We The Woy Woy Catholic Parish acknowledge the Traditional Custodians who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years. We acknowledge the continued deep spiritual attachment and relationship of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to this country and commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of Reconciliation.

"The Harvest is Rich"

Today we celebrate the harvest of our First Peoples and loved, our First Peoples across the world.

I was working in Brisbane. When I was ordained, I was in Brisbane. When I was ordained, I was in Brisbane. When I was ordained, I was in Brisbane.

I wanted a Pectoral design. I knew I was at the beginning of my Episcopate. I began diligently working with others who could help.

I was deeply touched by the Vestment design. I was deeply touched by the Vestment design. I was deeply touched by the Vestment design.

What amazed me was the creativity that was shown. What amazed me was the creativity that was shown. What amazed me was the creativity that was shown.

In today's Gospel, we are called to send out labourers into the vineyard. In today's Gospel, we are called to send out labourers into the vineyard.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Reading : Is 66:10-14

Thus says the LORD: Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad all you who were mourning over her! Oh, that you may succumb to her abundant breasts! For thus says the LORD: As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent. As a mother nurses her child in her lap; as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you and see this, your heart shall rejoice and your bodies flourish like grass. Your servants.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 66:1-7, 16, 20

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Reading 2: Gal 6:14-18

Brothers and sisters: May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, which has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision, but only a new creation. Peace and mercy from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. From now on, let no one make troubles for me; for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body. For the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters.

Alleluia: Col 3:15, 16

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of His message live within you.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Lk 10:1-12, 17-20

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent out two by two into every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few. So go and pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Do not take a satchel, a bag, or sandals, and do not greet anyone on the road. Whenever you enter a town, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful household is there, your peace will prosper. If not, your peace will turn to violence. Do not enter a town that does not welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in that town, and say, 'Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name.' Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

Peter's Pence Collection – 3 July 2022

On 3 July 2022, we join with many Parishes across the world in taking up the annual Peter's Pence Collection. The Peter's Pence Collection provides for the charitable works and structures of mercy identified by His Holiness, Pope Francis.

Your donations express solidarity with those most in need. With your support, the whole Church can continue – in the words of Pope Francis – "to walk, to search for, visit, meet, listen to, share with and stop at those most in need". Funds assist projects including emergency help to those in need due to natural disasters, communities impacted by COVID, war, oppression and disease. Our generosity allows the Holy Father to respond to those suffering with love and compassion.

Thank you for your generosity.

Last year, the Peter's Pence appeal in Australia was largely cancelled due to COVID-19 and your support this year is gratefully received by the Holy See. Please give generously to the Peter's Pence collection occurring at Masses on weekend of 3 July 2022. Or jump online to donate at our parish website using the reference "Peter's Pence".

Young Adults are invited to join the Catholic Youth Broken Bay team for a bush walk on Sunday, 17th July. We will be walking part of the Crosslands to Berowra Waters track, following 10:00am Mass at St Patrick's Church, Asquith. This return walk starts from the Crosslands Reserve and follows the Great North Walk along Berowra creek, a beautiful place of natural flora and fauna. The walk is relatively flat, with the final part of the hike leading to Naa Badu Lookout, offering magnificent views over Berowra as well as Sams and Calna Creeks. Bring your own snacks/lunch and water for the hike, as well as a water bottle, hat and sunscreen. Contact Jen for more information: jen.healey@bbcatholic.org.au.

CatholicCare is here to help and offers a range of services for people in need including emergency relief, financial support, homelessness and housing assistance, mental health support, counselling supports including family counselling, disability and seniors supports and more. For more information visit www.catholiccare.org.au or call 1800 324 924.
