Prayer of Pope John Paul II to St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Pope John Paul II recited this prayer on the occasion of the canonisation of Padre Pio, June 16, 2002.

Teach us, we pray,
humility of heart,
so that we may be counted
among the little ones of the Gospel to whom the Father promised to reveal the mysteries of His Kingdom.

Help us to pray without ceasing, certain that God knows what we need even before we ask Him.

Obtain for us the eyes of faith that will help us recognise in the poor and suffering, the very face of Jesus.

Sustain us in the hour of trouble
and trial and, if we fall, let us experience the joy of the sacrament of forgiveness.

Grant us your tender devotion to Mary, mother of Jesus and our Mother.

Accompany us on our earthly pilgrimage toward the blessed Homeland, where we too, hope to arrive to contemplate forever the Glory of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Amen

The Mystery of God in Feminist
by Elizabeth A. Johnson

The author doesn't like the irony of saying "He is not male," which language, she believes, undermines the point! She prefers "Godself" to "Himself". We must remember that God is Love.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Rebrand of CWF to Pastoral Works Broken Bay

We are delighted to announce the Charitable Works Fund (CWF) is rebranding to Pastoral Works Broken Bay from July 2021. The purpose of the new name is to better reflect the authentic, life-giving pastoral work you are helping to support, and provide a name that uniquely connects it to our Diocese of Broken Bay. Pastoral Works Broken Bay will play a vital role in building on the six Pastoral priorities for the Diocese, including giving vital support to life-changing ministries, nurturing families, and parish communities. Each year, about 20,000 families and friends - those in hospitals, schools, parishes, and the wider community - will be assisted through the generous support of parish communities to Pastoral Works Broken Bay. Thank you for your support of this important and historic initiative for the Diocese of Broken Bay. My prayer is the change from CWF to Pastoral Works Broken Bay enables us to reach further and wider in helping our local community, and more deeply connects us to the mission of Jesus.

God as One of the Family by Jane Knuth

One day, when I was young, I walked through the kitchen and noticed my dad standing in the middle of the room, looking perplexed. Typically, the only time he ever was in that room was when he was plunging the sink drain or refinishing the cabinets. When he saw me, he looked relieved.

"Jane," he said. "Where does your mother keep the drinking glasses?"

I reached behind him to the cabinet nearest the sink, first shelf, and handed him a glass. As long as I had been alive, the glasses had always been in the same place. He turned on the faucet and took the first water out of the tap, so I quietly opened the freezer and plucked out a couple of ice cubes to cool it down. He thanked me.

In any other family, one might be worried about Alzheimer's disease, but not in mine. My mother's realm was the kitchen, and if my dad wanted something as simple as a glass of water, she would get it for him. My dad's realm was the basement, garage, car, and family cottage, and if Mom wanted something as simple as a screwdriver, he would provide not only the tool but the muscle power. I never saw my mother with a hammer in her hand.

Not many families separated duties as thoroughly as mine did, but most of us have some division of labour: he does the laundry, and she does the shopping, or the kids do the dishes while the parents do the cooking. Often it seems to be based on who is home at the time that the task needs to get done.

I wonder how God fits into our everyday family life. Do we designate particular realms for God and other places for us? Do we think of God as good for the prayers and the holidays but not someone we want to join us when we are doing the mopping? Or do we take God everywhere the family goes? Vacation? Garbage duty? Putting the kids to sleep? Visiting Grandma?

When I was in fifth grade, and my twin brothers were 14, we three went on a canoe trip down a little creek called the Whiskey Run. We planned on paddling five miles as the crow flies from one highway bridge to another, but that clogged, twisty stream captured us for five hours instead. Everyone in the extended family was looking for us. After three hours, they called the county sheriff, the volunteer fire department, and an acquaintance with a crop-dusting plane.

Our grandmother was at home with our younger siblings while all the relatives were scouring the woods. She called the younger kids together to pray the Rosary with her. That was the most shocking part of the day for them. Rosaries were for funerals, or maybe an evening during Lent, but never on a bright summer day! God was not part of bright summer days. Not in our family.

While our siblings prayed, we eventually crawled up the banks of Whiskey Run mosquito-bitten, mud-covered, starving, and baffled that all the adults were so frantic. After we were cleaned up and fed, and everyone got to tell part of the adventure, our littlest sister scowled at us in disgust. "We had to sit inside and pray because of you! The whole day was ruined!"

All the adults roared with laughter at the disgruntled five-year-old and cheered her up by taking us all for a swim in the lake.

As I remember, it was about that time in our family history that we began saying grace at the picnic table during the summer. Before, it had been a dining room sort of tradition. God began poking his business into our fun days, not just our holy days. We learned not only to hand him a plunger when things were stopped up and overflowing, but we showed God where the drinking glasses and the screwdriver were kept so he could be part of the smaller things as well. God is part of each of our families, but mostly he hangs back and watches the fun. It doesn't have to be that way. Invite God to the picnic, take God on the canoe ride, and don't save the prayers for funerals.

Come and See!

INVITATION TO NON-CATHOLICS AND CATHOLICS (2021)

We are happy to invite everybody who would like to know more about our Catholic faith tradition to join our next RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) programme of our Parish in Pittwater.

In 24 informal evening sessions we discuss and try to answer some of LIFE'S DEEPER QUESTIONS based on our faith tradition and our personal experience.

Some questions Non-Catholics may have:

- Does God exist or is He a 'Mystery' to me?
- Why is there so much suffering in the world?
- Is faith a private affair or do I need a community?
- Why should I listen to the Catholic Church?
- How do Catholics interpret the Bible?
- Who do you say the Son of Man is?
- Do I have a personal relationship with Him?

Some questions Catholics may have:

- What is the 'Paschal Mystery' to me?
- How has the Church moved on since I left school?
- In what way has the Church changed since the Second Vatican Council?
- Can science and faith go together?
- What is the Church really teaching about sex?
- Can I further deepen my personal relationship with Jesus?

In the past few years over 60 people have joined us and given us enthusiastic responses. Many participants testify to this every year by becoming new or renewed members of our Church at Easter. Why not you?

If you think that life deserves more than superficial answers offered by the world, if this has made you curious in any way, please register at our Parish Office (02) 9157 0999. Due to Covid restrictions we will not be able to set a start date, but we will contact you to keep you up to date.

Everybody is welcome!

Maria Regina Church, Avalon Air-Conditioning Replacement

Our air-conditioning units in our Maria Regina Church, Avalon, which were generously donated by a parishioner, have been irreparably damaged by some uninvited lizards and now the Church is in need of new air conditioning units. Our aim is to raise $17,500.00 to cover the cost of the supply and installation of new units. It would be wonderful if we could achieve this goal quickly so that we can make the Church cosy in winter months as well as when we need it to cool in our hot Summer. Credit Card donations can be made via our website through BPoint <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/pittwater/archive/donations-and-giving> and selecting "Other" from the drop down Biller Code list and using "Air Conditioning" as the Reference. Thank you for your generosity and continued support.

First Plenary Council Assembly Moving Fully Online

At long last, starting 3 October 2021, the Catholic Church in Australia will gather for the first Assembly of the Plenary Council. Due to the current climate the format of the assembly has evolved from a large gathering, to smaller hubs and now to a fully online gathering with one person per device. While not ideal, and not what we had hoped, the national team will continue to assist and support the members and delegates so that they may participate as effectively as possible. While many may question why we are proceeding with the Plenary Council at this time; the desire to fulfil Christ's mission, no matter how difficult the circumstances may be, is part of the thinking in moving ahead. It is precisely the challenges that people are now facing, the isolation and disconnect, that we are hoping the Church will be able to address. Please continue to pray for the Plenary Council, the members and delegates as they prepare to fulfill their role in the coming months.

You can keep abreast of all the latest news, access the Instrumentum Laboris and sign up to the Plenary Council Newsletter by heading to the

Entrance Antiphon

I am the salvation of the people, says the Lord.
Should they cry to me in any distress,
I will hear them, and I will be their Lord
for ever.

First Reading

Wis 2:12, 17-20

A reading from the book of Wisdom

Let us condemn him to a most shameful death.

The godless say to themselves,
'Let us lie in wait for the virtuous man,
since he annoys us
and opposes our way of life,
reproaches us for our breaches of the law
and accuses us of playing false to our upbringing.

Let us see if what he says is true,
let us observe what kind of end he himself will have.
If the virtuous man is God's son, God will take his part and rescue him from the clutches of his enemies.

Let us test him with cruelty and with torture,
and thus explore this gentleness of his
and put his endurance to the proof.
Let us condemn him to a shameful death
since he will be looked after – we have his word for it.'

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 53:3-6. 8. R. v.6

(R.) The Lord upholds my life.

O God, save me by your name;
by your power, uphold my cause.
O God, hear my prayers;
listen to the words of my mouth. (R)

For proud men have risen against me,
ruthless men seek my life.
They have no regard for God. (R)

But I have God for my help.
The Lord upholds my life.
I will sacrifice to you with willing heart
and praise your name for it is good. (R)

Second Reading

Jas 3:16 – 4:3

A reading from the letter of St James

Justice is the harvest of peacemakers from seeds sown in a spirit of peace.

Wherever you find jealousy and ambition, you find disharmony, and wicked things of every kind being done;
whereas the wisdom that comes down
from above is essentially something pure; it also makes for peace, and is kindly and considerate; it is full of compassion and shows itself by doing good; nor is there any trace of partiality or hypocrisy in it. Peacemakers, when they work for peace, sow the seeds

which will bear fruit in holiness.
Where do these wars and battles between yourselves first start? Isn't it precisely in the desires fighting inside your own selves? You want something and you haven't got it; so you are prepared to kill.
You have an ambition that you cannot satisfy; so you fight to get your way by force. Why you don't have what you want is because you don't pray for it;
when you do pray and don't get it, it is because you have not prayed properly, you have prayed for something to indulge your own desires.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

See 2 Thes 2:14

Alleluia, alleluia!
God has called us with the gospel to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mk 9:30-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of humanity ... All who wish to be first must make themselves the servants of all.

After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know, because he was instructing his disciples; he was telling them, 'The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he said and were afraid to ask him.

They came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?'
They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest.
So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant
of all.' He then took a little child, set him in front of them, put his arms round him, and said to them, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Communion Antiphon

Ps 118:4-5

You have laid down your precepts to be carefully kept;
may my ways be firm in keeping your statutes.

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

Who are the righteous? This is a question that holds little interest today. We are more concerned with the successful and the famous. We want people to be honest, at least in their dealings with us, but we are more apt to applaud those who are clever. We commend people for making a good deal, for knowing how to get ahead or striking it rich. We extol the beautiful, the strong, the self-assured, those who have made a name for themselves, those who entertain us. We encourage people to be ambitious. Seldom is popularity based on righteousness.

Yet righteousness is a pillar of the reign of God. Those who would enter that reign must be gentle and merciful, faithful and sincere, lovers of peace. They must be willing to take the last place, to be the servant of all. The righteous are not often held in high regard. They are often ridiculed and even persecuted. When they are considered a reproach to the standards of society, they may even be put to death.

There are times when we might be inclined to envy and resentment, not wanting to feel morally inferior; and we might relish the opportunity of putting the virtue of others to the test. We may say that we want to draw forth their strengths, when we really hope their weaknesses will be revealed and they will prove to be no better than we are. Sometimes the righteous have nowhere else to turn but to Jesus, whose life they are following and into whose death they have been plunged.
