Prayer to St Michael

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our safeguard against
the wickedness
and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and you, O
Prince of the Heavenly
Hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan
and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

BookClub

Our new book club was launched on February 28 with a very truncated version of St Thomas Aquinas' prayer before study. We fortified ourselves with cups of tea and nibbles and jumped straight in with a passage from the book Overcoming the Evil Within by Fr Wade Menezes. A book about shame and mercy. We followed this with a couple of poems from the greatly loved Gerard Manley Hopkins. His poem Spring and Fall while written to a young child concerned with mortality speaks to all of us. This was followed by one of the most extraordinary descriptions of Christ our Lord that you'll ever likely encounter in the English language. "I caught this morning morning's minion, kingdom of daylight's dauphin, dapple-dawn-drawn Falcon" is as brilliant as Les Murray's "peewee descendant on a flung bit". From verbal gymnastics to the Peace Prayer where hatred, injury, doubt, despair, darkness, and sadness are to be consoled, not by others, but by one's own desire to be an instrument of change.

A most welcome guest from beyond the Hawkesbury presented the poem that begins St John of the Cross' "The Dark Night of the Soul". We didn't listen to it recited. It was sung to us by Loreena McKennitt. There followed a discussion about the nature of doubt and the fine company we are all in when we, through doubt, ponder our faith.

Another Hopkin's poem reminded us that we are perpetually destroying; "Generations have trod, have trod, have trod, reminding us of another of his poem where in a rural scene "All felled, felled, are all felled. Like Hopkins, we turn to nature for consolation where " the Holy Ghost over the bent world broods with warm breast. The world is indeed "charged with the grandeur of God".

Finally we reflected on Robert Frost's poem The Death of the Hired Hand about dignity, judgment and mercy delayed. A beautiful dialogue between a couple, Mary and her husband Warren, about the return of a hired hand-Silas. "Home is the place where, when you have to go there, they have to take you in." Were this but true of our final home. There was another poem presented about a fair-haired blue-eyed girl who had a pretty locket. On enquiring into the contents of the locket, the poet's "heart grew chill and sick". Ah...the evil that we do.

After some discussion we decided that we'd meet the last Friday of each month, making the next meeting at 1600 Friday, 25 June at the parish offices. Our first meeting started at 1600 and finished 17:30 which seemed just about right. We decided to tackle the book by John Paul II when he was Archbishop. "Teachings for an Unbelieving World: Newly Discovered Reflections on Paul's Sermon at the Areopagus. Hope to see you there. If you are interested, and wish to join please contact Garry 0414192833 or gazbo2@ozemail.com.au.

Amoris Laetitia Family Year 2021-2022

The second of 10 videos by Pope Francis is available as part of journeying together as a Church during the year of Amoris Laetitia Family. This video focuses on how the family is the concrete reality by which we can experience God's love. God is a communion of love between the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and the family is an image of that trinitarian love and makes it present in the world today. The video is accompanied by a print resource to be used as an aid to small group or family discussion.

Tap 'n' Go and help us grow

We are living in an increasingly cashless society. To respond to this we are having two Tap 'n' Go machines installed near the doors of the church. This will allow everyone who comes to the church and has a credit or debit card in their wallet or on their phone to make a donation to the church.

The machines will be installed in the next few weeks and set at $10 per tap with contributions going to the day-to-day running of the parish and the maintenance of its assets.

Plenary Council 2021

The Parish gathering last Saturday was well attended despite the bleak conditions. There were so many that we could not fit in the meeting room and thanks to Fr Vince we transferred the meeting to the church. Thanks to all those who attended. In our own way we're making a contribution to the future of our church. When Pope John XXIII convened the 2nd Vatican Council he called for an "updating" of the Church. The Plenary Council, like the Vatican Council, is a coming together to update the Australian church. How we update the Church is a challenge for every parish.

The meeting addressed three of the themes identified by the Bishop's commission:

1. Missionary and evangelising.
2. Inclusive participatory and synodal.
3. Prayerful and Eucharistic.

A summary of the proceedings is set out below

The other three themes will be discussed at the further meeting later this year.
The meeting stressed the importance of all of us participating in the work of the Church.

Missionary and Evangelising

- To provide dialogue and discussion of issues facing the Church
- Alpha Program for Evangelisation
- Advertising the Café program
- A person to lead a Men's Mass or Mass for Men and their sons
- Source strategies to be more welcoming of the kids in the school
- Provide Hospitality whenever we get the chance
- Young Servers Program – Phil Proust
- Junior Choir – Gemma Tracey
- Presentation of Babies at a Mass- Fr Vince
- Revise Children's Liturgy and Class Masses when its possible post Covid 19
- Youth Minister employment
- Invitation to join with EV
- Seek bridges with the secondary schools

Inclusive, Participating and Synodal

- Reaching out to others we don't know
- Parish Council Agenda to be posted on the Noticeboard, Photos to be posted, phone number for Chris and Michael to be posted
- Caring for one another in Ministry
- Accepting change in the Church and need for new approaches
- Those who want to lead an initiative are welcome

Prayerful and Eucharistic

- We aim to form our parish community through events
- Public Celebration of Feast days is welcome but needs a leader
- We aim to celebrate what is good about our devotional prayer

Catholic Library ... recommended, online and free

A new internet library has been established with over 13,000 items specifically selected for Catholic ministry education. It can be found at <http://sharingtheword.info>. The initiative has proved to be a most useful tool for the thinking Catholic. It was initiated by Hans Arns, a Broken Bay parishioner and retired librarian of CIS Strathfield as part of the Sharing the Word Project for seminary libraries sponsored by the Pontifical Society of St. Peter the Apostle, led by Catholic Mission (Australia). It is already quite widely used in Australia - see <https://www.vaticannews.va/en/church/news/2021-05/virtual-library-boosts-seminarians-access-to-essential-texts.html>.

Social Justice Twilight Reflection Evening

Every year people from the Diocese of Broken Bay, together with the Archdiocese of Sydney and the Diocese of Parramatta gather to reflect on the Social Justice Statement issued by the Australian Catholic Bishop's Conference. The Tri-Diocesan Social Justice Twilight Reflection Evening, to be held at 6.00pm on 30 June at Pennant Hills Bowling Club, is an opportunity to publicly acknowledge the work of social justice ministries across the dioceses and to consider how we as a church can respond to the issues addressed in the statement. This year's topic is mental health in Australia.

If you would like more information about the event or would like to attend, please contact Emma Baker on 8379 1630 or email at emma.baker@bbccatholic.org.au. RSVP by 16 June 2021 is essential due to catering and COVID-19

SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

LAUDATO SI'

Excerpt Paragraph 93 ON CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME:

Pope Francis writes: 'Every ecological approach needs to incorporate a social perspective which takes into account the fundamental rights of the poor and the underprivileged... St John Paul II said: God gave the earth to the whole human race for the sustenance of all its members, without excluding or favouring anyone.'

Responses to Laudato Si'. Suggestions for the Home and Family

- Buy green cleaning products which are more natural and organic rather than using harmful chemicals.
- Dry the laundry in the sun rather than the clothes dryer.
