33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time 14th November & 15th November 2026

The Catholic Parish of Pittwater

Sacred Heart & Maria Regina. Neighbourhoods of Grace, entrusted to the care of the Salvatorians.

A warm welcome to all our parishioners and visitors who are celebrating the Eucharist with us at Pittwater Parish -
Sacred Heart Church and Maria Regina Church

Thoughts of Blessed Francis Jordan

Whatever the hour, pour out prayer to the Lord. Always be content with whatever God may dispose for you and in whatever manner He does it.

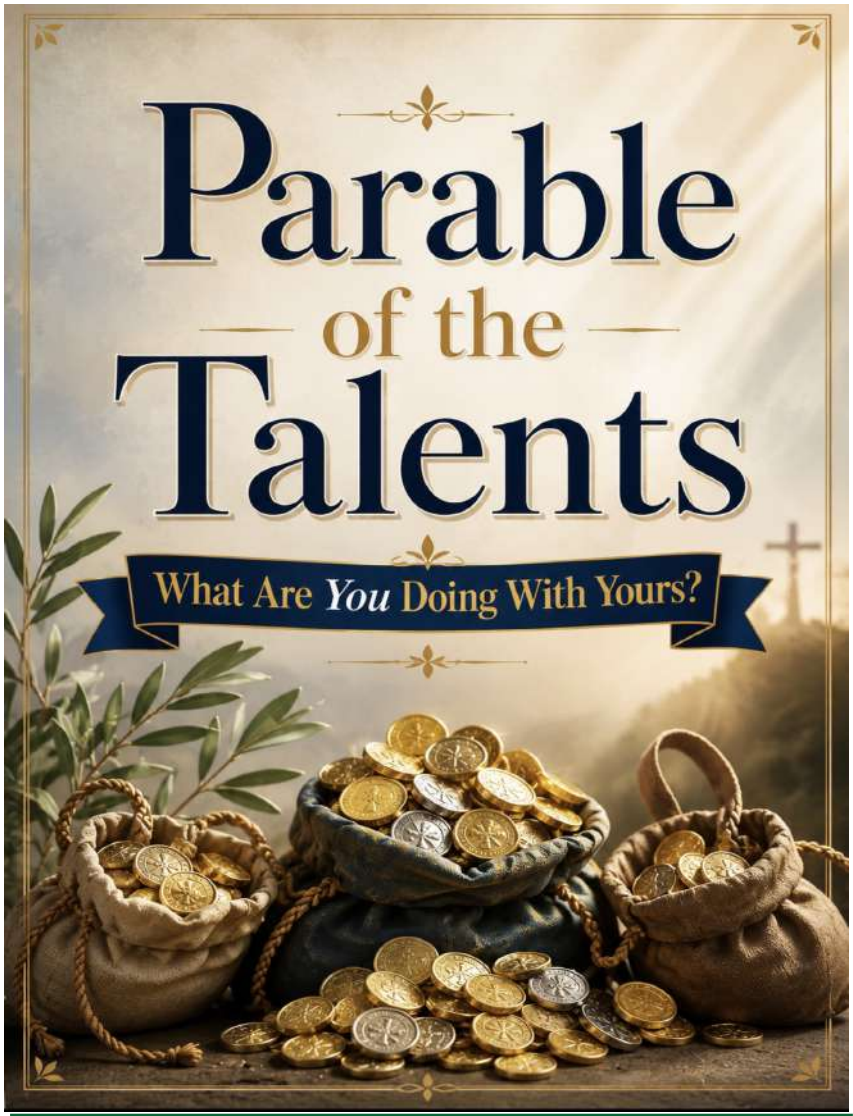

Prayer for Our Dearly Departed

God, our Father,
Your power brings us to birth,
Your providence guides our lives,
and by Your command,
we return to dust.

Lord, those who die still live
in Your presence,
their lives change but do not end.

We pray in hope for our family,
relatives and friends,
and for all the dead known to
You alone.

In company with Christ,
who died and now lives,
may they rejoice in
Your kingdom,
to sing Your praise forever
and ever. Amen.

POPE LEO'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR November

For the Proper Use of Wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

OUR PARISH SCHOOLS (TERM 4, WEEK 5)

MATER MARIA CATHOLIC COLLEGE

WALK IN NEW LIFE

This week has provided many opportunities for our students to learn, grow and serve. Through examinations, faith celebrations, sporting events, creative achievements and charitable initiatives, our students have continued to demonstrate the values that make Mater Maria such a vibrant community.

Our Year 8 and Year 9 students commenced their yearly examinations this week. We keep them in our thoughts and prayers as they approach this important period with confidence and perseverance.

On Wednesday, our College community gathered for our annual Remembrance Day Service, honouring those who have served and sacrificed for our nation. Students also represented Mater Maria at community services hosted by Avalon and Pittwater RSL sub-branches.

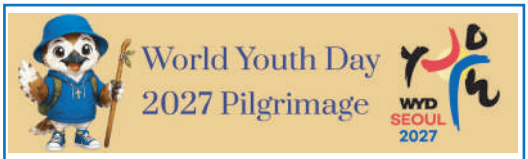

That evening, all thirty Mater Maria students who participated in the 2026 CSBB Religious Creative Arts Competition received awards in recognition of their talents in visual arts, film and live performances. We congratulate them on this wonderful achievement.

Our Year 12 students hosted their annual $15 Formal, raising funds for Caritas Australia's Project Compassion, while Year 10 Food Technology students showcased their skills by planning and preparing a festive Christmas buffet for their families.

In sport, students represented the College with pride at the CSBB Opens Volleyball Championships, the weekly MWBA basketball competition and the All Schools Wavepool Championships at URBNSURF Homebush. We commend all participants for their commitment, teamwork and sportsmanship.

Each Friday, our prefects continue to lead Faith Fridays, bringing students together for prayer, music and fellowship in a welcoming faith-filled environment.

Enrolment applications are now open for Year 7 2030. Families are advised that Year 7 2027 and 2028 are at capacity, with waitlists currently in place. Round 2 interviews for Year 7 2029 are underway. Further information can be found at www.matermaria.nsw.edu.au/enrolments.

WYD27 BROKEN BAY PILGRIMAGE

The Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay will once again be taking young people aged 15 years to young adults aged 35 on pilgrimage from the Northern Beaches, the North Shore and the Central Coast, including students from Catholic Schools Broken Bay (CSBB).

Our journey will be from 26 July to 12 August 2027.

We are offering one pilgrimage option which includes a pre-pilgrimage in Japan, followed by WYD week in Seoul a, we are journeying as one Diocese to Seoul where we will gather with the Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, and an anticipated one million Catholics from around the globe. Join what many previous WYD pilgrims have described as the experience of a lifetime! Please go to bbwyd27.org.au and sign in the Expression of Interest Form.

SACRED HEART CATHOLIC PRIMARY SCHOOL Mona Vale

Over the past fortnight, our Year 6 students have enjoyed several meaningful faith experiences. Last Friday, they participated in a Faith and Learning Walk with their parents and carers, reflecting on God's presence in the world around them. On Monday, Year 6 also attended their Retreat Day at Palm Beach, providing a valuable opportunity for prayer, reflection and community building as they prepare for their final year of primary school.
This Wednesday, our school community will gather for our Remembrance Day Liturgy, honouring the service and sacrifice of those who have served our country. We also continue to warmly welcome our future Kindergarten students through our Kindy 2027 Orientation program, with Little Hearts sessions taking place each Friday. These special mornings are helping our newest learners and their families become familiar with our school community as they prepare for their exciting start to school.

RED WEDNESDAY

Aid to the Church in Need

Red Wednesday is an annual event to remember and pray for all who are persecuted and oppressed for their Christian faith. In 2026, Red Wednesday is 18 November 2026.
You are invited to join the

Red Wednesday Mass at 7pm on Wednesday, 18 November
Our Lady of Dolours Church
94 Archer Street, Chatswood

to remember and pray for persecuted Christians around the world. Sharing the bond uniting us all with Christians in many parts of the world who suffer and are persecuted for their love of Jesus Christ.

Donate Now

Every gift makes a difference. THANK YOU!

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF BROKEN BAY

We need your generosity and support for our Diocese of Broken Bay (PWBB) Appeal to be held on the weekend of 7 & 8 November. The Appeal supports various charities in our Diocesan community, particularly the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) and the Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Program.

PWBB also supports St Lucy's School and St Edmund's College for students with disabilities, and the Ephpheta Centre supports the deaf community. These ministries need our community's generosity as they get little or no Government funding. Please consider donating to help us reach this year's goal.

You can donate at any time, not only during November. All donations over $2 are tax deductible. Envelopes will be available on the pews or you can donate online at Pastoral Works Broken Bay. Thank You!

TOGETHER, WE BRING CHRIST'S LOVE TO LIFE.

Thank you for your generosity and support.

The Living Word

Entrance Antiphon
Jeremiah 29:11,12,14
The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

First Reading
Proverbs 31:10-13. 19-20. 30-31
A reading from the book of Proverbs
Give her a share in what she has worked for.

A perfect wife – who can find her?
She is far beyond the price of pearls.
Her husband's heart has confidence in her, from her he will derive no little profit. Advantage and not hurt she brings him all the days of her life.
She is always busy with wool and with flax, she does her work with eager hands. She sets her hands to the distaff, her fingers grasp the spindle. She holds out her hand to the poor, she opens her arms to the needy. Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty; the woman who is wise is the one to praise. Give her a share in what her hands have worked for, and let her works tell her praises at the city gates.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm Ps 127:1-5. R. v.1
(R.) Happy are those who fear the Lord.

O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways! By the labour of your hands you shall eat. You will be happy and prosper. (R.)

Your wife like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house; your children like shoots of the olive, around your table. (R.)

Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord. May the Lord bless you from Zion in a happy Jerusalem all the days of your life. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6
A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians
The day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night.

You will not be expecting us to write anything to you, brothers, about 'times and seasons', since you know very well that the Day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night. It is when people are saying, 'How quiet and peaceful it is' that the worst suddenly happens, as suddenly as labour pains come on a pregnant woman; and there will be no way for anybody to evade it.
But it is not as if you live in the dark, my brothers, for that Day to overtake you like a thief. No, you are all sons of light and sons of the day: we do not belong to the night or to darkness, so we should not go on sleeping, as everyone else does, but stay wide awake and sober.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation John 15:4. 5
Alleluia, alleluia!
Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord; my branches bear much fruit.
Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 25:14-30
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
Because you have been faithful over a few things, enter into the joy of the Lord.

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples:
'The kingdom of heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one; each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out. The man who had received the five talents promptly went and traded with them and made five more. The man who had received two made two more in the same way. But the man who had received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. Now a long time after, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. "Sir", he said "you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness." Next the man with the two talents came forward. "Sir," he said "you entrusted me with two talents; here are two more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness." Last came forward the man who had the one talent. "Sir," said he "I had heard you were a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered; so I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here it is; it was yours, you have it back." But his master answered him, "You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered? Well then, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have recovered my capital with interest. So now, take the talent from him and give it to the man who has the five talents. For to everyone who has will be given more, and he will have more than enough; but from the man who has not, even what he has will be taken away. As for this good-for-nothing servant, throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth."'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Communion Antiphon Psalm 72:28
To be near God is my happiness,
to place my hope in God the Lord.

REFLECTION
by Dianne Bergant

It is not enough that we wait patiently. We are expected to be industrious as we await the advent of the reign of God. We have all been entrusted with talents that really belong to God, and we must use these talents to the best of our ability in the interim between the Lord's departure and his final return. The ideal wisdom figure in the first reading is a model of such industriousness.
Fidelity to the reign of God requires that we be willing to take risks. We do not know the time of the Lord's coming, and so there will have to be a kind of tentativeness to all of our plans. We will never be able to be certain that they will be brought to fruition. We must spend and be spent without the assurance that we will be able to reap the rewards of our investment. To refuse to risk is to refuse to trust.
If we have been wise and have industriously employed the Lord's talents, which were entrusted to us, we will be richly rewarded. However, if we have not realised the potential that is possessed by our talents, and if we have not employed them as they were meant to be employed, we will be punished. The foolish man in the gospel knew that the householder was exacting. He had some idea of what to expect. He made his choice and he had to accept the consequences of that choice.
