Prayer to Christ the King

O Lord our God, You alone are the Most Holy King and Ruler of all nations.

We pray to You, Lord, in the great expectation of receiving from You, O Divine King, mercy, peace, justice and all good things.

Protect, O Lord our King, our families and the land of our birth.

Guard us we pray Most Faithful One.

Protect us from our enemies and from Your Just Judgment.

Forgive us, O Sovereign King, our sins against you.

Jesus, You are a King of Mercy.

We have deserved Your Just Judgment.

Have mercy on us, Lord, and forgive us.

We trust in Your Great Mercy.

O most awe-inspiring King, we bow before You and pray;

May Your Reign, Your Kingdom, be recognised on earth.

Amen.

from Our Schools

Mater Maria
Catholic College

We are pleased that the Year 7 Orientation Day that was originally planned for September could finally take place this week. We had two groups of primary school students on Wednesday and Thursday to prepare themselves for secondary education at Mater Maria Catholic College. Our Year 10 students were involved with these days. We are also pleased that some excursions are now allowed to take place. This week our Year 10 students visited the Sydney International Regatta Centre to participate in a Homeless Education Session where students were guided through a two hour hands-on workshop. Our Years 8 and 9 students partook in a week of Progressive Achievement Tests and ACER General Ability Tests, whilst our sporty students enjoyed the Peninsula Cup FUTSAL and BBSA Netball competitions. Our students also participated in a Mater Maria Catholic College Chess Tournament this week. Almost 60 students in varying years competed against each other to earn points for their Houses.

Some of our other news and events can be found here: www.matermaria.nsw.edu.au/news-events/ and if you are interested in Mater Maria Catholic College for your child's education please visit <https://matermaria.nsw.edu.au/enrolment/>.

PLANNED GIVING

The money contributed to our parish via our second collection helps us to meet the running costs which our Parish incurs, including wages, electricity, telephones, insurances, rates, building and equipment repairs and maintenance, to name but a few. Whilst you are unable to attend Mass, if you are able to make your regular donation by way of automatic direct debit from your credit card, please complete the form included in this bulletin. Or donations can be made on our website: www.pittwaterparish.org through the donations and giving tile. If you would prefer not to give by credit card, please contact the parish office, 9157 0999 for other ways that you can contribute.

Christmas Hampers

This year, instead of putting together a hamper, we're asking our parishioners if they would purchase a "food & groceries only" card from either Woolworths or Coles. Our charity partner will distribute them to families in need, who can then purchase fresh food and groceries of their choice in preparation for Christmas. Examples of the appropriate cards are shown below.

You can load the grocery card in store with whatever amount you choose – maybe use what you spent on last year's hamper as a guide. Feel free to team up with other parishioners, families or parish groups – all contributions are greatly appreciated.

We're incredibly grateful for the tremendous generosity our parishioners have shown over the years and we hope you can help us continue this great tradition.

Ask A Priest – Feast of Christ the King

By Fr Josh Miechels - November 27, 2019

Why do we have a Feast of Christ the King?

Pope Pius XI decided to institute the Feast of Christ the King in 1925 for one main reason: because the world is screwed up. "The rebellion of individuals and states against the authority of Christ has produced deplorable consequences."

Like what? "the seeds of discord sown far and wide; those bitter enmities and rivalries between nations... that insatiable greed which is so often hidden under a pretence of public spirit and patriotism, and gives rise to so many private quarrels... no peace in the home, because men have forgotten or neglect their duty; the unity and stability of the family undermined."

Sound familiar? Funny how, 100 years later, we are suffering even worse from the same problems. Sometimes Popes really know what they are talking about.

Which is why perhaps we should have a second serious look at the solution Pius XI provides: Christ, truly, as King.

Is it an appropriate title?

Aren't we imposing a medieval title where a post-modern democratic one might be more appropriate? The thing is of course that it's not a medieval title: since their first days Christians have always called Christ King. Even then, it wasn't our idea: Jesus himself called himself King, and acted like one. Remember the donkey thing on Palm Sunday?

Remember his answer to Pilate? "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world." It was what he was insulted and spat for. It was the reason he wore a crown of thorns. It is the reason that walking into almost any Catholic church into the world one is confronted with a crucifix titled with a whopping big sign saying "INRI" – "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews".

So how is Jesus king?

Pope Pius reminds us that Jesus is king in a number of ways:

King because he is perfection itself.

King because he reigns in the hearts of men because he is perfectly intelligent, he knows everything, and he is Truth itself.

King in the wills of men, because in him "the human will was perfectly and entirely obedient to the Holy Will of God"

But the Pope is at pains to point out that he is also king as a man, having received from the Father "supreme and absolute dominion over all things created." He gave and made laws; he made judgements about them; and he carries out those laws – legislative, judicial and executive power. It's true Christ's kingdom is not of this world: we enter it by "faith and baptism". Yet "it would be a grave error... to say that Christ has no authority whatever in civil affairs, since... all things are in his power."

It is in this way Pope Pius argues that welcoming Christ as King will bring peace to the world. He says that if those in government do so, they will understand their authority is not one with which they can legislate or impose whatever they want, but rather a service and sacred trust which can only be authentically exercised as a service to human freedom and dignity, and that if citizens (that is, any member of society) allow Christ to rule, we can more easily obey whomever – on our work, family, or civic life – has been set over us, as when lived properly we are not simply obeying other people, but rather Christ himself who rules us through them – as Jesus humbly did in his Passion.

Fr Josh Miechels is a priest of the Emmanuel Community for the Archdiocese of Sydney.

ADORE - An Advent Reflection

In the day-to-day reality of our lives, especially during the busyness of end-of-year activities, it is easy for us to lose sight of what we are truly preparing for during Advent and celebrating at Christmas—the Incarnation. The magnitude of this event was not lost on the shepherds and the Magi who came to adore the Child who is truly Emmanuel: God-with-us.

As Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger (Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI) wrote in God Is Near Us: The Eucharist, The Heart Of Life: "Without adoration, there can be no transformation of the world." The life of the creature must be one of adoration. This life of adoration was also not lost on our Blessed Mother who cried out in her Magnificat: "My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my saviour. ... The almighty works marvels for me. Holy is his name" (Lk 1:46–49).

Inspired by the shepherds, Magi and our Blessed Mother, this year's reflection book, Adore, provides a wonderful opportunity for us to take a quiet step out of our daily lives and refocus our attention on the Lord in adoration of what he has done for us through his Son.

Adore is an 88-page pocket-size book containing short spiritually rich, yet accessible, daily reflections from the beginning of Advent (29 November 2020) through to the Baptism of the Lord (10 January 2021).

Adore also features beautiful religious artworks from the Masters such as Ghirlandaio, Poussin, Champaigne, Botticelli, Le Brun, Fra Angelico and Rubens with enlightening "Artwork Spotlight" reflections written by the popular Monsignor Graham Schmitzer.

If you are interested to lead a group or would like a copy, for your personal Advent reflection, please drop by the Parish Office or call 9157 0999, during office hours.

We acknowledge the lifelong trauma of abuse victims, survivors and their families, the failures of the Catholic Church to protect, believe and respond justly to children and vulnerable adults, and the consequent breach of community trust.

Even though the restrictions in NSW have eased and Churches can now have up to 300 people attending, the one person per four-square metre rule still applies. This means that the capacity of our Churches remains at 80 for Sacred Heart Church, Mona Vale and 100 for Maria Regina Church, Avalon.

It is our responsibility to protect others and ourselves and stop the spread of COVID-19 in Australia.

As we move towards living COVIDSafe, it is important that you stay at home if you feel unwell. If you have cold or flu like symptoms, such as a fever, cough, sore throat, runny nose or shortness of breath, you should seek medical advice and get tested for COVID-19. You should get tested even if your symptoms are mild, and do not come to Church.

If you have a coughing episode in Church, we advise you to step out to the courtyard, or the parish centre, away from others for the moment.

We will continue to record names and contact details of those present at services along with the date and time they attend, as required by NSW health.

Broken Bay News and Catholic Weekly are available at the back of both Churches.

Everyone must also stay 1.5 metres away from other people whenever possible. Please sit only in the marked seats.

If you have been overseas or interstate in the last 14 days, or have been in contact with a confirmed case of Covid 19 in the last 14 days, have been a hotspot vicinity, or awaiting a Covid - 19 test result, as much as we would like you to be with us here in Church, we appreciate your prayers more than your presence in this situation. For the up to date information on the Covid 19 hotspots visit: www.https://www.nsw.gov.au/covid-19/latest-news-and-updates

Talk: Living your faith in today's world
Tomasz Juszczak (Director Office of Evangelisation)

This week is our final CWF collection for this year and we appreciate your support.

The November appeal highlights the spiritual need of about 21,000 Catholic students who attend State Schools across Broken Bay.

Giving to CWF supports the wonderful work of Catechists, nourishing our children and young people with solid faith education. Raising them up to be passionate young people who love Jesus Christ and His Church.

Nurturing faith in our children and young people is one of the most powerful things we can do to support our parishes. Please take time to watch the short film of Christine Jap - former student and current Catechist - who shares what SRE means to her. https://youtu.be/qs3C_P0DxVA

Support by completing the CWF envelope, scanning the QR code, or visiting www.bbcatholic.org.au/give. Please enter "Pittwater Parish" to allocate your donations to towards our parish quota.

All donations are tax deductible and contribute to our parish quota. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Thank you and God Bless!

Entrance Antiphon

Rv 5:12; 1:6

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain,
to receive power and divinity,
and wisdom and strength and honour.
To him belong glory and power for ever and ever..

First Reading

Ez 34:11-12, 15-17

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

You, my flock, I judge between sheep and sheep.

The Lord says this: I am going to look after my flock myself and keep all of it in view. As a shepherd keeps all his flock in view when he stands up in the middle of his scattered sheep, so shall I keep my sheep in view. I shall rescue them from wherever they have been scattered during the mist and darkness. I myself will pasture my sheep, I myself will show them where to rest – it is the Lord who speaks. I shall look for the lost one, bring back the stray, bandage the wounded and make the weak strong. I shall watch over the fat and healthy. I shall be a true shepherd to them.

As for you, my sheep, the Lord says this: I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 22:1-3, 5-6. R. v.1

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose. (R.)

Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit.
He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name. (R.)

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. (R.)

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. (R)

Second Reading

1 Cor 15:20-26, 28

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

He will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, so that God may be all in all.

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all men die in Adam, so all men will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in their proper order: Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, having done away with every sovereignty, authority and power. For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death. And when everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subject in his turn to the One who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all.

Second Reading

1 Cor 11:23-26

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Until the Lord comes, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim his death.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Mk 11:9-10

Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessings on the coming kingdom of our father David!
Alleluia.

Gospel

Mt 25:31-46

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

He will take his seat on his throne of glory, and he will separate men one from another.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me." Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me." And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.'

Communion Antiphon

Ps 28:10-11

The Lord sits as King for ever.
The Lord will bless his people with peace.

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

We have now come to the end of the liturgical year, the point that marks the transition from one period to another. Today we see that the kingdom of God is inclusive. Its embrace is as comprehensive as is the embrace of God. Criteria for membership are not based on obedience to the commandments or on conformity to ritual obligation, but on the bonds of love and concern.

What we do for others, we do for Christ, because Christ is identified with those in need. We very seldom see the face of the glorified Christ in the faces of the needy; it is more often the face of the disfigured Christ that is turned to us. We see his fear and his shame, his brokenness and sense of loss. As difficult as it may be to look into such eyes, it is precisely the needy with whom Christ is identified.

Having entered into the frailty of human nature, identified himself with the needy, and handed himself over to death, in the end Christ will have conquered all. It is a curious kingdom that he has won, a kingdom of the weak rather than the strong. He has turned the standards of the world upside down. He has shown that it does not take strength to ignore or to exploit the needy, but it does take strength to overcome our own selfishness in order to serve them. The kingdom that Christ hands over to God is a kingdom of love and care.
