Solemnity of All Saints' Day 31st October & 1 November 2026

The Catholic Parish of Pittwater

Sacred Heart & Maria Regina. Neighbourhoods of Grace, entrusted to the care of the Salvatorians.

A warm welcome to all our parishioners and visitors who are celebrating the Eucharist with us at Pittwater Parish -
Sacred Heart Church and Maria Regina Church

Thoughts of Blessed Francis Jordan

Truly the Almighty will help you in all your worries and sufferings. He will never abandon you. He will give you courage and strength.

Prayer for our Faithful Departed

O Lord, we commend the souls of our family members, relations, friends and benefactors.

Almighty and eternal God.
from whose love in Christ
we cannot be parted
either by death or life.

Hear our prayers and thanksgiving for all whom we remember.

Fulfil in them the purpose of
Your love and bring them to
Your eternal joy.
Through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

POPE LEO'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR October

For the Proper Use of Wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

OUR PARISH SCHOOLS (TERM 4, WEEK 3)

MATER MARIA CATHOLIC COLLEGE

WALK IN NEW LIFE

Our Parents in Partnership group celebrated World Teachers' Day this Friday with a special morning tea to thank our dedicated staff for their commitment to our students and College community.

We continue to keep our Year 12 students in our prayers as they undertake their HSC examinations. This is an important milestone that calls for perseverance, focus and confidence. We also remember our Year 10 students, who are completing their yearly examinations this week. We ask our community to keep all students in their thoughts and prayers during this significant time.

Our newly appointed 2027 College Captains and Vice Captains attended the CSBB Student Leadership Day at the Catholic Schools Office in Pennant Hills. With a focus on Servant Leadership, the day encouraged students to develop leadership grounded in the example of Christ, leading with courage, compassion and service. The experience also provided opportunities to collaborate with student leaders from other CSBB schools.

Years 8 and 9 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students attended the CSBB Muru: Pathways Through Stories Expo at the University of Newcastle's Wollotuka Institute. The event offered valuable insight into university life and higher education pathways available to Indigenous students.

A group of Year 9 student leaders has been preparing to support the Journey with Jesus retreat for Year 5 students from local Catholic primary schools. Through training and mentorship, our students helped facilitate activities and small-group discussions, providing positive faith leadership and peer support throughout this week's retreat experience.

Faith Fridays continue to be a valued part of College life. Hosted by our student prefects, these gatherings bring students together each week for prayer, reflection, music and fellowship, strengthening faith and a sense of belonging within our community.

Students enthusiastically represented the College in the MWBA Basketball Competition and Manly Cup Cricket in sport activities this week. We congratulate all participants on their teamwork, determination and sportsmanship.

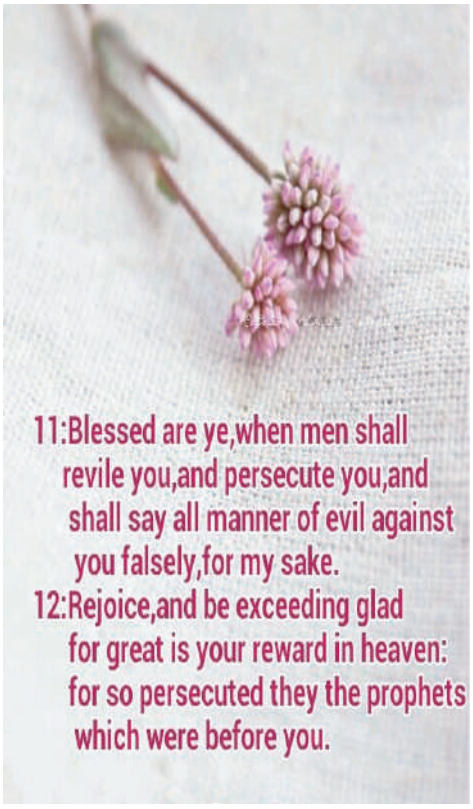

Enrolment applications are now open for Year 7 2030. Families are reminded that Year 7 2027 and 2028 are currently at capacity, with waitlists in place and Round 2 enrolment interviews for Year 7, 2029 are now taking place. Further information is available at www.matermaria.nsw.edu.au/enrolments.

SACRED HEART CATHOLIC PRIMARY SCHOOL Mona Vale

It has been a busy and faith-filled time at our school. Year 5 and Year 1 recently gathered for their Class Mass, sharing reverence and prayer as a community.

On Friday, 30 October, our Year 1 students will lead our All Saints Day Liturgy, celebrating the lives of the saints and their example of faith. Year 2, 3 and 4 students also participated in their Class Mass, deepening their connection with Christ through prayer.

We have also welcomed our future students and families this week as we hosted our Kindergarten 2027 Orientation sessions. We look forward to sharing our school community with them and helping them begin their educational journey with confidence and excitement.

Book of Remembrance

- NOVEMBER -

A special time to pray for the faithful departed

November is a special month in the Catholic when we remember and pray for our deceased loved ones.
As we celebrate All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day, we are reminded of our communion with those who have gone before us in faith and our hope in the promise of eternal life.
Let us take this month to remember our departed family members, friends and all the faithful departed in our prayers.
If you like the NAMES of your Deceased Loved Ones, Relatives or Friends published in our "Book of Remembrance", Please fill in the November Offerings Envelopes and drop it into the Parish Office or put it in the collection during the weekend Masses.

Each day in November, a Mass will be offered for all the names published in our "Book of Remembrance".

The Living Word

Entrance Antiphon
Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

First Reading Revelation 7:2-4. 9-14
A reading from the book of the Apocalypse
I saw an immense crowd, beyond hope of counting, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language.

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.
After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words, 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'
One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my Lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm
Ps 23:1-6. R. see v.6
(R.) Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples. It is he who set it on the seas; on the waters he made it firm. (R.)

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord? Who shall stand in his holy place? The man with clean hands and pure heart, who desires not worthless things. (R.)

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him. Such are the men who seek him, seek the face of the God of Jacob. (R.)

Second Reading 1 John 3:1-3
A reading from the first letter of St John
We shall see God as he really is.

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us.
My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is. Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation Matthew 11:28
Alleluia, alleluia!
Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened, and I will give you rest, says the Lord.
Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 5:1-12
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:
'How happy are the poor in spirit:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Communion Antiphon Matthew 5:8-10
Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

REFLECTION
by Dianne Bergant

Today we celebrate the memory of all the baptised who have gone before us and whose lives were virtuous. The saints of God are all those who have been baptised into Christ, who have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb. We all know people whose lives were steeped in genuine holiness. The life of every one of us has been blessed by their goodness. This is a day for us to remember and to celebrate their holiness. We celebrate the lives of all those who have been marked with the sign of faith, those who have been canonised by the church, those whom we have known personally as well as those whose names we do not know. In the beatitudes listed in today's gospel we are given examples of what it means to live lives of holiness. This gospel really does not present a blueprint for holiness. Rather, it offers a series of snapshots that demonstrate the holiness that is ours by virtue of our baptism. Those who have gone before us lived such lives. Today, as we remember them, we hold up their lives as examples of holiness and models for our imitation. The sentiments that are expressed and the commitment that it illustrated in the beatitudes clearly stand in opposition to the standards of the world. Their radicality may be more than some can understand, but they are traits that are recognisable by those who belong to the family of God, for they are genuine godly traits.
