Reflection on the Gospel this Sunday

Luke 10:38–42

Martha and Mary are disciples of Jesus, and each is trying, in her own way, to be a faithful follower. Martha roots her discipleship in the hospitality of Abraham (see Genesis 18:1–10). She prepares food and tends to the various needs of her guest. Mary also roots her discipleship in the hospitality of Abraham, but she is attentive to the person and listens to Jesus's words. If we examine the hospitality of Abraham, both dimensions are present: taking time to listen to the visitors as well as preparing for their physical needs.

We encounter Martha after she has welcomed Jesus into her home. She is overwhelmed with the tasks at hand, which distracts her from the real spirit of hospitality. She has created a situation that leaves her feeling that she has too much to do and that not enough people are helping her. In reality, the author may indeed be trying to tell us that there are just too many things to do. We should not try to read into the story that Martha is a type A personality, someone who is neurotically obsessed to do more than what is expected and to do everything perfectly. Martha's comments, however, give us a glimpse into who she is: "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself?" (10:40). Can you hear yourself saying these same words about your sister or brother? It is an honest human response to feeling overwhelmed. Martha is actually accusing her sister of abandoning her.

Martha further presses Jesus in an attempt to force him to respond: "Tell her [Mary] then to help me" (10:40). Martha has already concluded that Jesus will agree with her and that he will instruct Mary to help. But Jesus does not respond in the way Martha anticipates. First, Jesus comforts Martha in her frustration: "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things" (10:41). Then, Jesus helps Martha focus on the essential element of hospitality, which is to pay attention to the guest. His message is that this is all that is necessary, that the other things are good but optional. Jesus affirms Mary's understanding of hospitality when he says: "Mary has chosen the better part" (10:42). From the time Jesus came into the house, Mary has sat at Jesus's side, giving him her full attention by listening to his words. This gesture shows us that Mary has received Jesus as he is—a prophet—for the prophet is defined by his word. Mary understands that hospitality goes beyond just feeding one's guests, whereas Martha seems limited to domestic tasks. Mary receives Jesus in loving attentiveness, which Jesus affirms. Jesus indicates that this is a higher form of welcome or hospitality.

From Fr Marek

Dear friends, It has already been 8 months since I joined you in this parish. It has been a great time of discovering its beauty and diversity. I have had a chance to meet and get more familiar with many groups and with parishioners. Although, I might not remember your name (cause I do have ... hm ... how do they call it???) – I am very grateful for all discussions with you. With no doubt I can say I know this parish much better, as I know many of you now.

With all the good things happening here and hundreds of people involved in shaping this parish life I have noticed also some challenges that I would like to focus more on in the future.

It won't be surprising when I say that we are missing young parishioners at our gatherings. With the things that the world has to offer, with the massive discouragement from social media – you don't need to be against – in fact you don't need even to be indifferent to not join us. I know that it isn't easy to keep to your faith and it's so convenient to flow with the current.

From Fr Marek cont'd

You might even like sometimes to come, but what the others would say might keep you out.

We respect your freedom. God respects your freedom. In fact – He is the one who gave you freedom. He has given you much more than this. No one knows better than Him what good is in you. He knows – because He placed it there. That's why He is so important when in your growth you are trying to find who you are? Pope John Paul II said: "You can't understand man without God."

To keep your faith you just need a few people who have the courage to do the same. People, who see faith not as restrictions to their freedom, but a wonderful adventure in discovering God and with Him themselves. We do have in our parish those young people. And we invite you to join them.

Cornerstone, Keystone, and Capstone are 3 groups for young people in our parish. They are run by our youth leaders – wonderful people, who each day at Uni or workplace are living among those who think differently, who flow with the current, and yet they preserve the passion for life with God.

You are invited to join them in the youth group that fits to your age. Here is the schedule:

SCHOOL TERM 3			SCHOOL TERM 4
July	August	September	October	November	December
24 th	14 th and 28 th	11 th	23 rd	13 th and 27 th	11 th

Cornerstone and Keystone starting at 10am and Capstone at 12pm. You can find out more in a bulletin or just talking to me.

And before going any further I would like to say thank you to the parents of those young people – for bringing your children for the meetings. It might be a burden for you. Sometimes it might ruin your schedule – yet you choose to do so – because you know the value of faith in your children's life.

And I would like to encourage those parents, who are thinking yet of allowing their children to join one of our youth groups – do not hesitate. You invest in your children's future by sending them to good schools, to some sports or arts trainings – and that's great. Investing in your child's faith is investing in your child's eternity.

I also have a great concern for another group of people in our parish. They are less fortunate.

Mostly in advanced age, but sometimes they might also be young. People, who need sacramental care, but sometimes just someone to talk to. You know already, that I am talking about the housebound.

Since I came to the parish I have visited all housebound on the list I have received. Some of them a few times. But I know that there are more out there, who might be too shy to ask for a visit or just don't know that they can. And this is the part where I am going to need your help. I would like to ask you to talk to your family members, friends, neighbours or friend of your neighbors and find out whether they would like to have a visit from a priest who will come with sacraments or just prayer. Or maybe they just need someone to talk to. Sometime it doesn't take much to help others, to be another Samaritan.

And talking about it – that is my other call – for those who would like to join me in this ministry. You don't need to be an Extraordinary Communion Minister to visit someone who would like to have a conversation. I believe, there are some people, who yet active are lacking friendly discussions. It would be great to help both groups.

You can report the housebound or your readiness to help them by emailing me on: marek.woldan@bbcatholic.org.au or just talking to me or our parish secretary Nicole.

SENIORS' GET TOGETHER

We would like to thank Brendan Tertini, from our Parish Council, for joining us last week to bring us up to date with the Church in the City project. It was a very informative presentation.

Requests for Mass Intentions

It is a privilege for one of our priests to be able to offer Mass for a special intention, especially at the time someone has died or on the occasion of their anniversary. We welcome such requests. It is important to note, however, that a priest can only receive one intention per Mass. Therefore, it may not be possible to have a Mass offered on a specific day and at a particular time, given that the priest may already have allocated an intention for the Mass. Do be assured that if a Mass cannot be offered on a specific occasion it will be offered by a priest at the first available opportunity. Notwithstanding, if you would like a Mass for a specific purpose at a particular time, please contact a priest directly to seek to arrange this. All emails are on the back page of this bulletin.

Altar Flower Signup 2022

If you would like to reserve a date for Altar flowers, please contact Nicole in the Parish Office on 9410 9020 or nicole.gorman@bbcatholic.org.au. Altar flower arrangements can be in memory of a loved one, or in honor of a special occasion; birthdays, anniversaries, baptisms, marriages, etc.. The suggested donation for flower memorials is $100. Volunteers will then beautifully and simply arrange the flowers for Sunday.

Please submit your donation at least one week prior to the date you would like to dedicate the flowers. This will give the parish office time to ensure your dedication is in the weekly bulletin.
