WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer:

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope. But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people.

BRINGING HOME THE GOSPEL

I like this reading. Jesus delivers an important message for all moms and dads, especially those of us who are overcommitted, overresponsible and overstressed. If we are to respond in love to the people around us rather than react out of impatience, frustration or just plain exhaustion, we need to get away once in a while. Parents need to be alone and rest, even from each other.

Married couples need to give each other the gift of time, time alone to squander with a good book, a long walk or a respite in the garden. Consider giving each other a yearly weekend off to go on retreat to regroup and reenergize. Finally, make sure you spend some time together without the youngsters.

Sometimes we get so wrapped up in being mom or dad or wage earner that we forget we are part of a couple. Parents need to treat their relationship like precious silver—forgotten, it will tarnish, but if you spend just a little time caring for it, you have a treasure that the whole family will benefit from.

Get away once in a while. Go out for coffee. Take a walk, or have a Taco Bell-catered dinner when the kids are in bed. If you want your marriage to work, you have to take the time to work on it.

Time is precious. Like Jesus and the apostles, you know the crowds will eventually find you again.

FAMILY RESPONSE:

Discuss everyone's favourite way to quietly relax.

PERSONAL RESPONSE:

When was the last time you spent some quality time with God? What would you talk to God about?

WEEKLY SOCIAL JUSTICE CHALLENGES

On July 26 we celebrate the feast day of Joachim and Anne, the parents of Mary. Anne is the patron saint of grandmothers, since she herself was Jesus' grandma. While many cultures around the world honour the elderly and give them the highest respect, in our own country we have witnessed the neglect and sometimes even the abuse of our elders. Your challenge this week is to be an advocate for the "wisdom people" in your life. How can you show respect for the older people in your own family, or on your block, or in a nursing home in your community? How can you support the needs of the elderly through legislation? Can you offer a smile, a greeting, and perhaps even a visit with an elder who is lonely and gets few visitors?

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to parishioners who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office.

CARE FOR CREATION TIPS

"I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called." -Ephesians 4:1.

God calls us to many things, including our vocations to love our neighbours and to care for creation. How can you implement practices of environmental sustainability in your career/job/workplace? Do people in your job setting recycle? Each job setting is distinct, but think of ways in which you can advocate to reduce waste, energy, and water consumption at work.

Sharing the Gospel

People heard how Jesus and his disciples had healed their family and friends. They followed Jesus around like people hurry to see movie stars today. Jesus felt sorry for these people. They were like sheep without a shepherd. He said, "Love God more than anything or anyone. Love your neighbour as yourself." His words were joy to their ears. They followed him because he filled their hearts with hope and peace.

Prayer

Lord, help me give joy to others by sharing your words.

Mission

Pray that children hear God's voice saying, "I love you. Say NO to evil."
