Mark 4:35-41

Fr David Ranson
PP VG
Parish Priest

A very special thank you to all those who were able to contribute to our recent annual Jesuit Refugee Services food drive. Our parish through the Community Action made a very significant and much-needed contribution of food and toiletries to the JRS Food Bank at Parramatta through the generosity of many parishioners and the labour of a dedicated team. This Saturday, concluding Refugee Week with its theme Finding Freedom, our Freedom Feast will enable two young Afghan boys and their mother to make a new life in Sydney following the traumatic death of their father at the hands of the Taliban. It is gratifying that all the tables and available seats have been sold, ensuring that our target will be met.

Again, our thanks, too, to those who enabled our bilingual celebration of Eucharist last weekend in English and Italian, especially Katya Polemeni-Leung and students from Mercy College, St Pius X, and Loreto Normanhurst. It is wonderful to be able to celebrate our multicultural diversity in this way. We look forward to celebrating one of our Sunday Masses in September with the Spanish language too!

As we prepare for the Jubilee Year in 2025, Pope Francis invites us this year to reflect on the importance of prayer and to renew our life of prayer. To assist us in this, I have created 8 video podcasts with the help of our Diocesan Communications team. The first meditation explored the role of desire in our prayer, the second reflected on our inmost self as the place from which prayer arises. And now the third reflects on Jesus as the Master of our prayer. The 16 minute reflection can be watched by scanning the QR code to the right, or by going to <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nkB4dgFLIDs>. I do hope it is helpful.

This weekend, our Parish Vocations Ministry will speak to us about our initiative to foster vocations to the priestly life. Priesthood is essential to our Church. All of us have a responsibility to pray for and to encourage vocations. Let us wonder if there be someone in our family or amongst whom we know that we would invite to consider this extraordinary possibility. Perhaps our invitation may be the very means by which the Lord speaks to them! Our diocese's Serra Association, which expressly prays for Vocations, is meeting in our parish this Thursday beginning with Mass at 6pm. Everyone is most welcome to join.

Our community would love to pray for you. If you have an intention you would like to be included in this bulletin e-mail

In today's Gospel of Mark, we see where Jesus calms a storm that threatens to engulf the boat carrying Him and His disciples. This passage, Mark 4:35-41, resonates deeply when compared with the story of Jonah 1:4-7 in the Old Testament. Both accounts depict a powerful storm, frightened sailors, and a figure asleep amidst the chaos, offering us rich insights into our faith and God's presence in our lives. Chronologically, between us and Jonah is Jesus.

In both Mark and Jonah, a sudden and violent storm arises, endangering the lives of those aboard the vessels. The experienced sailors are overwhelmed by fear. In Jonah, the sailors cry out to their gods, casting lots to find the cause of their misfortune, ultimately discovering Jonah asleep in the hull. Similarly, in Mark, the disciples, terrified by the raging sea, find Jesus sleeping on a cushion in the stern. Their fear echoes our own when we face life's difficult moments, wondering how we will survive the storm.

The disciples' question to Jesus, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" is deeply human. It reflects the desperation and doubt that often accompany our most trying times. For Mark's early Christian community, this question resonated with their own experiences of persecution and suffering. They, too, must have wondered where God was in their trials.

This question remains relevant today when people struggle with personal or communal storms. Whether we face illness, loss, injustice, or are upset by a global crisis, the cry, "Where is God?" is common. It is a question born out of fear and a longing for assurance that we are not abandoned. What happens next in Mark's Gospel can comfort us that, although we do not know God's ways, He cares for us deeply.

The apostles' amazement at Jesus' command over the wind and the sea highlights His divine authority. When He rebukes the storm, and it becomes calm, they are left in awe, asking, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?" This miracle is a display of power and a testament to Jesus' identity and His relationship with creation. It reassures us that no matter how uncontrollable our circumstances may seem, Jesus holds ultimate authority.

Jesus calming the storm offers immense reassurance. It tells us that even when Jesus seems asleep or distant, He is present and capable of bringing peace. In our own lives, storms may be any challenge, such as emotional turmoil, financial struggles, relational conflicts, or spiritual doubts. Just as Jesus brought calm to the physical storm, He can bring peace to our hearts and minds amid life's chaos, offering us a sense of security and comfort.

Jesus' questions to His disciples, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" invite us to reflect on our faith journey. Fear is a natural human response, but Jesus calls us to move beyond fear to trust in His presence and power. Faith does not eliminate storms from our lives, but it assures us that we are not alone. It encourages us to trust in God's timing and His plans, even when we cannot see the outcome.

As we navigate our own storms, let us remember that Jesus is with us, even if it feels like He is asleep. His power is greater than any force we face, and His love for us is unwavering. Let us find comfort in His presence, courage in our faith, and peace in the knowledge that He cares deeply for each of us. We can face our fears through faith and find the calm only He can provide.

NATIVITY OF ST JOHN THE BAPTIST

FEAST DAY 24 JUNE

- The birth of John the Baptist is detailed in the Gospel of Luke (Luke 1:5-25, 57-66). His parents, Zechariah and Elizabeth, were righteous but childless in their old age. Zechariah, a priest, was visited by the angel Gabriel while serving in the temple, who announced that Elizabeth would bear a son and they were to name him John.
- Zechariah doubted Gabriel's message and was rendered mute until John's birth. Upon writing "His name is John" on a tablet, Zechariah's speech was restored, and he praised God.
- Various cultures celebrate this solemnity with unique traditions. In parts of Spain and Latin America, the feast is marked with bonfires and fireworks. In some regions, it coincides with midsummer festivals, incorporating elements of light and fire.
- In the liturgical calendar, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist is a Solemnity, which is the highest rank of liturgical feast.
- John's role was to call people to repentance and to baptise them as a sign of their purification. He declared, "Behold, the Lamb of God," upon seeing Jesus, acknowledging Jesus' messianic role.
- St John the Baptist is the patron saint of many things, including converts, epileptics, tailors, and those dealing with seizures or spasms. He is also the patron saint of numerous cities worldwide.

HELP

There are several areas in our community that could use some assistance. Would you be able to help?

Sacred Linen Ministry:

We need 2 wonderful people who would be willing to join the Sacred Church Linen ministry. It is for once a month to wash & iron the linen (not including the Altar cloth).

WANTED

This ministry is vital because it is how all our sacred linen is cared for and prepared to be able to use at Mass.

If you are able to help in any way please ring Maureen on 0428 402 528 Maureen Playdon

Readers:

Can you give your time to minister at Mass by being a reader who proclaims the Word of God? We are looking for readers for:

- 1st Sundays at 7:30am Mass
- 4th Sundays 9:00am and 5:30pm
- 2 readers for 2 Fridays every month at 9:00am
- 2 readers for 2 Fridays every month at 12:30pm

Training provided if you are new to this space. All welcome! Email chatswoodoffice@bbcatholic.org.au to know more or help out.

Vinnies - Particularly Help from Males:

The Chatswood St Vincent de Paul group is vital to supporting the vulnerable people in our surrounding areas. Particularly as the cost of living rises, inevitably, more and more people are needing help.

Vinnies supports the community by providing food, funds for odd events, advising and providing a listening ear to the lonely, advocating and supporting those with medical limitations - the work differs.

All are welcome to join and in particular we are asking men to consider joining to help. Sometimes we need help in physically taxing work, and other times the presence of males helps to bring safety and stability to visits.

If you can give any time, or would like to chat more, please contact El.Herlianto@vinnies.org.au or John on 0439783956.

Charity is the cement which binds communities to God and persons to one another.

- St Vincent de Paul

Do you see that big wooden arch canopy at the front of our church? That's called a Baldacchino and it's used to emphasise the sacredness of the sanctuary, and altar by protecting the tabernacle. This is because the Eucharist is the most precious thing in the church and to our faith - and you always protect what is precious. It's been speculated that the concept of a baldacchino dates back to ancient civilizations when canopies covered the thrones of royalty. The word 'baldacchino' is rooted in the name "Baldacco," an old Italian name for Baghdad, a city known for its luxurious textiles - reflecting the early use of rich fabrics in canopy structures and probably the first baldacchinos.

SAINT IRENAEUS

FEAST DAY 28 JUNE

- Saint Irenaeus was born around 130 AD in Smyrna (modern-day Izmir, Turkey) and was a disciple of Polycarp, who was in turn a disciple of the Apostle John. This connection placed Irenaeus close to the teachings of the early apostles.
- Irenaeus became the Bishop of Lugdunum (modern-day Lyon, France) around 177 AD. He played a crucial role in spreading Christianity in the region and defending it against various heresies, particularly Gnosticism.
- Irenaeus is remembered as a peacemaker, particularly during the Quartodeciman controversy, which dealt with the proper date to celebrate Easter. He urged the church leaders to maintain unity and peace despite their differences.
- Although details about his death are not definitively known, tradition holds that Irenaeus died as a martyr around 202 AD during the reign of Emperor Septimius Severus.
- In 2022, Pope Francis declared Irenaeus a Doctor of the Church, a title given to saints whose writings have significantly contributed to theology and doctrine, giving him the title "Doctor of Unity."

CALMING THE STORM. When a storm blew up on the sea of Galilee, Jesus' disciples feared that their boat would be swamped by the waves. But Jesus, who was with them, calmed the sea. At times we can feel that we are being swamped by various troubles. But Jesus is with us to protect us. Like the apostle Paul we are overwhelmed, not by storms and troubles, but by the love of God made visible in Christ Jesus.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Job 38: 1, 8-11

A reading from the book of Job.

Here I have set the boundaries of the sea.

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors
when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross

and made it fast with a bolted gate?

Come thus far, I said, and no farther:

here your proud waves shall break.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESP PSALM

Ps 106: 23-26, 28-31. R. v. 1

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

or

R. Alleluia!

1. Some sailed to the sea in ships / to trade on the mighty waters. / These men have seen the Lord's deeds, / the wonders he does in the deep. R.
2. For he spoke; he summoned the gale, / tossing the waves of the sea / up to heaven and back into the deep; / their soul melted away in their distress. R.
3. Then they cried to the Lord in their need / and he rescued them from their distress. / He stilled the storm to a whisper: / all the waves of the sea were hushed. R.
4. They rejoiced because of the calm / and he led them to the haven they desired. /
Let them thank the Lord for his love, /
the wonders he does for men. R.

SECOND READING

2 Cor 5: 14-17

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

All things are made new.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh.
Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Lk 7: 16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mk 4: 35-41

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH

APOSTLES' CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. Amen.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

WHO THEN IS THIS?

God speaks out of the storm (tempest) to Job in the first reading asking him whether he was there when God created the world. The imagery of the sea, waves and wind will reappear in our Gospel with the storm on the sea. Following on from last week and the use of parables, Jesus invites the disciples to go across to the other side. This body of water, called a sea, is a lake and subject to squalls and storms at short notice. But let's not get too literal. Note 'they took him in the boat, just as he was'. They left the crowd behind and there were other boats with him.

Quickly the drama of the storm erupts. This great storm has waves swamping the boat. In the midst of this 'he was in the stern asleep on the cushion'. The disciples address him as 'Teacher' asking whether he cares that they are perishing? Waking, Jesus rebukes the wind and says to the sea 'Quiet now, be calm'. The wind ceases and there is calm. Jesus' words transform the great storm to a great calm. Jesus' questions to those in the boat, 'Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?', are not for them only, but a challenge to us now. Let us hear the words of Paul to the Corinthians: 'if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; behold, everything has become new.'

Exploring the faith

 How can we be so confident in the Resurrection?
 What takes place on receiving Sacraments?
 How do we fit in the universal Church?
 What really is the Good News?
 Why do we need prayer?*

FREEDOM FEAST SOLD OUT!

With thanks to wonderful support from the parish especially from the different groups and ministries, every table and seat at the Freedom Feast on Saturday has sold! We hope for a wonderful night ahead.

Our apologies to anyone who may have missed out.

耶穌卻在船尾依枕而睡。他們叫醒他，給他說：「師傅！我們要喪亡了，你不管嗎？」耶穌醒來，叱責了風，並向海說：「不要作聲，平定了罷！」風就停止了，遂大為平靜。耶穌對他們說：「為什麼你們這樣膽怯？你們怎麼還沒有信德呢？」 馬爾谷福音4:38-40

Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" Mark 4: 38-40

Thank you to the Pagunuran family for hosting Our Lady's Statue this week!

St Anthony's Feast Day celebration on Sunday was beautiful! Here are pieces of bread that are symbols of St Anthony as fed the hungry and is also attributed to the revival of a baker's child. St Anthony's Bread is a way to share food with our loved ones and those in need, to remember the loving heart of St Anthony.

Above: Thank you for your generosity of items for JRS! And thank you to all the volunteers who made this happen!

Left: Check out our beautiful new processional banner! Now you'll never miss us in a crowd!

Volunteer of the week - little Lincoln! Lincoln has begun welcoming people to Mass as part of our mission to be a welcoming place for everyone. Proof you're never too young to be part of a ministry.

SOLEMNITY
29 JUNE

- St. Peter is considered the first Pope by the Roman Catholic Church. He was given the "keys of the kingdom of heaven" by Jesus, symbolizing his role in leading the Church (Matthew 16:18-19).
- According to tradition, Peter was crucified upside down in Rome during the reign of Emperor Nero, as he felt unworthy to die in the same manner as Jesus.
- St. Paul was born as Saul in Tarsus (modern-day Turkey). He was a Roman citizen and a Pharisee.

- Saul converted to Christianity after a dramatic encounter with Jesus on the road to Damascus, where he was struck blind and then healed by Ananias.
- Peter and Paul had complementary missions: Peter primarily focused on preaching to Jews, while Paul focused on Gentiles. Together, they symbolized the universality of the Christian message.
- Despite their different backgrounds and occasional disagreements (e.g., the Council of Jerusalem), Peter and Paul worked together to build and strengthen the Church. Their collaboration and reconciliation highlight the unity in diversity within the Christian community.
- Both apostles were martyred in Rome, and re considered pillars of the Church. Peter's leadership and Paul's theological insights and missionary zeal were crucial for the spread and establishment of Christianity.

We celebrate their sacrifice and legacy. Saints Peter & Paul, pray for us!

FOOD DRIVE COMPLETED!

On Tuesday a convoy left Our Lady of Dolours with cars loaded to the hilt with all the food donations our parish has contributed to the Jesuit Refugee Service at Parramatta. They welcomed us with open arms as their food supplies had run very low and they were having to divide up bags of rice, sugar and tea into smaller quantities to have enough for each family who came. They showed us their store rooms of empty shelves and said that they have 146 families who rely on them for their essentials in addition to about 300 more who come in times of need, mostly when they lose their job. It's hard for refugees to get secure jobs, they told us, because of their visa status. We were surprised to learn that the individual toilet packs some of you donated from hotels and plane flights are very useful for the homeless refugees who come since they can't use whole bottles of shampoo and toothpaste when they are sleeping rough. Refugees become homeless often when they lose their jobs because they then can't keep up their rent.

One thing the Food Bank is very short of at present is disposable razors.

Although we have finished the Food Drive, if you like to drop a packet of razors into the parish office, Olivia will take them out to JRS when she next goes out that way. We are enormously grateful to everyone who donated to the food drive. Some of you were especially generous. Very great thanks also to Caroline Lim, Gillian Hawkins, Ray and Jenny Moran and Fr Anselm who did the heavy lifting of food boxes and bags into their cars and drove to Parramatta and back to make the delivery. A wonderful way to commemorate Refugee Week this week.

3 Simple Ways We Can All

Contribute to Our Church Being Welcoming

 Smile! Don't be shy to share a smile and say hello to everyone you walk past. There's ALOT to be happy about, as Pope Francis reminds us: "The Christian is a man or woman of joy...a joy that is born of having encountered Jesus."

 Join the welcoming ministry! Get in touch with the parish office and sign up to welcome people before Mass by giving them a bulletin and being a friendly face at our doors. If you don't see any welcomers at a door near you, grab a stack of bulletins and post yourself up near that door - every bit helps, and every welcome counts.

 Introduce yourself - stick around after Mass and say hello to someone new to you and learn their name. When our names are known, we feel known, and seen - and in a world where people can slide by, unknown, unseen, and uncared for, being known and noticed is a precious and important thing.

WELCOMING: A MINISTRY FOR US ALL

As our Parish-in-Council gatherings have progressed, it's become clear that an important issue for a lot of people in our community is to ensure that we are church that is warm and welcoming to everyone who enters our doors - what a beautiful reflection this is on what our community values!

In our church community, all of us plays a vital role in creating an atmosphere of warmth and acceptance. Being a welcomer is not just a task for a designated few; it is a calling for all of us! When each person extends a genuine welcome, we embody the love of Christ and reflect his teachings in our actions.
