A Prayer for Australia Day

Loving God,
Creator of all peoples and nations,
on this Australia Day we pause before you with grateful hearts and honest spirits.
We thank you for the ancient land on which we live,
for the First Nations peoples who have cared for it across countless generations, and for all who have come seeking freedom, safety, and a future of hope.
We praise you for the rich tapestry of cultures, languages, and traditions that now shape our common life.

From many stories you have woven one people,
and in our diversity you reveal the beauty of your creation.

Teach us to cherish difference not as a threat,
but as a gift that deepens our humanity and our faith.

In these uncertain times,
when our world is marked by conflict, fear, and division,
we place our nation in your hands.

Heal the wounds of violence and injustice,
soften hearts hardened by suspicion,
and turn us again toward the ways of peace.

Bless those who lead us in public life:
grant them wisdom, integrity, and courage,
that they may serve not their own interests
but the common good of all.

Strengthen those who are weary:
the anxious, the grieving, the displaced,
the lonely, and the poor.
May we never grow indifferent to suffering, near or far, but recognise in every person
the face of your beloved Son.

Lord Jesus, Prince of Peace, teach us how to listen before we judge,
to welcome before we exclude,
and to build bridges where others build walls.

Spirit of God,
renew this land with your justice and compassion.

Make us a people of reconciliation,
a community of courage,
and a nation shaped not by fear
but by hope.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Australia Day Mass on Monday 26 January at 10.00am

We acknowledge the Cammeraygal People of the Eora Nation, custodians of the land on which our parish stands and we commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of national reconciliation.

As a Parish of Catholic Faith we are committed to ensuring always a community of safety and care for all, especially for children, and those who are vulnerable.

Catholic Faith in Malaysia, Singapore - Context and Development

Our approach of Lunar New Year is a great opportunity to learn about the Faith in various Asian countries!

The history of Malaysia and Singapore are closely linked, including the development of Catholic faith in a context of multi-ethnic, multi-lingual, multi-religious environment.

The Malay Archipelago was situated prominently on the sea routes between China and India, Europe, and Africa. Traders from China, India frequented its ports from first century AD, while traders from the Middle East came from the 13th century onward. Coastal city-states were part of a trade network encompassing the Indochinese Peninsula, Malay Archipelago, and Indonesian Archipelago.

Hindu-Buddhism from India arrived in the Malay Archipelago as early as third century BC and flourished in Malay kingdoms in the Malaya Peninsula for more than a Millenium. Later, various maritime empires from the neighbouring regions (e.g., Sumatra, Siam) competed for power over the Malay Peninsula, which weakened these kingdoms. Islam (introduced by Indian and Middle East traders) then took root, influencing court elites, converting Malay kings to establish sultanates.

In 1404, the first official trade envoy from Ming China arrived in Malacca. Later envoys followed with fleets, including the famed Admiral Zheng He. Malaka sought protection from Ming China against attacks from Siam and Java. Chinese immigrants came and settled in Malaka.

The mid-15th century to mid-16th century were a period of fierce competitions among European maritime powers to secure sea routes to China and obtain commodities for trade. In the Malay Archipelago, the competing European powers were initially Portuguese, then Dutch (for a brief period) and finally, British gained control of the Malay Archipelago.

In each wave of European conquest, Catholic clergy followed to serve the European administrators and settlers, and later to evangelise the local population. These missionary efforts bore fruit among ethnic Chinese and Indians, and Indigenous peoples. Muslims were prohibited by their religious laws from conversion to another faith.

Missionary Endeavours Malaka

After the Portuguese conquest of Malaka, St Francis Xavier made 5 visits (1545-1552) to Malaka, establishing schools and spreading the faith. Malaka was the base for his apostolic journey to other parts of Asia. Missionary efforts continued in the 16th century, gaining thousands of converts among ethnic Chinese and Indians. This early momentum was set back when the Dutch took over Malaka, placing severe restrictions on Catholic activities.

Come and See!

Singapore

It is probable that Portuguese missionaries came to Singapore from Malaka (during its Portuguese period). It did not take root, however. The Paris Foreign Missions Society (MEP) sent a priest on a reconnaissance journey and landed in Singapore (1821). He reported only a tiny number of Catholics there with no resident priest.

The MEP mission thenceforth played a key role to establish faith on the island. They built a church, Church of the Good Shepherd (1847), and later, a school for boys run by religious brothers and a school for girls run by religious sisters.

Malay Peninsula

MEP religious sisters and brothers sailed from Singapore to found Christian schools in major towns on the Malay Peninsula (1852). Orphanages started later.

North Borneo (Sabah and Sarawak)

MEP established Mill Hill Missionaries in Sabah (1882). They focused on serving Chinese and Indigenous communities. MEP also came to Sarawak at invitation of its ruler, to help establish peace and stability among the Indigenous peoples. MEP lay the groundwork for a flourishing Catholic community in North Borneo, through education and social engagement.

Success and Challenges

The Church has navigated persecution, wars, and political shifts while nurturing faith, education, and community, with remarkable resilience and adaptability.

The Church continues to manage sensitive issues in a multi-lingual, multi-ethnic, multi-religious society; externally with inter-religious dialogue, cooperative social engagement; internally with ministries, events, and catechism to serve the diverse groups.

New challenges relate to the rising number of foreign nationals in the work force and expat professionals from all over the world. Among them are Catholics who come to local parishes for worship. This challenge also presents an opportunity for a parish to consider how to integrate them into local parish life, and how to reach out and serve them.

OUR SUNDAY CELEBRATION

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / A

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isa 8:23-9:3

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

In the Galilean country, the people have seen a great light.

In days past the Lord humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in days to come he will confer glory on the Way of the Sea on the far side of Jordan, province of the nations.

The people that walked in darkness has seen a great light; on those who live in a land of deep shadow a light has shone.

You have made their gladness greater; you have made their joy increase; they rejoice in your presence as men rejoice at harvest time, as men are happy when they are dividing the spoils.

For the yoke that was weighing on him, the bar across his shoulders, the rod of his oppressor, these you break as on the day of Midian.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESP PSALM

Ps 26:1, 4, 13-14. R.v.1

R. The Lord is my light and my salvation.

1. The Lord is my light and my salvation; / whom shall I fear? / The Lord is the stronghold of my life; / before whom shall I shrink? R.

2. There is one thing I ask of the Lord, / for this I long, / to live in the house of the Lord, / all the days of my life, / to savour the sweetness of the Lord, / to behold his temple. R.

3. I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness / in the land of the living. / Hope in him, hold firm and take heart. / Hope in the Lord! R.

SECOND READING

1 Cor 1:10-13, 17

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

I appeal to you, my brothers and sisters, make up the differences between you.

I appeal to you, brothers, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, to make up the differences between you, and instead of disagreeing among yourselves, to be united again in your belief and practice. From what Chloe's people have been telling me, my dear brothers, it is clear that there are serious differences among you. What I mean are all these slogans that you have, like: 'I am for Paul', 'I am for Apollos', 'I am for Cephas', 'I am for Christ'. Has Christ been parcelled out? Was it Paul that was crucified for you? Were you baptised in the name of Paul?

For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the Good News, and not to preach that in the terms of philosophy in which the crucifixion of Christ cannot be expressed.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt 4:23

Alleluia, alleluia! / Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom, / and healed all who were sick. / Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mt 4:12-23

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

He went to Capernaum, that the prophecy of Isaiah be fulfilled.

Hearing that John had been arrested Jesus went back to Galilee, and leaving Nazareth he went and settled in Capernaum, a lakeside town on the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali. In this way the prophecy of Isaiah was to be fulfilled:

Land of Zebulun! Land of Naphtali! /
Way of the sea on the far side of Jordan, / Galilee of the nations! / The people that lived in darkness / has seen a great light; / on those who dwell in the land and shadow of death / a light has dawned.

From that moment Jesus began his preaching with the message, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.'

As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon, who was called Peter, and his brother Andrew; they were making a cast in the lake with their net, for they were fishermen. And he said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.' And they left their nets at once and followed him.

Going on from there he saw another pair of brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they were in their boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. At once, leaving the boat and their father, they followed him.

He went round the whole of Galilee teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom and curing all kinds of diseases and sickness among the people.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Shorter form: 4: 12-17

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH APOSTLES' CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

and prays, and then the chalice, we respond to each prayer:*

my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

R. Amen.

R. And with your spirit.

P. Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

All exchange a sign of peace

LAMB OF GOD

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

P. Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

life.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

REPENT

Last Sunday's Gospel from John, though critically important for our spiritual reflection, seemed unusual in this year of Matthew. So, today, we return to Matthew. In the past two Sundays, John the Baptist has been central in the Gospel selections. Today he is no longer with us, having been arrested. Our focus is squarely now on Jesus. He moves from his hometown of Nazareth to Capernaum. Both towns are on the fringe. The first, Nazareth, is the symbolic place of exile in Matthew. When Mary, Joseph and Jesus returned from Egypt they could not go back to their hometown of Bethlehem because of the vengeful ruling presence of Herod's son Archelaus. They go to live in Galilee, to Nazareth. They, like the Israelites several centuries earlier, are in exile. It is from here that the rest of Matthew unfolds.

Jesus next moves to Capernaum located geographically close to pagan and Gentile territories. It is a fishing village and a taxation collection centre at the crossroads of two major E-W and N-S highways. It is here that Jesus proclaims the great clarion cry in the Gospel: 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand' (4:17). This cry 'to repent' (Greek metanoia) is an urge to have an openness of heart. It comes with a conviction that God is already present and active in the world ('the kingdom of heaven is close at hand').

Finally, after Jesus calls four fishermen to be his first disciples, our Gospel proclamation ends with a note about Jesus' teaching and healing ministry. The first-called disciples will model for Matthew's audience how to be repentant and live out the conviction of God's presence in their lives and world.

Come along and hear Father Robert Rieger from Medjugorje – Lenten Reflection on Eucharistic Adoration

Father Robert Rieger from Medjugorje will be visiting Our Lady of Dolours Chatswood parish on 23 February. Come along and hear Father Robert's Lenten reflection on Eucharistic Adoration.

Father Robert is a Kiwi priest who first visited Medjugorje some 36 years ago – and it changed his life forever. Father Robert now welcomes thousands of pilgrims to Medjugorje every year from all around the world – including our own pilgrims from across the Broken Bay Diocese. Father Robert leads the Oasis of Peace community in Medjugorje, and their chapel offers Adoration around the clock, 24 hours a day. But as Father Robert will tell us, Adoration is not about the hours. It's about opening our hearts to the Lord and letting Him do something within us and for us – rather than just assuming that it's all about us doing something for him. It's His work within us that will truly change our lives.

7pm, Monday 23 February: Please join us to meet Father Robert and hear him speak in the Magnificat Room at Our Lady of Dolours in Kirk Street Chatswood.

Beach Rosary – 7pm, Friday 20 February: You are also invited to join Father Robert and Father Marek for a rosary along the beach promenade at Manly Beach, followed by gelato and Compline. Meet outside St Mary's Church, 6 Raglan Street Manly at 7pm.

Do you love the Holy Souls, need intercessors for your loved ones, and desire to be prayed for after death?

Friends of the Suffering Souls

A Catholic Lay Association conducting a perpetual novena of Masses for the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

Friends of the Suffering Souls (FOSS) originated in devotion to Our Lady of Knock, whose apparition, in 1879, followed the offering of 100 Masses for the Holy Souls. Today, our perpetual novena of Masses not only helps the Holy Souls but also gives members an assurance of remembrance after death and a means of surrounding their loved ones with Heavenly intercessors. Each member commits to arranging one Mass a year, for the intention, "For the Holy Souls in Purgatory, especially the deceased members of FOSS." By our continuing commitment to this intention, our members are assured that they, too, will be remembered after death in our Masses. Members may also enroll family or friends, committing to an additional annual Mass on behalf of each enrollee. The same Mass intention is offered, in the confident expectation that the Holy Souls who benefit from the Mass will become intercessors for the enrollee. At present, our members in 50 countries around the world offer upwards of 35, 000 Masses a year for this intention. If you have a love for the Holy Souls, a desire to be upheld in prayer, and a longing for spiritual assistance for your friends and family, we invite you to join us.

SOCIAL ISOLATION AND HOUSING AFFORDABILITY TABLE TALK IN OUR PARISH

Last Saturday afternoon over 40 parishioners and others from the Northern Suburbs gathered in the parish meeting rooms to share their experiences and ideas about two factors that are harming our community right now. Young people and old are reporting an unusual level of loneliness, anxiety and loss of social connection and we all know how the lack of affordable housing is driving young people away from their northern suburbs homes and leaving their parents and grandparents without anyone to care for them.

Those in attendance commented afterwards on how much they had learnt from the great speakers. Michele Bell, CEO of the Ku-ring-gai Neighbourhood Centre, spoke of the impact of COVID, the barriers to building social connections and the impact of the housing crisis. She shocked us by telling us that 40% of houses in Ku-ring-gai are sitting vacant, which is what happens when housing becomes an investment strategy instead of a human right. Dr Lucy Dahill, Student Support Officer at Killara High School, identified the mobile phone as a major cause of anxiety and loneliness among young people while John Engeler spoke of the need for more targeted and effective action by all levels of government to deal with the housing crisis.

In feed back at the end of the Table Talk, people nominated the talk by Amanda Bailey from Faith Housing Australia as most informative because she showed us how churches around Australia are building social and affordable housing on land they no longer need. Most popular speakers were our own Mercedita Martinez and Maleke Barekzai who talked to us about their difficult experiences when faced with potential homelessness and being offered inhuman solutions.

Everyone commented on how good it is to be able to sit at table with others and share experiences and ideas. Spirits were lifted half way through the intensive workshop by a delicious afternoon tea provided but Caroline Lim. The whole afternoon depended on the skill of the facilitators and table scribes, the leadership of Mariza Sollano and the impeccable style and management of our loved and talented Yvonne Corpuz. The recommendations from the Table Talk will now be taken by delegations to our two State MPs, Tim James and Matt Cross, and our federal representative, Nicolette Boelle.

BRINGING THE LIGHT OF CHRIST to the city

coffee together

We are bringing a coffee and chat once a week to Community Housing residents in Artarmon.

Can you volunteer to join a roster one Tuesday a month,
10.30-12.00? All that's required is a warm heart, an unjudging attitude and 1 ½ hours per month.

If you would like to be part of a team to bring some laughter and a listening ear to lonely residents please put your name on the sign-up sheet at the church entrance or email :

New Year and New Life

Each year we greet the new year with a fireworks display and other celebrations. In doing so we acknowledge the gift of life that we enjoy even if without exploring the full dimension of that gift and the eternal life that it precedes. But if we celebrate the life that we enjoy, our thoughts might turn to those newly conceived human beings whose life journey has just begun. Unfortunately we know that many of these newly created persons will have their lives terminated even before they are born as a result of the resort to abortion. For these newly conceived there will be no celebration of new years to come in the future. Our society upholds the irreconcilable attitudes of celebrating New Year while denying the right of the unborn to participate in the life that lies before them. We encourage all parishioners to defend those little ones who cannot speak for themselves or exercise any influence to protect their own lives. So as we celebrate the gift of life that we enjoy, we might spare a thought for the unborn whose lives may well be cut short even before birth.

Ornella Byak is the granddaughter of our beloved parishioner Sandra Byak - and at only 26 years old, Ornella has already established a school in Timor-Leste. Ornella will be visiting us in the last week of February to tell us more about this wonderful work.

Ornella Byak founded BETTER Timor to respond to the urgent need for quality education in Timor-Leste. It is one of our closest neighbours, yet many children and young people lack basic learning opportunities. Ornella has established a school in the regional area of Same, Manufahi, where she lives full-time and leads local teams delivering free, high-quality schooling and English education. The school now serves around 200 students with 21+ local staff, and it achieves over 90% attendance (compared to a national average near 36%). The school provides thousands of meals to students each year, since Timor-Leste has one of the highest rates of severe child malnutrition in the world. Ornella has also opened the Bakhita English Institute to provide youth and adults with English skills that will equip them for employment, mobility, and new opportunities.

Come along and hear Ornella tell her story:

- Daytime: Monday 23 February at 1.00pm (after the 12.30pm mass) in the Magnificat Room
- Evening: Tuesday 24 February at 7.00pm in the Magnificat Room

And you can read more about Ornella's work in Timor-Leste at <http://bettertimor.org/>

Your support for the Dignity Pro-Life group will help to defend the lives of those unborn babies so that they too may enjoy the benefit of life and join in the celebration of new years yet to come.
