearts of
 thine,

Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
 On our dryness pour thy
 dew,
 Wash the stains of guilt
 away.

Bend the stubborn heart
 and will;
 Melt the frozen, warm the
 chill;
 Guide the steps that go astray.

Thou, on us who evermore Thee confess and thee
 adore,
 With thy sevenfold gifts
 descend.

Give us comfort when we die;
 Give us life with thee on high;
 Give us joys that never end.
 Amen. Alleluia.

The second of 10 videos to be released by the Dicastery for Laity,

Family and Life is now available as part of journeying together as a Church during the year of Amoris Laetitia Family. This video focuses on how the family is the concrete reality by which we can experience God's love. God is a communion of love between the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and the family is an image of that trinitarian love and makes it present in the world today. The video is accompanied by a print resource to be used as an aid to small group or family discussion. link to the video and print resource here

Plenary Council 2021

Come Holy Spirit. Renew the face of the earth

Parish meeting Saturday 29 May at 2pm in the Parish Hall.
Everyone is urged to attend.

This is your opportunity to contribute to planning for the future of Australian Catholicism in the 21st century.

Following is the Easter message 2021 by Vincent Long, the Bishop of Parramatta, endorsing a group called "Australian women Preach". Bishop Long is Australia's first Vietnamese born Bishop.

Chris Hartcher, Plenary Council animator for Terrigal Parish

"Go and tell my brothers that I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God".

At Easter Vigil, we hear these words of the risen Jesus who empowers Mary of Magdala to reclaim her agency and to proclaim the Good News to others. She is known in the Christian tradition as apostle to the apostles.

But it was not just Mary of Magdala who had a pivotal role in the early days of the followers of the Way. Throughout salvation history, women disciples have played a critical part in forging a new future out of the hopeless present. Puah and Shiprah acted as catalysts for the exodus by their civil disobedience.

Esther boldly intervened for her Jewish people at the foreign court. Ruth broke new ground of inclusion as a consummate outsider to Israel's strictly safeguarded bloodline. Mary McKillop, of course, started a new and hitherto unheralded group of women who took the Good News to the edges of colonial Australia.

If the Church is to be faithful to the biblical narrative and responsive to the living presence of God, it must reclaim a discipleship of equals and empower men and women disciples to share their gifts for human flourishing and the growth of the Kingdom.

The Church cannot have a better future if it does not listen to women's voice, wisdom and insight. So long as we continue to make women invisible and inferior in the Church's language, liturgy, theology and law, we impoverish ourselves.

I am pleased that there are Christian women in Australia who like Mary of Magdala share the Good News from their own lived experience. Australian Women Preach is one such group of women. It is a shared venture and innovative project designed to offer theologically informed perspectives of women from across the wealth of Christian traditions.

Their preaching will highlight women traditionally omitted or misrepresented in our lectionary and open the Scripture texts to deepen our understanding of God's saving presence in the world. Those who view these preaching videos will have the opportunity to see the deep spirituality of Christian women who break God's Word, with messages of hope that renew faith, strengthen us and encourage active engagement in the life of the Church for our work in the world

I have made a habit of accessing Australian Women Preach each week as part of my own homiletic preparations. I highly recommend it to fellow clergy, RCIA catechists, discussion groups and others who desire to enrich themselves with the unique insight and wisdom of Australian Christian women. As many move into a "strange land" of the Church beyond the pews, this may be the unexpected source of nourishment for the discerning pilgrims.

I also recommend "Australian Women Preach" for another important reason. It is the listening, discerning and deliberating process of the Plenary Council, the opportunity for deep reform for the Catholic Church in Australia not be missed. For I believe that until we have truly incorporated the gift of women and the feminine dimension of our Christian faith, we will not be able to fully energise the life of the Church.
