4th Sunday of Advent/Christmas Day

Year B Cycle II

24/25 December 2023

Christmas Blessings to All!

Christmas brings the Good News of peace and hope. In Jesus Christ, the child born in the stable at Bethlehem, God has spoken definitively to all of us and all creation. God's word is: "You are loved deeply by the God of all love and mercy."

In these days of family reunions and prayer, let us receive all that the God of love wishes to offer us: Hope, peace and forgiveness. Let us then offer this love that gives everything to others.

We share love in and through our human relationships. Love isn't always a warm and cosy feeling; love is a commitment and a decision to stick by others, come what may, through thick and thin, when the going is easy and when the going gets more challenging. The love that we share in our human relationships is a reflection of the love of God, calling us to give of ourselves for others.

At Christmas, we remember that Jesus was born in poverty, in a stable among the poorest people and the farm animals. What does this mean for us today? You and I are called to look for the face of Christ in the poor, those at our own door and in places far from here. Love can look like a cup of coffee offered, a hand held, a smile shared, and a story heard. I firmly believe that, in the end, we will be judged by how we care for our poor brothers and sisters.

Mary's Ways

In this Sunday's Gospel, Luke 1:26-38, we see the story of the Annunciation, where the angel Gabriel appears to Mary to tell her that she has been chosen to bear the Son of God. This passage is often associated with the importance of Mary's faith and obedience to God's plan, but it also speaks to the importance of family and community.

Mary's immediate response to the angel's message is to visit her cousin Elizabeth, who is also pregnant with John the Baptist. This visit shows Mary's desire to be with family during this important time in her life, and it also highlights the importance of family support and love in times of joy and uncertainty.

The Christmas season reminds us all of the importance of family and community in our own lives. This time of year can be filled with joy and celebration, but it can also be a time of stress and pressure. By surrounding ourselves with loved ones and supporting one another, we can find strength and comfort in the midst of the challenges that life brings.

Let us remember Mary's example of seeking out the support of family and community during this time of anticipation and celebration. Let us also reflect on the ways in which we can be a source of love and support for those around us, whether they are family, friends, or neighbours.

May we all be blessed with the love and support of our families and communities during this Christmas season and always. Wishing all our parishioners and visitors to our parish a very Merry Christmas.

He is the Radiant Light of God's Glory

The traditional belief is that Jesus was born at night, a belief that contains powerful symbolism. It is certainly true that Jesus came into a world that was engulfed in spiritual darkness. Caesar ruled with force - the basis of his government. Slavery was the primary source of labour. Violence was the primary mode of entertainment. Coming into this darkened world, Jesus' birth was like a rising sun. St John wrote: "The real light which gives light to every person was coming into the world" (Jn 1:9). There are striking parallels with the everyday event of the rising sun and the climactic event of Christmas day. For one thing, it marked the start of something new. Jesus came to speak of God as a wise, compassionate, and loving Father. By word and deed, Jesus proclaimed this revolutionary concept of God, and little by little, it took root.

His coming also brought a new understanding of the human person. He started showing respect for the lowest and least. He spent time with outcasts. He proclaimed the worth of every person, and slowly this restructured society.

One other characteristic of the sun rising that symbolises the birth of Christ is its power. Once it starts, there's no stopping it. Jesus' capacity to fashion victory out of defeat has persisted through the ages. In our darkened world, his way of living seems forgotten and rejected. But always, when the smoke clears, he is still here. The things he represents may be deferred, but not defeated. His coming was, and is, like a new sunrise.

Farewell Tân - Welcome Rosan!

We bid farewell to our seminarian Tân Nguyen on Christmas day. It has been great to have Tân with us this year to get his pastoral experience. We wish him well as he goes for a holiday in Vietnam and then back to the seminary at Homebush for his final two years of study.

We are delighted that Bishop Anthony has appointed another seminarian to us, Rosan Mathew, to start in the parish on the 12th of January. Rosan has finished his studies and he previously lived with me at Lower North Shore parish for a year. Fr Brian

A Message from Tân

Dear parishioners of The Entrance parish,
As Christmas is approaching close, and my appointed time here at our parish is coming to end, I just want to take this opportunity to express my great gratitude and appreciation to you all, especially to Fr Brian, Fr Joshi, the staff. Living and spending a year of my seminarian formation here at The Entrance has brought me much joy, affirmed me in my vocation, and helped me to grow in my love for God and his holy people. I have learned a lot and had a wonderful experience here. I thank God and thank you all for that. Please continue to pray for me as I am going back to the seminary in Homebush to complete my study and formation. May the Child Jesus bless all of you and your families abundantly this Christmas and the New Year.

Seminarian Tân Nguyen
