

The Catholic Parish of Pittwater

Sacred Heart & Maria Regina. Neighbourhoods of Grace, entrusted to the care of the Salvatorians.

All Saints' Day

Dear Holy Saints of God,
we join our prayers of praise to yours today.

With you, we sing of God's goodness, rejoice in God's mercy and celebrate
God's incredible love.
Teach us to live as you lived
– always thinking of others,
always recognising our weaknesses, always rejoicing in God's gifts,
always closely following Jesus.

Blessed are you,
happy are you,
all you Holy Saints of God.
Pray for us that we, too,
may someday be among God's Holy Ones.
Amen.

Thoughts of Fr Francis Jordan

Really endeavour to become saints! We will never reach this goal completely in this life, but we must strive to become holy!

for MASS

thank you

A warm welcome to all our parishioners and visitors who are celebrating the Eucharist with us at Pittwater Parish - Sacred Heart Church, Mona Vale and Maria Regina Church, Avalon

The children preparing for the Sacrament of First Eucharist, will be at Mass. We ask all parishioners to please book for Mass through trybooking, as places are limited.

trybooking

To ensure that we fulfil the requirements of the 80 (Mona Vale) and 100 (Avalon) people limit, we would like you to use the Trybooking website to book for our weekend Masses.

There is no need to book for the weekday Masses. The bookings are now open. Further weekend Masses will be added each week, taking into consideration any changes in government restrictions.

Here are some pointers that might help:

1. Once you have selected the Mass you would like to book for, you will need to enter the quantity of tickets at the bottom of the page. Then click NEXT.
2. Once you have read and agreed to the "Additional Information" you will need to select "YES" from the dropdown box that says "I Agree to the Terms Above"
3. You will then need to enter the First Name and the Last Name of each of the Attendees. Then click NEXT.
4. In the Checkout, you will need to complete all the fields, First Name, Last Name, Phone Number, Address, Suburb, Postcode and Email Address. Then click PURCHASE.
5. If you have completed the transaction successfully, you will see "Transaction Successful" on the following page and you will receive an email with the "ticket" to the Mass you have selected.
6. If you do not see "Transaction Successful" and you do not receive an email (please remember to check your junk email) then the items may still be in your cart and you may need to re-complete one of the steps.
7. You do not need to print the ticket. We will have your name on the "Ticket Holder List" for each Mass.

To book for our Masses at Sacred Heart Church, Mona Vale, please visit <https://www.trybooking.com/BJPSE>
To book for our Masses at Maria Regina Church, Avalon, please visit <https://www.trybooking.com/BJPSP>

Please do not hesitate to contact the Parish office 9157 0999 if you need any assistance.

BOOK REVIEW

New Picture Book of the Saints

by Rev. Lawrence G.
Lovasik, S.V.D.

There are 57 saints listed with beautiful pictures of them and brief details of their lives. It is an enlightening and easy to read book, which is most appropriate for all Saints Day

Adoration & Benediction

MARIA REGINA CHURCH -
every Thursday
9am Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Adoration and
Benediction at 9.45am.
Mass at 10am

SACRED HEART CHURCH -
every Thursday
Mass at 7pm followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Adoration and Benediction at 9pm.

Even though the restrictions in NSW have eased and Churches can now have up to 300 people attending, the 1 person per four-square metre rule still applies. This means that the capacity of our Churches remains at 80 for Sacred Heart Church, Mona Vale and 100 for Maria Regina Church, Avalon.

NOVEMBER OFFERINGS

If you would like the names of your deceased friends, relatives or loved ones published in our "Book of Remembrance" please fill the "November Mass Offering" envelopes and drop it in to the Parish Office or on the plate before Wednesday 12 noon, each week.

To read the messages from Bishop Anthony, please go to www.pittwaterparish.org. News and events tile and Messages from Bishop Anthony on the drop down menu.

from Our Schools

Mater Maria Catholic College

Our Year 12s continue with HSC examinations this week. Please continue to join us in prayer as they conclude their final weeks of schooling.

We congratulate our new College Captains (Riley Buxton and Lauren Bell) and College Vice Captains (Zachary Newbold and Zara Durdevic) who will be leading the College community in 2021. This Friday is a busy day for us as our Principal and Assistant Principal vote in our Ministry Prefects for next year for House, Sports, Arts, Samaritan and Stewardship.

We are also holding our annual Co-Curricular and Sport photos this Friday. Thankfully we have still managed to continue with a number of different sports, youth ministry, drama, music, public speaking and Duke of Edinburgh opportunities during this COVID-19 era.

We are looking forward to International Teachers Day this Friday. Our lovely Parent and Friends Committee have made beautiful thank you cards and we are celebrating by having a coffee van on site and offering free coffee to all of our wonderful teachers.

Fern Creek in the Warriewood Valley is home to the critically endangered 'Red-crowned Toadlet' frogs. It is nestled between bushland, a parkland area and directly behind our College by our basketball courts. It is currently being rehabilitated by the Northern Beaches Council to protect the frogs, stop erosion and reduce bushfire hazard. It will be a wonderful place for our community to visit once complete.

Beatification of Carlos Acutis: Heaven is an 'attainable goal'

In early October along the pristine medieval streets of Assisi, a city ubiquitous with references to St. Francis, posters bore the image of a different modern saint-in-the-making: Carlo Acutis, a 15-year-old Italian tech whiz.

The Italian teen, who had a great love for the Eucharist, was beatified Oct. 10 in Assisi. (CNS photo/Paul Haring)

Before his death from leukemia in 2006, Acutis was an average teen with an above-average knack for computers. He put that knowledge to use by creating an online database of eucharistic miracles around the world.

For Acutis' mother, Antonia Salzano, the heartbreak that all parents experience over the loss of a child has been mingled with serenity and joy as she prepared to see her son beatified October 10 at the Basilica of St. Francis.

Antonia Salzano, the mother of Carlo Acutis, is pictured in the front row during a Mass at which her son's tomb was opened in the Church of Santa Maria Maggiore in Assisi, Italy, Oct. 1, 2020. The tomb of Carlo Acutis was opened in advance of the Italian teen's Oct. 10 beatification Mass and remained open for veneration until Oct. 17. (CNS photo/courtesy Diocese of Assisi-Nocera Umbra-Gualdo Tadino)

"It's unusual for parents to (be present at) the beatification of their son or daughter," Salzano told Catholic News Service Oct. 9. "It's very unusual because normally it takes a long time. But instead, for Carlo it took 14 years to have the beatification."

Acutis' beatification, she said, is "an important step for us because we have so many devotees of Carlo all around the world. I think it's a big sign for them, a great consolation."

"It's very, very important that we have this recognition from the church," Salzano added.

As part of the sainthood process, Acutis' body was exhumed and transferred to a place suitable for public veneration, the Shrine of the Renunciation at the Church of St. Mary Major in Assisi.

Placed in a glass case, his body was dressed in jeans and a track suit jacket — the attire he was accustomed to wearing and what is seen in many of the photos taken of him during his life.

The lifelike silicone mask placed on his face also sparked a debate as to whether the teen's remains were incorrupt, prompting the Diocese of Assisi to issue a statement Oct. 1 that his face and hands were reconstructed in order to exhibit his remains "with dignity for the veneration of the faithful."

Acutis' body, Salzano told CNS, "was found intact. We cannot say incorrupt because the bishop doesn't like it, because he says the only (ones who are) incorrupt are Jesus and the Virgin Mary."

"Intact means that the body was like it was when he died. The only thing is that the skin became a little bit darker. For example, if you go to visit the body of St. Rita in Cascia or St. Catherine in Bologna," a 15th-century Poor Clare whose body is believed to be miraculously incorrupt, "you see that the body is intact but the skin is darker," Salzano explained.

She also said that his organs also were found intact and his heart was removed and placed in a reliquary that will be displayed at the beatification Mass.

While looking at his body makes it seem almost like he is still alive, Salzano told CNS she didn't have "a particular reaction" to seeing his body again because she feels she has "a real, spiritual relationship with my son."

"He makes himself very much close to me. He gives a lot of signs. Sometimes I dream of Carlo, sometimes I hear inspiration. And, also, he gives a lot of signs to a lot of people around the world. I mean, I don't really feel the lack of Carlo because he's a silent presence, but he makes himself heard through many people," she said.

Antonia Salzano, the mother of Carlo Acutis, is pictured in front of his tomb after it was opened in the Church of Santa Maria Maggiore in Assisi, Italy, Oct. 1, 2020. In his exhortation on young people, "Christus Vivit" ("Christ Lives"), Pope Francis said Acutis was a role model for young people today who are often tempted by the traps of "self-absorption, isolation and empty pleasure."

While Carlo created digital content when YouTube and Facebook were in their infancy, his life and example remain relevant in today's fast paced age of social networking, Salzano said.

One of Acutis' most famous quotes, cited by the pope in his exhortation, was, "We are all born original, but many die as photocopies."

"I think that Carlo was a bit of a prophet of his time," she said. "Because, of course, a saint is somebody who goes a little bit against the mainstream, the mentality of most people."

Carlo also worried that often-obsessive reverence for movie and music stars were becoming "a sort of idolatry," she said. "Carlo used to say, 'You see queues in front of a football match or an actor or rock singer, but you don't see a queue for the tabernacle where there is the real presence of God, God that lives among us.'"

As someone dedicated to the "good side" of the internet, Acutis' beatification during the coronavirus pandemic, in which many must follow the beatification online instead of traveling to Assisi, "is a little bit of sign," she said.

"I must say that the internet is incredible. It's a gift. Of course, the internet has a dark side" when misused for pornography, bullying and selling drugs, Salzano told CNS. "But Carlo showed the good side of internet. And we know that the light is stronger than the darkness."

Carlo, she said, "is an influencer for God."

Port Pirie welcomes new bishop

Bishop Karol Kulczycki SDS at St Mark's Cathedral in Port Pirie yesterday (The Southern Cross)

The diversity and unity of the vast Catholic Diocese of Port Pirie was on show for a worldwide audience at the installation ceremony of Bishop Karol Kulczycki SDS yesterday. Source: The Southern Cross.

Representatives from the four corners of the diocese – which is three times the size of Bishop Karol's homeland of Poland – brought soil from their region and poured it into a glass vessel to symbolise the territory over which he will have pastoral leadership. Prior to the entrance procession, a welcome video from Bishop Greg O'Kelly SJ and the people of the Diocese was shown, also highlighting the diversity of the lands. During the service, Bishop Karol spoke of the three components of building a "family of families" – common home, common table and common goal.

"My existence as bishop only has meaning if I am connected to the people," he said. "I entrust myself to your prayers."

Held at St Mark's Cathedral in Port Pirie, the installation was concelebrated by past and present bishops from the Adelaide Province, and the Salvatorian Fathers, the Order that Bishop Karol belongs.

Bishop Karol arrived in Port Pirie from Poland earlier this month (after serving quarantine requirements), but previously spent 21 years as a missionary priest in Western Australia. He returned to Poland in 2018 after being elected vice-provincial of the Polish province of the Society of the Divine Saviour. Born in Poland in 1966, Bishop Karol was ordained to the priesthood in Trzebinia in 1994. The Port Pirie Diocese is one of the largest in Australia, stretching from Uluru to Port Lincoln and from the WA border to the River Murray.

Be happy and you will have a great reward in heaven

All Saints Day

Draw a line from the first half of each beatitude to its correct ending.

Blessed are those who grieve...

...they will be treated with mercy.

Blessed are the merciful...

...they will be called God's children.

Blessed are those who make peace...

...they will see God.

Blessed are those with pure hearts...

...they will find comfort.

How can you be like a saint?

The Living Word

Entrance Antiphon

Let us all rejoice in the Lord,
as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints,
at whose festival the Angels rejoice
and praise the Son of God.

First Reading

Rv 7:2-4, 9-14

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse
I saw an immense crowd, beyond hope of counting, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language.

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.

After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words, 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'

One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my Lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm Ps 23:1-6. R. see v.6

(R.) Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. (R.)

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. (R.)

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Jn 3:1-3

A reading from the first letter of St John
We shall see God as he really is.

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us,
by letting us be called God's children;
and that is what we are.

Because the world refused to acknowledge him,
therefore it does not acknowledge us.
My dear people, we are already the children of God
but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed;
all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.
Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Mt 11:28

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened, and I will give you rest, says the Lord.
Alleluia.

Gospel

Mt 5:1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account.
Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Communion Antiphon

Mt 5:8-10

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they shall be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

Today we celebrate the memory of all the baptised who have gone before us and whose lives were virtuous.

The saints of God are all those who have been baptised into Christ, who have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb. We all know people whose lives were steeped in genuine holiness. The life of every one of us has been blessed by their goodness. This is a day for us to remember and to celebrate their holiness. We celebrate the lives of all those who have been marked with the sign of faith, those who have been canonised by the church, those whom we have known personally as well as those whose names we do not know. In the beatitudes listed in today's gospel we are given examples of what it means to live lives of holiness. This gospel really does not present a blueprint for holiness. Rather, it offers a series of snapshots that demonstrate the holiness that is ours by virtue of our baptism. Those who have gone before us lived such lives. Today, as we remember them, we hold up their lives as examples of holiness and models for our imitation. The sentiments that are expressed and the commitment that it illustrated in the beatitudes clearly stand in opposition to the standards of the world. Their radicality may be more than some can understand, but they are traits that are recognisable by those who belong to the family of God, for they are genuine godly traits.

It is our responsibility to protect others and ourselves and stop the spread of COVID-19 in Australia.

Continue to practise good hygiene. Please use the hand sanitisers provided in both of our Churches.

If you have a coughing episode in Church, we advise you to step out to the courtyard, or the parish centre, away from others for the moment.

As we move towards living COVIDSafe, it is important that you stay at home if you feel unwell. If you have cold or flu like symptoms, such as a fever, cough, sore throat, runny nose or shortness of breath, you should seek medical advice and get tested for COVID-19. You should get tested even if your symptoms are mild, and do not come to Church.

We will continue to record names and contact details of those present at services along with the date and time they attend, as required by NSW health.

If you have been overseas or interstate in the last 14 days, or have been in contact with a confirmed case of Covid 19 in the last 14 days, or awaiting a Covid 19 test results, as much as we would like you to be with us here in Church, we appreciate your prayers more than your presence in this situation.

Everyone must also stay 1.5 metres away from other people whenever possible. Please sit only in the marked seats.
