From Fr David

Dear friends,

As you will read in the following pages we had a marvelous evening for young people in our church on Friday 1 August with a joyous Praise and Worship event. A very special thank you to Sienna Klarica, our Youth Ministry Officer and to Hamish Lavery and their fabulous team for making this special Jubilee event as memorable. Despite the inclement weather we had over 150 young people from all over our Diocese join us.

This coming Friday is the Solemnity of the Assumption. It is a special day in which we celebrate the destiny that lies ahead for each of us, as realized already in Mary, the young woman of Nazareth, the mother of our Saviour. We will have a number of Masses for this Solemnity: at 7.00am, 9.00am, 10.30am (school students), 12.30pm and at 7.00pm. Please feel welcome to be present at any of these occasions in honour of Our Lady.

This weekend our Indonesian cultural community introduces a new time for their monthly Mass, shifting from 7pm on the third Sunday of the month, to 7pm on the second Saturday of the month. The community will anticipate the celebration of the Mass at 7pm with a Rosary commencing at 6.40pm.

Over this weekend we conduct the annual CatholicCare Broken Bay appeal for Homelessness. Homelessness is becoming an increasing crisis around us, even though it is not always visible. Our support of this appeal directly assists those seeking assistance and referral. Please feel welcome to take an envelope home and to return it in the coming weeks.

As we can see along Archer Street, the refurbishment of Chatswood Chase has now entered its final stages. We have been advised that, until October, from Monday there will be no pedestrian access on the Eastern side of Archer Street, from Mills Lane up until the car park ramp accessing Chatswood Chase that sits on the boundary of Mercy College. Access to and from Mercy College will remain unaffected, and pedestrian access will be directed to the Western side of Archer for the duration of works. The works will be supported by extensive signage, traffic management, and barriers, to ensure pedestrian safety throughout.

We have some wonderful community opportunities before us in the coming months, including our inaugural hosting of the Angelus Film Festival from Saturday 23 August and then over the following three Saturday evenings. We hope this will be a great family occasion, so do spread the word! Also be sure to join us for the Chatswood Fair on Saturday 6 September! This year, for the first time, our parish will be an entry in the street parade, and for the first time, too, our stalls will include presentation and representation from Our Lady of Dolours Primary School, Mercy College and Pius X College. So, this will be a wonderful display of our Chatswood Catholic community.

We acknowledge the Cammeraygal People of the Eora Nation, custodians of the land on which our parish stands and we commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of national reconciliation.

As a Parish of Catholic Faith we are committed to ensuring always a community of safety and care for all especially for children, and those who are vulnerable.

Our Altar flowers for this week are donated by our Indonesian Community.

Flowers at Our Lady's Shrine are donated by Heng Chan in loving memory of Wah Chew Chan.

Join us on Sunday 17 August at 4.00pm
Magnificat Meeting Room for a special opportunity to meet our sculptor for our external Marian grotto.

Linda will share the work she has done for other churches and Catholic centres and hear our own aspirations for the development of our own Marian figure

Celebrating the Jubilee and Recent Visitors to our Shrine of Hope

Last Sunday, 3 August we enjoyed a special Jubilee Mass, co-inciding with the Jubilee of Youth in Rome.

Students from Pius X College and Mercy College came together, under the direction of our Parish Director of Music, Titus Grenyer, to form a wonderful student orchestra, some 30 strong.

A very special thank you to all who make this a memorable event.

Our orchestra will come together again on Sunday 7 September at our 5.30pm Mass as we celebrate the canonisations.

Last Tuesday 5 August a group of Home-School students from across our Diocese made a special pilgrimage to our church and to venerate the relic of Carlo Acutis.

Fr Hien made them very welcome and spoke to them of the significance of Carlo Acutis for young people today.

Our Jubilee Praise and Worship Night 1 August

Our church transformed last Friday 1 August for a memorable evening of Praise and Worship

Our Jubilee Praise and Worship Night 1 August

An enormous word of thanks to Sienna Klarica, our Youth Ministry Officer, to Hamish Lavery our indefatigable sound engineer, to our sensational band under the leadership of PJ Almendras, and to our many volunteers for all their work to make the event as successful. We hope to conduct such evenings at least twice each year going forward.

REACHING OUT WITH LOVE

On Sunday 29 June, we came together as a parish community for our seventh Parish-in-Council meeting.

The afternoon, like our previous six Parish-in-Councils, featured lunch, thought-provoking presentations, table conversations and the opportunity for each and every one of our diverse voices to be heard.

The theme for PiC VII was Reaching out with Love, our fourth area of parish mission focus, discerning how “together we will compassionately and confidently connect with people, wherever they are in their faith journey, offering a safe, joy-filled place to embrace Jesus as their saviour.”

We listened, reflected and then together guided by the Holy Spirit, discerned what actions we will each take to share what we love about our faith with others and the actions we will each take to invite others to our parish?

The adopted actions we will now take to reach out with love are..

Praying

- I will pray that everyone may discover and embrace Jesus as their saviour
- I will pray for opportunities to share our faith with others and the confidence for when these moments arise
- I will share my prayers which were answered with others

Leading

- I will lead a good example
- I will visibly live out my faith in public e.g., carrying my rosary bracelet, saying grace before meals, praising God verbally in conversations, sharing online/social media
- I will make the time to walk with others in their faith journey, building genuine and deep relationships with people

Sharing

- I will take opportunities to share my personal faith experience in everyday conversation with family and friends
- I will share about my faith and our parish with work and other colleagues e.g., ‘what did you do over the weekend?’
- I will share with others what brings me closer to God, how my faith strengthens me, how the Holy Spirit has helped me through difficult times, how I’m involved in the parish and what it means to me

Inviting

- I will encourage and invite family, friends and colleagues to come to Mass
- I will promote and invite family, friends and colleagues to experience parish activities and ministries e.g., monthly community lunch, choir, Mother’s Playgroup, Atrium, Men Alive, Alpha, Praise Fest, Taizé prayer nights, zoom rosary, PEW, Community Action, Our Lady’s Ladies, Capstone, RCIA, Seniors Morning Tea, Zoom Bible Study Groups etc

Send your Holy Spirit upon us, O Lord, that we may be holy. In your mercy, guard and strengthen us to be disciples who witness to the Good News of Jesus. Call forth from our community of the Church generous and loving shepherds after your own heart. May they be zealous preachers of the Word; faithful teachers of the Truth; and devoted servants at the Altar. Fill their hearts with love for you and your creation; open their minds to a lifetime of learning; and make them humble servants of your holy people. For you, O God, are kind and merciful, and to you we offer glory, in your holy Church, now and forever. Amen.

In the end, it's not going to matter how many breaths you took, but how many moments took your breath away.

Our Growing in Faith Ministry Circle

Every year we celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus at Easter. But why? What makes Jesus so special that we remember him year after year – for 2025 years?

Come and explore this question and the other big questions about life, faith, God and meaning, as we journey in Alpha together in 2025.

Alpha is an introduction to Christian faith which assumes nothing. If you've never read the Bible, never prayed, never been to church before, then Alpha is for you.

But it's also for you if you've been coming to church for a long time – maybe your whole life – but you've still got big questions.

In each Alpha session we have a meal together, watch a video and have a conversation about what we've watched. We ask questions and together work out the answers.

We'll be offering Alpha once a week on Mondays commencing on Monday, 4 August 2025 – we meet at 7:00pm (for dinner)

We'd love you to come! Please feel free to bring a friend who would also like to know more about Jesus!

Let's explore life, faith and meaning together in 2025!

Registration is essential, for catering purposes.

OUR SUNDAY CELEBRATION

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / C

10 AUGUST 2025

KEEP AWAKE TILL HE COMES. The early Christians applied this teaching of Jesus to their expectation of his second coming. More generally speaking, today's Gospel parables should encourage us to be morally vigilant at all times and ever ready to encounter, in the midst of daily life, the 'God of surprises'. Paul has similar advice for us: 'Keep alert, stand firm in your faith' (1 Cor 16:13).

INTRODUCTORY RITES

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON cf. Ps 73:20, 19, 22, 23
Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever.
Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

GREETING

P. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

P. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

R. And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

P. Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

All: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking the breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

R. Amen.

V. Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

V. Christ, have mercy.

R. Christ, have mercy.

V. Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, / and on earth peace to people of good will. / We praise you, / we bless you, / we adore you, / we glorify you, / we give you thanks for your great glory, / Lord God, heavenly King, /
O God, almighty Father. / Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, / Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, / you take away the sins of the world, / have mercy on us; / you take away the sins of the world, / receive our prayer; / you are seated at the right hand of the Father, / have mercy on us. / For you alone are the Holy One, / you alone are the Lord, / you alone are the Most High, / Jesus Christ, / with the Holy Spirit, / in the glory of God the Father. /

Amen.

COLLECT

P. Almighty ever-living God, whom, taught by the Holy Spirit, we dare to call our Father, bring, we pray, to perfection in our hearts the spirit of adoption as your sons and daughters, that we may merit to enter into the inheritance which you have promised.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Wis 18:6-9

A reading from the book of Wisdom
Just as you struck our enemies, you made us glorious by calling us to you.

That night had been foretold to our ancestors, so that, once they saw what kind of oaths they had put their trust in they would joyfully take courage. This was the expectation of your people, the saving of the virtuous and the ruin of their enemies; for by the same act with which you took vengeance on our foes you made us glorious by calling us to you.
The devout children of worthy men offered sacrifice in secret and this divine pact they struck with one accord: that the saints would share the same blessings and dangers alike; and forthwith they had begun to chant the hymns of the fathers.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESP PSALM Ps 32:1, 12, 18-20, 22. R. v. 12

R. Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

1. Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just; / for praise is fitting for loyal hearts. /
They are happy, whose God is the Lord, /
the people he has chosen as his own. R.

2. The Lord looks on those who revere him, / on those who hope in his love, / to rescue their souls from death, / to keep them alive in famine. R.

3. Our soul is waiting for the Lord. / The Lord is our help and our shield. / May your love be upon us, O Lord, / as we place all our hope in you. R.

SECOND READING

Heb 11:1-2, 8-12

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

We will look for the city designed and built by God.
Only faith can guarantee the blessings that we hope for, or prove the existence of the realities that at present remain unseen. It was for faith that our ancestors were commended.

It was by faith that Abraham obeyed the call to set out for a country that was the inheritance given to him and his descendants, and that he set out without knowing where he was going. By faith he arrived, as a foreigner, in the Promised Land, and lived there as if in a strange country, with Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.
They lived there in tents while he looked forward to a city founded, designed and built by God.

It was equally by faith that Sarah, in spite of being past the age, was made able to conceive, because she believed that he who had made the promise would be faithful to it. Because of this, there came from one man, and one who was already as good as dead himself, more descendants than could be counted, as many as the stars of heaven or the grains of sand on the seashore.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

Longer form Heb 11:1-2, 8-19

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Mt 24:42,44

Alleluia, alleluia!
Be watchful and ready:
you know not when the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Lk 12:32-40

P. The Lord be with you.
R. And with your spirit.
P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.
R. Glory to you, O Lord.
See that you are prepared.
Jesus said to his disciples:

‘See that you are dressed for action and have your lamps lit. Be like men waiting for their master to return from the wedding feast, ready to open the door as soon as he comes and knocks. Happy those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. I tell you solemnly, he will put on an apron, sit them down at table and wait on them. It may be in the second watch he comes, or in the third, but happy those servants if he finds them ready. You may be quite sure of this, that if the householder had known at what hour the burglar would come, he would not have let anyone break through the wall of his house. You too must stand ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
Longer form Lk 12:32-48

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH APOSTLES' CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. Amen.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

BE ALERT

Luke's audience consists of people who are wealthy and those who are poorer, from the lower rung of the social ladder. The evangelist's focus is frequently on those of comfortable and wealthy status. This is presumed in today's reading. This Gospel passage follows immediately from last Sunday's. Luke continues to reflect on the themes of wealth and the disciple's attentiveness to God. Jesus reminds Luke's audience that God wants to offer the Kingdom to all. It is not restrictive. But there is one barrier for its reception: wealth and greed—a theme noted last Sunday. Disciples are encouraged to be generous and respond tangibly to the needs of the poor, encouragement that is at the heart of Catholic social teaching. A second theme emerges: besides generosity, disciples must also remember Jesus' Parousia, his coming at the end of time. This perspective is not to be forgotten, though perhaps some in the Lukan household had done so. The example are householders being alert to the master's eventual arrival after a wedding or to a burglar who might smash through the house's mud brick walls. Alertness is thus key. It will surface again later in the Gospel when the disciples are told in Gethsemane to 'keep awake.' Luke promises that such existential alertness will be substantially rewarded.

For ourselves, too, today's Gospel is a spiritually healthy reminder. As we gather around the Lord's Table, we are encouraged to an alertness for the Lord's coming at the end of time. The acclamation after the words of Institution in the Eucharistic Prayer echoes this.

- A warm, friendly, empathetic disposition

We were also delighted to welcome a new family to the group.

They shared how impressed they were by the warm, inclusive atmosphere and the sense of community.

In our busy world, more and more women are experiencing a desire for deep connection, engaging conversation, and personal and spiritual nourishment. This evening is an opportunity for women to connect, reflect, discuss, and create meaningful friendships while deepening their relationship with God.

CABRINI

Based on a true story A biopic on Mother Cabrini "Patroness of immigrants" and the first American Saint. Set in the late 19th century New York and Italy, Mother Cabrini an inspirational and indomitable woman of faith was sent to the new world to care for the homeless Italian migrant children and the destitute. Challenged along the way by people in high office, Mother Cabrini always kept her focus on God and the mission to care for the poor.

THE KING OF KINGS

Renowned story teller Charles Dickens finds it challenging to bond with his imaginative son, Walter amidst his busy career. After Walter disrupts one of Charles' readings, he decides to share the story of Jesus Christ with him, hoping to bridge the gap between them. As Charles Dickens narrates the story, Walter becomes captivated, experiencing the events of Jesus' life vividly. Through the journey of Jesus, Walter and his father's relationship deepens, culminating in a bond of love forged through storytelling

CARLO ACUTIS: ROADMAP TO REALITY

SEPTEMBER
7PM

This film explores the life lived by Carlo Acutis and the lessons he offers young people regarding the challenges of the digital world. The documentary blends live action, animation and documentary-style interviews with Acutis' family, friends, tech experts and scholars to tackle urgent questions about artificial intelligence and the technological world we live in. One of the themes of the film is that Acutis was online to lead people offline to the Eucharist, back to real encounters and he's a great role model for us.

PIER GIORGIO FRASSATI: TO THE TOP

SEPTEMBER

Filmed in Italy, this docudrama chronicles the life and spirituality of Pier Giorgio Frassati, an Italian activist who put his Catholic beliefs into practice to help the poor and downtrodden in his hometown of Turin. The film uses the aspect of his mountain climbing to shed light on his holiness and humanity. A Saint with appeal for the young, Pier Giorgio loved to go with friends in the mountains, to play jokes among them, to laugh and to have a good time together. But at the centre of everything was faith, was prayer, was love for God.

Our Nurturing our Relationships Ministry Circle

At our Seniors Morning last week we were delighted to welcome Michelle and Jesse from CatholicCare. Michelle delivered a thoughtful and engaging session, sharing practical strategies to help our seniors stay focused and care for their well-being as they age. Her insights were warmly received and sparked meaningful conversations among the group. It was a truly enriching experience, and we're grateful to CatholicCare for their continued support and presence in our community.

We also had the joy of celebrating Joanne from Gregory & Carr on her birthday, which added a lovely touch of festivity to the morning.

POPE LEO XIV'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR AUGUST

FOR MUTUAL COEXISTENCE

Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

Our Caring for our World Ministry Circle

THANK YOU!

Thank you for your very generous donations of clothing and toys for our refugee family. We are able to provide all that they need thanks to your kindness. We look forward to welcoming them next Wednesday when their plane puts down after an exhausting journey from Trinidad of nearly 2 days. You have been incredible!

THANK YOU SO MUCH

Sandra Byak recently visited Timor Leste where she and her family were welcomed to the school founded by her grand daughter Ornella Byak. Ornella is the founder of the Bakhita School of Excellence in Same, which is the first school outside of Timor's capital, Dili, to teach English from the Foundation year – providing an international standard of education to rural children. Ornella lives in Same and devotes her life to empowering Timorese people through education and opportunity.

Photo shows a very proud Sandra with daughter Vanessa cutting the ribbon to launch the Bakhita English Institute – an adjunct of the school offering evening English classes to adults and youth in the local community
“English is a key that opens doors – to employment, further education, and a global conversation many Timorese feel locked out of,” said Ornella

Here at Our Lady of Dolours Parish we are supporting two Timorese girls as they undertake their university studies. We hold a strong belief that education is the most effective way we can help Timor Leste in its growth and development. There are fund raising activities you can be a part of. Watch this space!
