Prayer to St Joseph the Worker

by St Pope John XXIII

"Saint Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfilment of duty. You supported the Holy Family of Nazareth with the work of your hands.

Kindly protect those who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labour, and weariness. But amid the worries of material life, your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you, and, with Mary, his tender Mother.

Assure those you protect that they do not labour alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done.

Amen.

Happy Father's Day

Thoughts of Fr Francis Jordan

No sacrifice, no cross, no desolation, no trial, no temptation, oh! absolutely nothing should be too difficult for you with the help of God's grace. I can do all things in God who strengthens me.

trybooking

To ensure that we fulfil the requirements of the 80 (Mona Vale) and 100 (Avalon) people limit, we would like you to use the Trybooking website to book for our weekend Masses.

There is no need to book for the weekday Masses.

The bookings are now open. Further weekend Masses will be added each week, taking into consideration any changes in government restrictions.

Here are some pointers that might help:

1. Once you have selected the Mass you would like to book for, you will need to enter the quantity of tickets at the bottom of the page. Then click NEXT.
2. Once you have read and agreed to the "Additional Information" you will need to select "YES" from the dropdown box that says "I Agree to the Terms Above"
3. You will then need to enter the First Name and the Last Name of each of the Attendees. Then click NEXT.
4. In the Checkout, you will need to complete all the fields, First Name, Last Name, Phone Number, Address, Suburb, Postcode and Email Address. Then click PURCHASE.
5. If you have completed the transaction successfully, you will see "Transaction Successful" on the following page and you will receive an email with the "ticket" to the Mass you have selected.
6. If you do not see "Transaction Successful" and you do not receive an email (please remember to check your junk email) then the items may still be in your cart and you may need to re-complete one of the steps.
7. You do not need to print the ticket. We will have your name on the "Ticket Holder List" for each Mass.

To book for our Masses at Sacred Heart Church, Mona Vale, please visit <https://www.trybooking.com/BJPSE>

To book for our Masses at Maria Regina Church, Avalon, please visit <https://www.trybooking.com/BJPSP>

Please do not hesitate to contact the Parish office 9157 0999 if you need any assistance.

LIBRARY

Now that the restrictions have been lifted concerning the opening of churches, although at present only 100 people, we can access the Library. You are very welcome to browse the vast assortment of books and DVDs in the Parish Library at Maria Regina after the daily and weekend Masses. Books and DVDs will still be reviewed in the Bulletin.

If you have an inquiry you may phone me on 99183973 (Home) 0401613643 (mobile).

What Do You Want Of Me
The Apparitions and Message of Our Lady of Fatima
by Fr Charles M. Mangan

We all know about the apparitions but perhaps we should ask ourselves what does God want of us, too. We can all do better if we think about it.

Mater Maria Catholic College

Our amazing Year 9 and 10 students have been spending at least one hour a week knitting blanket squares for the Father Riley Youth Off the Street program. This constitutes the service component of their Duke of Edinburgh Bronze and Silver Awards through our Mater Maria Catholic College Award Program. Seventeen Good Blokes at the College including our Principal Marc, recently baked an item to share with the rest of the staff for a fundraising Big Morning Tea. They baked a feast of morning tea delights and raised $240 for some much-needed funds for Soibada in Timor-Leste.

Our Year 11 English Studies and Standard English students have just been treated to a presentation by Andrew Fraser, the producer of the film "Lion". This is the inspiring uplifting story of Saroo Brierly who became lost on a train in India at the age of five. After surviving life on the streets, he was taken into an orphanage in Calcutta and adopted by a Tasmanian family. It was a wonderful opportunity for our students to gain an insight into the creative process undertaken during the production of their core text.

PLANNED GIVING

The money contributed to our parish via our second collection helps us to meet the running costs which our Parish incurs, including wages, electricity, telephones, insurances, rates, building and equipment repairs and maintenance, to name but a few. Whilst you are unable to attend Mass, if you are able to make your regular donation by way of automatic direct debit from your credit card, please complete the form included in this bulletin. Or donations can be made on our website: www.pittwaterparish.org through the donations and giving tile.

If you would prefer not to give by credit card, please contact the parish office, 9157 0999 for other ways that you can contribute.

SDS - Societas Divini Salvatoris (The Society of the Divine Saviour) History Poland

From the very beginning of their existence, Salvatorians have been very much an international religious order. Among the members there was a significant number of Polish men. Out of about a thousand candidates who joined the order in the years 1881-1900, about one hundred were Polish. They did whatever their superiors sent them to do. Some of them joined a group of priests and brothers from other countries to help form an American Province of the Salvatorians, at the same time providing pastoral care to Polish people who emigrated to the USA. Others were sent to India to work at the newly established mission at Assam. A large number of them pioneered Salvatorian pastoral ministry in a number of countries in Europe. Only a small number returned to their motherland to lay the foundations of the future Polish Province of the Salvatorians.

The first Salvatorians of Polish origin arrived in Krakow (Cracow) in 1900. They were: Alfred Zacharzowski, Honoriusz Bugiel and Cezary Wojciechowski. The first Salvatorian Community House was opened in 1903 at Trzebinia near Krakow.

In 1918, after the First World War, Poland regained national independence. This situation created new opportunities for further development and growth of the Society. To achieve this task a formation house was needed. In 1923 a formation house was officially opened in Zakrzówek (outskirts of Krakow).

In 1927 the Polish Province of the Salvatorians was finally established. The Province had twenty seven members: eight priests, seven brothers, four seminarians and eight novices.

At the end of the Second World War the Salvatorians in Poland lived in five Community Houses. The new reality of life after the War created new challenges. There was a shortage of priests in the western part of Poland, so the Salvatorians tried to respond to the needs of the people. Within two years they had undertaken pastoral ministry at sixteen different places in the western part of Poland.

Continuing growth in numbers allowed the Salvatorians to take new postings and face new challenges in an attempt to meet the needs of the people. In 1975 there were thirty one Polish Salvatorian Community Houses, out of which twenty seven were in Poland, two in USA and two in Canada.

At present Polish Salvatorians work and live in thirty five houses in Poland and in a number of countries all over the world. These are: USA, Canada, Australia, Brazil, Russia, Byelorussia, Ukraine, Italy, Albania, Hungary, Switzerland, Germany, Czech Republic and Slovakia. Mission countries: Tanzania, Congo, Philippines and India.

Prompted and encouraged by the words of their Founder, Fr Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan: "As long as there is even one person in the world who does not know and does not love Jesus Christ the Saviour of the world, you are not to take rest", Salvatorians continue the mission of Christ on all continents of the world.

The history of the Salvatorians in Australia began in 1961. A few years earlier the Archbishop of Perth, Redmond Prendiville, sent a letter of invitation to the head of our Society in Rome, Fr Bonaventura Schweizer. Replying to the invitation Fr Schweizer sent the first Savatorian, Fr Paul Keyte to Australia in 1961. Fr Paul was asked to take pastoral care of the new parish of Bellevue. The beginnings were difficult. The parish community life centered around the local catholic school, as there was no church, and no parish house or office facilities. In the following years a few more Salvatorians from the British Province joined Fr Paul.

In 1966 the new St Anthony's Church, together with the accommodation for priests and the parish centre were opened in Bellevue. The parish of St Anthony was the only Salvatorian centre in Australia until the year 1982, when Fr Aloysius McDonagh became the Parish Priest of Esperance, in the Diocese of Bunbury. In the late 70's, prompted by the shortage in numbers, the British Province of the Salvatorians seriously considered passing on their ministry in Australia to the vibrant Polish Province.

During the transition period (1979-1987) four Polish Salvatorians worked together with the British Province Salvatorians (who were mostly Irish). Over all there had been six Salvatorian priests and one brother from the British Province who worked in Australia in 1961-1987.

In 1987 the Polish Province of Salvatorians officially took over from the British Province. This decision created a need for new people who would continue the ministry undertaken by the Salvatorians from the British Province. As a result three volunteers from the Polish Province arrived in Perth in 1988. Since then, almost every year, we have been getting "new blood" from Poland. At present there are over twenty Polish Salvatorians sharing their lives and ministry in Australia.

Thanks to the wonderful personal support of the Polish Province, the Salvatorians have been able to expand and undertake pastoral care in a number of parishes in Perth and country areas of Western Australia. Since 2001 Polish Salvatorians have been working in our Diocese of Broken Bay. Since 2017, they have been in the Archdiocese of Melbourne and since 2019, they have been in the Archdiocese of Sydney.

Following the teaching of our Founder, Fr Francis Jordan, they try to take a broad approach to their priestly ministry. Therefore, they do not restrict themselves to the parish pastoral ministry only, as a few of our priests have been working as school chaplains over the last several years.

Salvatorian Seminary Appeal

There will be a special collection towards the Salvatorian Seminary this weekend. Your generous contributions will help in the training and the education of our young seminarians and the upkeep of our Seminaries in Poland and Philippines, and also support our East Timorese Seminarians who will be working in Australia.

At present we have 4 candidates and 20 seminarians in Poland, and 80 seminarians in Philippines, and 1 undergoing his Pastoral Placement here in Pittwater.

The Salvatorians invite you to unite in prayer for these young Seminarians as well as for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Envelopes will be in the pews or Bank transfer to "Salvatorian Fathers Formation Account"

Thank you in anticipation.

The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Feast day September 8

We know that everyone has a birthday. The Bible doesn't say anything about Mary's birth, but we know that she was born. Like all parents, Mary's parents-we call them Joachim and Ann-probably took one look at their newborn daughter and knew that she was special.

Joachim and Ann loved God very much, and they were filled with gratitude to God for the gift of a child. They raised Mary as a child of God, teaching her to love and serve God. When the angel Gabriel told Mary that she had been chosen to be the Mother of Jesus, she already had great faith in God. Her strong faith and trust allowed her to say yes to God's plan for her. We cannot be certain what the future holds for any newborn infant, but we do know that the life of each person has meaning and purpose. When Mary was born, the world did not know who she was. Sometimes others - and maybe even you - don't see how special you are. Maybe you forget that God is calling you, too, right now, to do what Mary did - to bring Jesus into the world.

When we celebrate his mother's birth, we honour Jesus too. Today, thank God for the gift of life, and give honour to both Mary and Jesus by showing respect and concern for one another - remembering that God has created each person with love and with a call to something very special in life.

RECOGNITION OF THE MIRACLE ATTRIBUTED TO FR. FRANCIS JORDAN

The Holy Father, Pope Francis, has authorised the promulgation of the decree regarding the miracle attributed to the intercession of Father Francis Mary of the Cross (in secular life John Baptist) JORDAN, Founder of the Salvatorians.

Biographical data

Father Francis Jordan was born on 16 June 1848 in Gurtweil, a small town in the archdiocese of Freiburg (Germany). After ordination to the priesthood on 21 July 1878, he was sent to Rome, where he spent most part of his life. Motivated by the apostolic zeal and desire to make Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, known and loved by all people, everywhere, he founded the Society of the Divine Saviour (Salvatorians) in 1881 and the Congregation of the Sisters of the Divine Saviour (Salvatorian Sisters) in 1888. He also organised groups of lay people to take part in the Church's mission of evangelisation using all ways and means. He died on 8 September 1918 in Täfels in Switzerland.

The miracle

A young couple that was expecting a baby in 2014 in Jundiá (Brazil), was informed by several medical doctors and specialists that their unborn child was suffering an incurable bone disease (skeletal dysplasia). Being members of a group of Lay Salvatorians, the parents began to pray through the intercession of the Venerable Servant of God, Fr. Francis Jordan, inviting other members of the Salvatorian Family to join them. The child was born in a complete healthy condition on 8 September 2014, the day of Fr. Francis Jordan's death anniversary. After the required canonical procedures had been successfully completed, the Holy Father, Pope Francis declared that this miraculous healing was worked by God through the intercession of Fr. Francis Jordan.

The declaration of the Pope on 19 June 2020 finishes the process on the miracle and opens the way towards the beatification of Fr. Francis Jordan. As soon as the date and place of the beatification ceremony will be determined by the Holy See, we will announce it.

For more information about Fr. Francis Jordan and the Salvatorians, please visit our website: www.sds.org.

Prayers for the Intercession of Fr Francis Jordan

Jesus, Saviour of the World,
 You have given your servant Francis the gift of deep and strong faith, unwavering hope and heroic love for God and neighbour and a strong desire for the salvation of souls.

Count him already here on earth among your blessed ones and through his intercession grant us what we humbly ask for.

You, who live and reign
 for ever and ever. Amen

The Living Word

Entrance Antiphon Ps 118:137, 124
You are just, O Lord, and your judgement is right;
treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

First Reading Ez 33:7-9
A reading from the prophet Ezekiel
If you have not warned the wicked man, then I will hold you responsible for his death.

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows, 'Son of man, I have appointed you as sentry to the House of Israel. When you hear a word from my mouth, warn them in my name. If I say to a wicked man: Wicked wretch, you are to die, and you do not speak to warn the wicked man to renounce his ways, then he shall die for his sin, but I will hold you responsible for his death. If, however, you do warn a wicked man to renounce his ways and repent, and he does not repent, then he shall die for his sin, but you yourself will have saved your life.'

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm Ps 94:1-2,6-9. R. v.8

(R.) O that today you would listen to his voice! Harden not your hearts.

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;
hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come before him, giving thanks,
with songs let us hail the Lord. (R.)

Come in; let us bow and bend low;
let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand. (R.)

O that today you would listen to his voice!
'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your fathers put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw my work.' (R.)

Second Reading Rom 13:8-10
A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans
Love is the fulfilment of the Law.

Avoid getting into debt, except the debt of mutual love. If you love your fellow men you have carried out your obligations. All the commandments: You shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not covet, and so on, are summed up in this single command: You must love your neighbour as yourself. Love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbour; that is why it is the answer to every one of the commandments.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation 2 Cor 5:19

Alleluia, alleluia!
God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.
Alleluia.

Gospel Mt 18:15-20
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
If your brother or sister listens to you, you will have won that person back.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If your brother does something wrong, go and have it out with him alone, between your two selves. If he listens to you, you have won back your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others with you: the evidence of two or three witnesses is required to sustain any charge. But if he refuses to listen to these, report it to the community; and if he refuses to listen to the community, treat him like a pagan or a tax collector.
'I tell you solemnly, whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.
'I tell you solemnly once again, if two of you on earth agree to ask anything at all, it will be granted to you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three meet in my name, I shall be there with them.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Communion Antiphon Cf. Ps 41:2-3

Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you, my God;
my soul is thirsting for God, the living God.

or

Jn 8:12
I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

*It is difficult for leaders to call people to accountability. Such is the unenviable responsibility of pastors in the parish, coordinators of religious education, members of the parish council, principals in the school, directors of liturgical ministry, to name but a few. Disciples must also engage in the very difficult process of reconciliation. Differences of opinion, misunderstandings, and actual offences tend to alienate people. We see this happen in families, neighbourhoods, parish communities, workplaces. It is not enough to say that we must try to forgive from our hearts. The process of reconciliation requires significant movement toward the admission of guilt as well. Both the one offended and the offender must be willing to be transformed.
Gathering two or three together in prayerful collaboration is not as easy as it sounds. If collaboration is to be effective, we have to be open and honest about our opinions and our biases, and respectful of the opinions and biases of others. We must work for the common good and not merely for what we personally think is best. We must be willing to accept and implement decisions with which we may not totally agree, and we must live with them gracefully. All of this calls for unselfish love. Love fulfils the entire law only: when we honour our personal commitments and the personal commitments of others; when we value the life, dignity and reputation of others; and when we respect their possessions. It is only because love is so demanding that it covers all of our responsibilities.*

September roster available on our website

To read the messages from Bishop Anthony, please go to www.pittwaterparish.org. News and events tile and Messages from Bishop Anthony on the drop down menu.

It is our responsibility to protect others and ourselves and stop the spread of COVID-19 in Australia.

As we move towards living COVIDSafe, it is important that you stay at home if you feel unwell. If you have cold or flu like symptoms, such as a fever, cough, sore throat, runny nose or shortness of breath, you should seek medical advice and get tested for COVID-19. You should get tested even if your symptoms are mild.

If you have a coughing episode in Church, we advise you to step out to the courtyard, or the parish centre, away from others for the moment.

Continue to practise good hygiene. Please use the hand sanitisers provided, in both of our Churches.

Everyone must also stay 1.5 metres away from other people whenever possible.

If you have been overseas or interstate in the last 14 days, or have been in contact with a confirmed case of Covid 19 in the last 14 days, as much as we would like you to be with us here in Church, we appreciate your prayers more than your presence in this situation.

We will continue to record names and contact details of those present at services along with the date and time they attend.
