From Fr David

Dear friends,

I am very happy to share the outcomes of our recent May count of Mass Attendance. Our average over the month of May was 1438. In November 2024 it was 1353 and in May 2024 it was 1163. This is very encouraging for us all.

A huge thank you to everyone for the generosity towards our diocesan Pastoral Works Fund Appeal. We are now just over $1500 from our target of $73,000. If we can dig a little deeper over the next week or two we will have fulfilled our annual quota which will be most appreciated. Again, thank you!

As a result of the receipt of a NSW Government Safer Communities grant we have been able to install security cameras on our parish site for the protection of our visitors and staff. These are very unobtrusive but provide us coverage of all the main areas of our church and adjoining carpark and office.

We have noticed an increasing unauthorized use of the Pius College 'carpark' of a Sunday—ie people other than parishioners using the facility for parking. To dissuade this, please note that as from next Sunday 8 June we will keep the Ferguson Lane gate closed for the time being. Please use the Kirk St Entrance. Do remember that if you find your car parked with the Kirk St entrance closed, the gate does open automatically on approach Cameras.

Thank you for your interest in joining our Parish Pilgrimage to the Diocesan Shrines of Hope on 14 June 2025. As our bus allocation has now reached full capacity, we are unfortunately unable to offer additional seats on the bus. However, more are very welcome to still join us by travelling in your own car or arranging carpooling with others.

Date: Saturday, 14 June 2025

Time: 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Locations: Diocesan Shrines of Hope - Manly, Gosford, Waitara

For those driving, we will send you the final itinerary and Meeting points and times

Contact details for coordination on the day. If you would like assistance in arranging carpooling or have any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Deacon Kevin Hale, having been with us for the past seven years, has now come to the discernment to retire fully from his parish engagement with us. As we appreciate, Deacon Kevin's formal appointment ceased some time ago. However, he has continued to be engaged in a number of ways, including the coordination of one of our RCIA programs. Kevin has made a most remarkable contribution to our Parish over many years. Though we will be leaving us, we assure him that he will always be a welcome figure at Chatswood and we do hope that he will come from time to time to various parish events. We will farewell Deacon Kevin with a Mass at 6.30pm and Supper on Wednesday 18 June.

Altar flowers are donated by Theresa, Josef, Johana, Maria and Martina Widjaja in loving memory of Michael Widjaja Tjong (2nd anniversary).

Our Lady's Shrine flowers are donated by Pauline Larkins in loving memory of Frances Mary Fisher (2nd anniversary).

The following is the step-by-step guideline for the *Broken Bay Pilgrim Passports

1. Jubilee Passports can be stamped at each Shrine and the Cathedral to acknowledge visit and time of prayer within. A special downloadable Broken Bay Jubilee Passport for Kids for children to use when visiting the Shrines with their families/caregivers.
2. Once all three Shrines and Cathedral, with respective stamps, have been visited a Pilgrim's passport is "complete".
3. Pilgrims then have their passports verified at their own Parish office.
4. Each Parish will notify Mission Broken Bay with the names of those pilgrims who have completed their passports so that they may receive a special commemorative certificate signed by Bishop Anthony. This is a wonderful opportunity to highlight the Jubilee by presenting these certificates at the end of a Sunday Mass.

A live Tally on the www.bbjubilee.com.au website will add a further joyful essence, noting how many pilgrims have completed the Jubilee Shrines of Hope Pilgrimage and which parishes they are from.

Jubilee of Families, Children, Grandparents and the Elderly 30 May – 1 June

This Jubilee celebrates the importance of the family unit, recognising the unique roles played by children and grandparents; and also honours the elderly members of our communities, some of whom are without family members of their own.

For the Church, that throughout the world she may be able to proclaim and bear strong witness to the beauty of God's plan for the family and to value it as a gift and a vocation.

We pray to the Lord.

REFRESHING OUR BEAUTIFUL CHURCH

MEET OUR ARCHITECTS AND ENGINEERS

At our Parish-in-Council on 5 April 2025, we began a conversation about what matters most in the future of our church space. Now, we're invited to take the next steps together. These sessions are a chance to hear from the people helping us explore what's possible - and to understand the practical considerations behind any changes. Following our evenings of awareness building and information gathering we will have the opportunity to participate further in the journey through a survey process. We hope you'll be part of the journey!

Rodney Jacome from Engtec Consulting explores options for effective climate control in our church.	Electrical engineer Omar Ukas from Ukas Engineering outlines what's needed for upgraded lighting, audio-visual, and power systems.

Last Thursday evening a number of us were able to gather with our two consultant church architects, Miguel Paredes and John O'Brien. Miguel shared with us the link between beauty and evangelisation, and John shared with us the principles of designing church architecture using his experience especially at Mt Hagan in PNG. The Seminar enabled us to continue to consider how we might progress with our own journey to renew our beautiful church in its 2nd century.

Next we meet our consultant engineers! Please note that this opportunity will now be combined to the one occasion of Tuesday 1 July in Harrington Hall.

OUR SUNDAY CELEBRATION

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD / C

1 JUNE 2025

THE LORD WILL RETURN. The Ascension of Jesus, whereby he is glorified at the Father's right hand and made 'ruler of everything', does not signal his departure from our midst. It points rather to a new mode of presence that will endure 'until the end of the world'. In the meantime, it is our vocation, as his Church, to reveal him.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Acts 1:11

Men of Galilee, why gaze in wonder at the heavens? This Jesus whom you saw ascending into heaven will return as you saw him go, alleluia.

GREETING

P. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

P. Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

P. Lord Jesus, you are the image of the unseen God: Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

P. You are the first born of all creation: Christ, have mercy.

R. Christ, have mercy.

P. You are the head of the body, the Church: Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

R. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, / and on earth peace to people of good will. / We praise you, / we bless you, / we adore you, / we glorify you, / we give you thanks for your great glory, / Lord God, heavenly King, / O God, almighty Father. / Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, / Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, / you take away the sins of the world, / have mercy on us; / you take away the sins of the world, / receive our prayer; / you are seated at the right hand of the Father, / have mercy on us. / For you alone are the Holy One, / you alone are the Lord, / you alone are the Most High, / Jesus Christ, / with the Holy Spirit, / in the glory of God the Father. / Amen.

COLLECT

P. Gladden us with holy joys, almighty God, and make us rejoice with devout thanksgiving, for the Ascension of Christ your Son is our exaltation, and, where the Head has gone before in glory, the Body is called to follow in hope. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 1:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Why are you standing here looking into the sky? Jesus has been taken into heaven.

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is' he had said 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom of Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.'

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 46:2-3, 6-9. R. v. 6

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord. (or Alleluia!)

1. All peoples, clap your hands, / cry to God with shouts of joy! / For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, / great king over all the earth. R.

2. God goes up with shouts of joy; / the Lord goes up with trumpet blast. / Sing praise for God, sing praise, / sing praise to our king, sing praise. R.

3. God is king of all the earth. / Sing praise with all your skill. / God is king over the nations; / God reigns on his holy throne. R.

SECOND READING

Eph 1:17-23

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

He made Jesus to sit at his right hand in heaven.

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named, not only in this age, but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet, and made him as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt 28:19, 20

Alleluia, alleluia! Go and teach all people my gospel. I am with you always, until the end of the world. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Lk 24:46-53

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

While blessing them, he was taken to heaven.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'You see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this.

'And now I am sending down to you what the Father has promised. Stay in the city then, until you are clothed with the power from on high.' Then he took them out as far as the outskirts of Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. Now as he blessed them, he withdrew from them and was carried up to heaven. They worshipped him and then went back to Jerusalem full of joy; and they were continually in the Temple praising God.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH APOSTLES' CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

After the priest raises the paten with the bread and prays, and then the chalice, we respond to each prayer:

R. Blessed be God for ever.

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

AN ETERNAL BLESSING

During Easter our focus has been on John's Gospel. Today we come to the final chapter of Luke and its last scene. Jesus has gathered with his disciples on the day of Easter, dispelled their fears, encouraged them on mission to be his witnesses—thus setting up Luke's second volume, the Acts of the Apostles and Pentecost with its gift of the Spirit—and now brings them to Jerusalem's outskirts, to Bethany.

Here, as the Gospel comes to its conclusion, Jesus blesses his disciples (thus completing the priestly blessing which Zechariah was unable to do in the Gospel's beginning) and 'withdraws' from them as he is carried up to heaven. The passive voice of the verb 'carried up' indicates that this is God's act and brings Jesus into the heavenly realm of God's presence. The visual imagery which Luke uses here is not intended as a literal description of a divine elevator that brings Jesus into the heavenly realm. Rather, it is a theology which reminds Luke's audience that Jesus is ultimately and eternally with God and continues, in a priestly gesture, to bless his disciples.

It also identifies that definitive moment when Jesus' earthly presence ceases, but not his divine presence. This presence continues and inspires the disciples' future mission which will unfold in Acts. His blessing continues among us today as we, too, await the coming of his Spirit at our Pentecost, celebrated next Sunday.

Fr Chris Alar, a very articulate speaker and Marian priest never had devotion to Our Lady until a testimony from another priest changed him: <https://youtu.be/EPkDQUUyYKM?si=yY0dqphLT5R4s8MY> (16 mins)

T K Coleman's powerful rosary testimony - did not believe in the rosary and said he will never become Catholic but he now says 4 sets (20 decades) of the rosary everyday.

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible

Many Catholics want to read the Bible but get bogged down by the long stretches that seem not to make sense or get lost among the sea of Old Testament names and places. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible, an eight-part Bible study, helps you uncover the story woven throughout Scripture, so you can get the “big picture” of the Bible and understand what it’s all about. Aided by a unique color-coded Bible Timeline™ Chart that arranges the key people, places, and events of the Bible in chronological order, Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you pick up the Bible with confidence and understand how you fit into God’s plan.

Our Lady of Dolours will begin the Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible study on Tuesday 20th May 2025 (7 pm to 9 pm – doors open at 6.45 pm) in the Magnificat Room, 94 Archer Street, Chatswood. Participants will meet every week for 7 weeks to hear Charbel Raish from Parousia Media present, followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship.

Vinnes April Report

OLOS's Vinnies received 8 calls for help in April of which 2 were new. We were grateful that the numbers were down (20 in March) and problems fairly straightforward. Five needed food assistance, one had washing machine problems, one had need of white-goods to move into new public housing whilst another is struggling with DV and living in unaffordable digs (Catholic Care is also helping this lady). Over $1000 was expended on assistance.

Please note that our Winter Appeal will be on 19/20 July. We rely on Appeals and Poor Box donations to maintain our ability to help. While we used to be self supporting, in recent years with increasing calls for help OLOS Vinnies as been supposed by Vinnies elsewhere. Our latest budget indicates $15000 income against $32000 expenditure. We hope for your continuing support in the Appeal.

Our little group is also short on numbers and still seeking new members, particularly males. Anyone interested could contact El, El.Herlianto@vinnies.org.au or John 0439783956.

On Sunday 25th May, some friends of the local Vinnies and their children, even little Princess (a friendly Chihuahua) joined our parish Community BBQ to have a hot meal and enjoy the company of each other and parishioners alike. It was a joyous occasion for all.

Since the Christmas Appeal, over 40 households (about 80 people) in the Chatswood area have been helped by the local Vinnies.

Dear Father David

On behalf of the Board and Members of the Australia Timor-Leste Advancement Society (ATLAS) we would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the wonderful support we received in presenting our Trivia Event on May 4, 2025, at Our Lady of Dolours Parish, Chatswood, in your Harrington Hall

Seeing the parish community come together to support the people of Timor-Leste through education and job creation, reinforced the words "Your Friends Do Not Forget You".

The day raised $4,107.30, which will support our work in Timor-Leste.

Again, thank you for the support we received May God Bless you and your parish community

Yours sincerely

JOIN THE FIGHT TO PROTECT LIFE!

"....That night, atrocities were being committed by civilised Germans all over Leipzig, all over the country. Nearly every Jewish home and business in my city was vandalised, burned or otherwise destroyed, as were our synagogues. As were our people . . .; When I think of those Germans relishing our pain, I want to ask them, 'Have you got a soul? Have you got a heart?' It was madness, in the true sense of the word – otherwise civilised people lost all ability to tell right from wrong. They committed terrible atrocities, and worse, they enjoyed it. They thought they were doing the right thing. And even those who could not fool themselves that we Jews were the enemy did nothing to stop the mob. If enough people had stood up then, on Kristallnacht, and said, 'Enough! What are you doing? What is wrong with you?' then the course of history would have been different. But they did not. They were scared. They were weak".

By Eddie Jaku, Auschwitz survivor The Happiest Man on Earth (Page 20 chapter 2)

Today in our own time and in our own society unborn children are killed by abortion Our parish pro-life group has been formed to stand up against this affliction in our society. We can help turn this situation around if a sufficient number of persons are willing to stand up and exercise the life and freedom they enjoy Please ring Michael/Cecilia 0466961240 if you are interested or leave your details with the parish office.

CatholicCare's Commitment to Reconciliation – Bridging Now to Next

As we celebrate National Reconciliation Week (27 May – 3 June), CatholicCare reaffirms its dedication to reconciliation with the theme Bridging Now to Next. This theme invites all Australians to reflect on our shared histories and work towards a united future. Judith Murray, Aboriginal Community Engagement Manager at CatholicCare, highlights the significance of this year's theme, noting that it reflects the ongoing connection between past, present, and future. She emphasises the importance of reflecting on past actions, building on achievements, and strengthening approaches for the future.

In line with this commitment, CatholicCare has launched a cultural awareness training video, now mandatory for all new staff. This initiative aims to provide foundational learning about the history, experiences, and cultural richness of Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander peoples, fostering understanding in service delivery. Additionally, CatholicCare recently hosted a 'Listen & Learn Yarn' workshop where Aboriginal leaders and Elders shared their stories and insights with staff. CatholicCare's Children's Services teams are also actively engaged in reconciliation efforts. Recently, children from the OSHC program at St Kieran's in Manly Vale participated in a collaborative art project inspired by the sounds and spirit of the didgeridoo.

This National Reconciliation Week, we honour the voices of Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander peoples and continue our journey of Bridging Now to Next.
