Pope Francis Declares 2026 as a Jubilee of St Francis for the 800th anniversary of his birth

St Francis of Assisi was born into wealth and privilege, yet his life was radically transformed after a series of encounters that drew him toward Christ and the poor. One defining moment came when he embraced and kissed a leper on the road outside Assisi — an act that shattered his fear and revealed Christ present in the suffering. Soon after, while praying before the crucifix at San Damiano, Francis heard Christ call him to “rebuild my Church.” Taking these words literally at first, he repaired ruined chapels with his own hands before realising God was calling him to renew the Church through a life of humility, poverty, and peace. He publicly renounced his inheritance before the Bishop of Assisi, choosing instead to depend entirely on God. Through these concrete acts, Francis became an instrument of God’s peace, restoring dignity to the outcast and calling hearts back to God.

Francis lived this peace boldly and practically in the wider world. During the Fifth Crusade, he crossed enemy lines unarmed to meet Sultan al-Kamil in Egypt, seeking dialogue rather than violence and witnessing to Christ through respect and gentleness. He reconciled feuding families and towns, often walking barefoot through villages preaching peace and penance. His love for creation — preaching to the birds, calling the sun and moon “brother” and “sister,” and composing the Cantic of the Creatures — flowed from his belief that all life is held together in God’s peace. Even in suffering, marked by illness and the wounds of the stigmata, Francis responded with joy and forgiveness. His life remains a powerful invitation to become instruments of God’s peace through concrete acts of love, reconciliation, and humble service.

St Francis did not witness through power or force, but through a life lived simply, joyfully, and courageously for others — becoming a living sign of holiness and peace in a divided world. His example calls us to be a witness not only in words, but in actions: choosing kindness over conflict, inclusion over exclusion, and care for creation and one another.

Catholic Faith in Malaysia, Singapore - Context and Development

Our approach of Lunar New Year is a great opportunity to learn about the Faith in various Asian countries!

The history of Malaysia and Singapore are closely linked, including the development of Catholic faith in a context of multi-ethnic, multi-lingual, multi-religious environment.

The Malay Archipelago was situated prominently on the sea routes between China and India, Europe, and Africa. Traders from China, India frequented its ports from first century AD, while traders from the Middle East came from the 13th century onward. Coastal city-states were part of a trade network encompassing the Indochinese Peninsula, Malay Archipelago, and Indonesian Archipelago.

Hindu-Buddhism from India arrived in the Malay Archipelago as early as third century BC and flourished in Malay kingdoms in the Malaya Peninsula for more than a Millenium. Later, various maritime empires from the neighbouring regions (e.g., Sumatra, Siam) competed for power over the Malay Peninsula, which weakened these kingdoms. Islam (introduced by Indian and Middle East traders) then took root, influencing court elites, converting Malay kings to establish sultanates.

In 1404, the first official trade envoy from Ming China arrived in Malacca. Later envoys followed with fleets, including the famed Admiral Zheng He. Malaka sought protection from Ming China against attacks from Siam and Java. Chinese immigrants came and settled in Malaka.

The mid-15th century to mid-16th century were a period of fierce competitions among European maritime powers to secure sea routes to China and obtain commodities for trade. In the Malay Archipelago, the competing European powers were initially Portuguese, then Dutch (for a brief period) and finally, British gained control of the Malay Archipelago.

In each wave of European conquest, Catholic clergy followed to serve the European administrators and settlers, and later to evangelise the local population. These missionary efforts bore fruit among ethnic Chinese and Indians, and Indigenous peoples. Muslims were prohibited by their religious laws from conversion to another faith.

Missionary Endeavours Malaka

After the Portuguese conquest of Malaka, St Francis Xavier made 5 visits (1545-1552) to Malaka, establishing schools and spreading the faith. Malaka was the base for his apostolic journey to other parts of Asia. Missionary efforts continued in the 16th century, gaining thousands of converts among ethnic Chinese and Indians. This early momentum was set back when the Dutch took over Malaka, placing severe restrictions on Catholic activities.

Come and See!

Singapore

It is probable that Portuguese missionaries came to Singapore from Malaka (during its Portuguese period). It did not take root, however. The Paris Foreign Missions Society (MEP) sent a priest on a reconnaissance journey and landed in Singapore (1821). He reported only a tiny number of Catholics there with no resident priest.

The MEP mission thenceforth played a key role to establish faith on the island. They built a church, Church of the Good Shepherd (1847), and later, a school for boys run by religious brothers and a school for girls run by religious sisters.

Malay Peninsula

MEP religious sisters and brothers sailed from Singapore to found Christian schools in major towns on the Malay Peninsula (1852). Orphanages started later.

North Borneo (Sabah and Sarawak)

MEP established Mill Hill Missionaries in Sabah (1882). They focused on serving Chinese and Indigenous communities. MEP also came to Sarawak at invitation of its ruler, to help establish peace and stability among the Indigenous peoples. MEP lay the groundwork for a flourishing Catholic community in North Borneo, through education and social engagement.

Success and Challenges

The Church has navigated persecution, wars, and political shifts while nurturing faith, education, and community, with remarkable resilience and adaptability.

The Church continues to manage sensitive issues in a multi-lingual, multi-ethnic, multi-religious society; externally with inter-religious dialogue, cooperative social engagement; internally with ministries, events, and catechism to serve the diverse groups.

New challenges relate to the rising number of foreign nationals in the work force and expat professionals from all over the world. Among them are Catholics who come to local parishes for worship. This challenge also presents an opportunity for a parish to consider how to integrate them into local parish life, and how to reach out and serve them.

Ultimately, all who put their trust in God and do what is right will rejoice in God's kingdom.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Zeph 2: 3; 3: 12-13

A reading from the prophet Zephaniah

In your midst I will leave a humble and a lowly people.

Seek the Lord

all you, the humble of the earth, who obey his commands.

Seek integrity, seek humility:

you may perhaps find shelter on the day of the anger of the Lord.

In your midst I will leave a humble and lowly people, and those who are left in Israel will seek refuge in the name of the Lord.

They will do no wrong,

will tell no lies;

and the perjured tongue will no longer be found in their mouths.

But they will be able to graze and rest with no one to disturb them.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 145: 7-10

R. Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs! (or Alleluia!)

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, / who is just to those who are oppressed. / It is he who gives bread to the hungry, / the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R.

2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, / who raises up those who are bowed down, / the Lord, who protects the stranger / and upholds the widow and orphan. R.

3. It is the Lord who loves the just / but thwarts the path of the wicked. / The Lord will reign for ever, / Zion's God, from age to age. R.

SECOND READING

1 Cor 1: 26-31

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

God has chosen what is weak by human reckoning.

Take yourselves, brothers, at the time when you were called: how many of you were wise in the ordinary sense of the word, how many were influential people, or came from noble families? No, it was to shame the wise that God chose what is foolish by human reckoning, and to shame what is strong that he chose what is weak by human reckoning; those whom the world thinks common and contemptible are the ones that God has chosen – those who are nothing at all to show up those who are everything. The human race has nothing to boast about to God, but you, God has made members of Christ Jesus and by God's doing he has become our wisdom, and our virtue, and our holiness, and our freedom. As scripture says: if anyone wants to boast, let him boast about the Lord.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt 5: 12

Alleluia, alleluia!

Rejoice and be glad:

your reward will be great in heaven.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mt 5:1-12

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

Happy are the poor in spirit.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Happy the gentle:

they shall have the earth for their heritage.

Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

‘Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

TRUE BLESSEDNESS

What is discipleship about? This becomes the focus of Matthew's Gospel over the next few Sundays as we turn to Jesus' first major moment of teaching, what we know as the 'Sermon on the Mount'. Jesus, like Moses in the Old Testament, gathers with his disciples on a mountain. They surround him and listen to his teaching.
He teaches them about blessedness in eight 'Beatitudes'. Each Beatitude begins with 'Blessed are those...' and then names those who are blessed by God.

Some translations unhelpfully have 'Happy' are those...' There is a theological distinction between being 'blessed' and 'happy'. Being happy relies on one's self-referential internal disposition. The focus of 'blessedness' is different. It is God. The Greek (makrios) is about God's action to those who are without status (‘poor in spirit’), know their own humble status (‘gentle’), seek comfort amidst life's sadness (‘mourn’), are passionate for justice (‘hunger and thirst for what is right’), show compassion to others (‘merciful’), are thoughtfully genuine and authentic (‘pure of heart’), seek to bring about peace where there is division (‘peacemakers’) and who suffer for their conviction to act justly with integrity (‘persecuted in the cause of right’).

Those named as blessed have an ultimate openness to God in all life's experiences.
God will respond to them, will bless them and will allow the Kingdom (rather 'Kin-dom') to be revealed in them. The Beatitudes are framed with the promise,
'the kin-dom of God is theirs'. A final Beatitude is tacked on to the original eight. It acknowledges the suffering and persecution now experienced by Matthew's community. A lingering contemplation of any of these Beatitudes can remind us how much we are blessed by God now.

Father Robert now welcomes thousands of pilgrims to Medjugorje every year from all around the world – including our own pilgrims from across the Broken Bay Diocese. Father Robert leads the Oasis of Peace community in Medjugorje, and their chapel offers Adoration around the clock, 24 hours a day. But as Father Robert will tell us, Adoration is not about the hours. It's about opening our hearts to the Lord and letting Him do something within us and for us – rather than just assuming that it's all about us doing something for him. It's His work within us that will truly change our lives.

7pm, Monday 23 February: Please join us to meet Father Robert and hear him speak in the Magnificat Room at Our Lady of Dolours in Kirk Street Chatswood.

Beach Rosary – 7pm, Friday 20 February: You are also invited to join Father Robert and Father Marek for a rosary along the beach promenade at Manly Beach, followed by gelato and Compline. Meet outside St Mary's Church, 6 Raglan Street Manly at 7pm.

Our Lady of Dolours Parish Book Club

You are warmly invited to come along to Our Lady of Dolours Parish Book Club. We meet once a month, and the first meeting for 2026 is at 6.45pm on Wednesday 4 March. It's a great opportunity to meet other parishioners, and to share and deepen our understanding of Catholic spirituality under the guidance of Father David.

This year we will focus on St. John Henry Newman who is the most recent Doctor of the Universal Church - declared by Pope Leo XIV on All Saints Day in November 2025. Newman is the 38th Doctor of the Church, and sits alongside Augustine, Aquinas and Thérèse of Lisieux. His religious story is one of immense interior struggle as he converted from Anglicanism to Catholicism. Those struggles continued long after his conversion, as he was viewed with suspicion for some time by both Anglicans and Catholics. He was a prolific writer with remarkable foresight – and many of his theological ideas were subsequently taken up by Vatican II, particularly in relation to the role of the laity in the Church. While he died in 1890, his writings remain as relevant today as ever.

As we delve into the spirituality of Newman, we will read Newman: The Heart of Holiness by Roderick Strange. It is available to purchase online (including via e-book and audiobook, whichever version you prefer). We will develop a more detailed plan for the year at our first meeting: 6.45pm on Wednesday 4 March in the Magnificat Room.

BRINGING THE LIGHT OF CHRIST to the city

Nothing eases loneliness like sharing a coffee together

We are bringing a coffee and chat once a week to Community Housing residents in Artarmon.

Can you volunteer to join a roster one Tuesday a month, 10.30-12.00? All that's required is a warm heart, an unjudging attitude and 1 ½ hours per month.

If you would like to be part of a team to bring some laughter and a listening ear to lonely residents please put your name on the sign-up sheet at the church entrance or email :
jokaraolis1@bigpond.com

In order to fashion a society that adheres first and foremost to respect for the dignity of each person, whatever their ethnicity, culture or language, we need to begin with the unborn. We need to reject the belief system that says the unborn are valuable only to the extent that they meet my desires and expectations.
We need to respect the dignity of motherhood, the family and life itself.

Your support for the Dignity Pro-Life group will help us promote an appreciation of the culture of life and the dignity of each and every person. Please join us in person and adheres to Christian values by visiting

Ornella Byak is the granddaughter of our beloved parishioner Sandra Byak - and at only 26 years old, Ornella has already established a school in Timor-Leste. Ornella will be visiting us in the last week of February to tell us more about this wonderful work.

Ornella Byak founded BETTER Timor to respond to the urgent need for quality education in Timor-Leste. It is one of our closest neighbours, yet many children and young people lack basic learning opportunities. Ornella has established a school in the regional area of Same, Manufahi, where she lives full-time and leads local teams delivering free, high-quality schooling and English education. The school now serves around 200 students with 21+ local staff, and it achieves over 90% attendance (compared to a national average near 36%). The school provides thousands of meals to students each year, since Timor-Leste has one of the highest rates of severe child malnutrition in the world.
Ornella has also opened the Bakhita English Institute to provide youth and adults with English skills that will equip them for employment, mobility, and new opportunities.

Come along and hear Ornella tell her story:

- Daytime: Monday 23 February at 1.00pm (after the 12.30pm mass) in the Magnificat Room
- Evening: Tuesday 24 February at 7.00pm in the Magnificat Room

And you can read more about Ornella's work in Timor-Leste at <http://bettertimor.org/>
