WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why haven't Catholic Churches gone the way of disposable cups for wine distribution?

Answer:

If a Catholic has ever attended a Protestant worship service and saw the communion service that was offered for that community, one of the things that might have stood out was the use of small, disposable cups for distributing the wine or grape juice. This is in stark contrast to the precious metal chalices used in Catholic churches during the Mass. Although practices for Protestant Christians can vary (ranging from large shared chalices, to personal-use cups, to dipping the bread in the wine/grape juice), the norms governing Catholic practices are fairly direct: "Sacred vessels are to be made from precious metal. If they are made from metal that rusts or from a metal less precious than gold, then ordinarily they should be gilded on the inside. In the Dioceses of Australia, sacred vessels may also be made from other solid materials that, according to the common estimation in each region, are precious ... they are to have bowls of nonabsorbent material". Rather than being a commentary on the beliefs or practices of those other communities, these rules are intended to highlight the reverence that Catholics have for the bread and wine consecrated at Mass, which become the Body and Blood of the Lord.

BRINGING HOME THE GOSPEL

This Gospel from Mark is read on the First Sunday of Advent, the season we prepare to celebrate Christmas. And Mark certainly isn't subtle in telling us how to get ready. His Gospel almost shouts, "Keep awake, pay attention." Fortunately, being on guard and staying alert is something parents know all about.

With five children under ten (three under three at one point), I was on guard at all times. When they were infants, my eyes were always alert for open basement doors, sharp or breakable items and choking hazards. The teen years required even more vigilance. We needed to be alert for subtler hazards. Some questions became standard: Where are you going? Who will you be with? When will you be home?

In the weeks ahead, consider staying alert in other ways. Discover where God is in your everyday life. On Christmas we celebrate more than Jesus' birth. It is a celebration of Jesus alive today, all around us in all of creation and especially in his people. And it is a celebration that Jesus, in all his glory, will come again.

Look carefully. Be alert to where Jesus can be found in your life. Recognize him in the faces of your children, friends, coworkers, and be especially vigilant in finding Jesus in the faces of those you would rather ignore. Whenever possible, help your children understand that Jesus is all around them, especially in the people he loves.

Find Jesus in your own heart, and be vigilant for opportunities to share his love with your family and the people you encounter in your everyday life. Stay alert!

FAMILY RESPONSE:

Ask family members to talk about their hopes for the year ahead. Decide as a family on a New Year's resolution.

PERSONAL RESPONSE:

On the lines below write down your hopes and dreams for the year ahead. Also make note of the family's resolution. What do you want to remember from last year?

WEEKLY SOCIAL JUSTICE CHALLENGES

The Sunday Gospel draws us into the Season of Advent, challenging us to prepare ourselves and our world for Christ's coming. The Advent readings focus on many images of the messiah in the Old Testament. The prophets particularly describe the messiah as one who will bring peace to our troubled world. Jesus, the Prince of Peace, is the fulfillment of their prophecies. Your challenge this week is to follow in Jesus' footsteps by being a peace-maker yourself. How can you create peace within your own heart, within your family, in the community, and even in the world? Spend time in prayer, letting the peace of Christ penetrate your being. Then bring together people you know who are fighting, inviting them to see the goodness in each other. And finally, pray for peace in the most troubled spots in the world. Where is conflict most volatile and hateful? Pray for the people who live there and for their leaders to have the courage to be peace-makers rather than peace-breakers.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to parishioners who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office.

CARE FOR CREATION TIPS

"And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake!" – Mark 13:37.

How easy it is to forget or disregard our impact on the environment! This week, "stay awake" and reflect on specific ways to decrease your negative effects on the environment. Could you bike or walk somewhere instead of driving? Could you bring a re-usable water bottle so you don't have to buy one? As uncomfortable as it may be, stay awake to the choices you make which hurt our common home.

GETTING STARTED WITH AN
Advent Wreath

On 3 December we begin with the new Liturgical Year – Year B. As we enter the Season of Advent, we encourage you to reintroduce this wonderful tradition of preparing your own Advent Wreath.

Take home with you a tri-fold brochure available in the foyer that explains on how to get started with an Advent Wreath.

The Blessing of the Baby Jesus (Bambinelli) is a tradition which began in Rome. Each year on the Third Sunday of Advent (Gaudete Sunday), the Holy Father invites children to bring the Baby Jesus (Bambinelli) from their family Nativity scene to Mass for a blessing. This wonderful tradition has also been observed by some parishes all over the world.

We also encourage parents and grandparents to join with their grandchildren in this simple but beautiful tradition. Don't forget to bring the Bambinelli!

After the blessing the children are invited to wrap up their baby Jesus and to place him under their Christmas Tree. On Christmas morning the Bambinelli is the first Christmas gift to be unwrapped and placed in the family crib.

Blessings to you all for Bambinelli Sunday!

PARISH'S STRATEGIC IMPROVEMENT DIRECTIONS 2024-2028

Dear Parishioners,

Over the past 6 months, the North Harbour Catholic Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) has been formulating a 5-year plan for our Parish to continue to improve and meet the current, emerging and future needs of our faith community.

Any plan for our community wouldn't be complete without the feedback, input and consultation with the people who make up this community - this, of course, is you! As those within our Parish who attend and contribute to the celebration of the Eucharist, your feedback is essential. The PPC invites you to contribute to the finalisation of the 2024 - 2028 North Harbour Mission, Vision, Values and Goals.

Please take the time to provide your feedback, input and suggestions on the QR code provided. Paper forms are also available in the foyer.
