Our Lady of Dolours

Word of God Sunday

We pray for all servants of God's Word in the Church, particularly Pope Francis, and all members of the clerical, religious and lay apostolates: that they will always promote the proclamation of the Gospel and the practice of Christian virtue in their ministries.

We pray for all leaders in government and the legal profession, especially those who solemnly swear on God's Word to speak the truth from their heart: that their words and example will inspire others towards honesty and integrity of life.

We pray for all who research, teach and publish God's Word in our world: that their study, formation and resources will be fruitful in helping more people to know, love and serve the Lord.

We pray for all proclaim and preach the Word of God in our communities: that they will always treasure the opportunity to be formed by God's Word and to use their gifts to bring this Word to life in the liturgy and in the lives of those close to them.

We pray for all who suffer in mind, body or spirit: that they will never lose hope in God but place their trust in him, and find comfort, consolation and healing in the words of his Son.

Lunar New Year

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank you that in all cultures the New Year means a chance for a fresh start and a new beginning. We pray especially for our brothers and sisters with Asian heritage as they celebrate Lunar New Year that they will come into a deeper knowledge of You. Thank you for putting the hunger for better times ahead and the hope for renewal of goodness and health into every heart for your purpose of motivating us to find Jesus who is our Redeemer and friend. Thank you that Jesus died on the cross to sweep clean our sins and make it possible for us to have new life in a relationship with Him that brings prosperity to our souls.

FOR THE SICK:

Platinum Anniversary of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth 2

Accession Day marks the anniversary of the reigning monarch taking the throne, which in the case of Her Majesty the Queen is 6 February 1952. It is particularly fitting to celebrate this anniversary in 2022 as it marks the beginning of The Queen's Platinum Jubilee.

*Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness,
bless our Sovereign Lady, Queen Elizabeth,
and all who are in authority under her;
that they may order all things
in wisdom and equity, righteousness and peace,
to the honour and glory of your name
and the good of your Church and people;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.*

From Fr David

Dear friends,

What a weekend of celebration. Happy Lunar New Year to all our community! May the Year of the Tiger ahead be one of adventure and new possibility! A very special thank you to Amelia Lee and our parish Chinese Catholic Association for their tremendous amount of work to help us celebrate this very special time of the year. They have done a superb job, and in the process raised funds for Jesuit Refugee Services. Hopefully, now, our celebrations for Lunar New Year will become an annual event.

Early this week, I must travel to Devonport, Tasmania to bury my dear uncle, Les who died just one week of his 101st birthday. I shall be back in the parish on Tuesday afternoon.

Next weekend of 12/13 February we will invite everyone to participate in the National Church Life Survey, held over from 2021. This is an important survey taken every 5 years across the Churches in Australia and it provides a most important snapshot of the life of Christian communities, and of how we experience and practice our faith.

During each of our Masses, after the Gospel, we will invite people to complete a survey form. Though this is an intrusion into our liturgy, the surveys will be of great help to us as we think through our pastoral needs in the future. We can also complete the survey online at <https://attendersurvey.ncls.org.au/> entering the code for Chatswood Parish TA226001.

Celebrating Lunar New Year in Chatswood

Willoughby City Council has announced the program for the fourth edition of the Chatswood Lunar New Year Festival celebrating The Year of the Tiger. Featuring comedy, art, music, performance, food, and traditional cultural celebrations, the 2022 festival will be the most vibrant to date, running from Thursday 27 January until Sunday 20 February. Spanning across multiple Chatswood locations, the events showcase the cultures of China, Vietnam, Singapore, Korea, Taiwan, and Hong Kong.

The cultural delights on offer include traditional festivities, as well as opportunities to celebrate through the best contemporary culture, including a one-night-only Lunar New Year Comedy Festival on 12 February at The Concourse. The lineup will feature some of Australia's funniest Asian-Australian comedians such as Lawrence Leung, Alex Lee, Michael Hing, Annie Louey, Diana Nguyen and Harry Jun.

Throughout the Festival, a diverse musical program will create a lively atmosphere. From 10 - 13 February, The Concourse outdoor space will come alive with Chatswood Tiger Beats, a free outdoor concert series with a popup bar, featuring some of the best Asian-Australian pop, RnB, and electronic artists, including Rainbow Chan, Lucy Sugerman, and Yeo. Meanwhile, for classical music lovers, a pocket-sized one-hour version of the classic Mozart opera The Magic Flute directed by Peter Coleman-Wright AO will be performed on Saturday 19 November by Pacific Opera and Willoughby Symphony Orchestra in the Concert Hall at The Concourse. An evening of orchestral music merging East and West will take place on 5 February at the Lunar New Year Concert.

Quality art will be showcased at several exhibitions across Chatswood from 27 January – 20 February, including the unveiling of a major new installation by acclaimed artist Simone Chua from Amigo and Amigo of a mother tiger and her four cubs in The Concourse Reflection Pool. At The Incinerator, The World that Feels Warm, curated by Guan Wei, will feature work by artists such as Tracey Moffatt, Tim Johnson, Owen Leong, Ginger Jingzhe Li, and Huajie Zhang. At the Art Space on the Concourse, Parallel Wanderings will present work by Australian artists with Chinese cultural roots exploring Chinese landscape traditions through sculpture, photography, installation, and performance art.

Every Thursday and Friday throughout the Festival, The Golden Market will transform Chatswood Mall. A traditional market akin to those found in cities across Asia to celebrate the New Year, it will feature stalls offering Chinese, Korean, Taiwanese, and Japanese food, as well as Lunar New Year decorations and gifts.

To mark the start of Chinese New Year, a Celebration Day on 5 February at The Concourse will be one of Sydney's largest Lunar New Year celebrations. Festivities on the day will include Chinese Opera, K-pop, traditional dance, and Lunar New Year delicacies.

The finest of Chatswood's Asian eateries will also celebrate through a Food Trail, mapped out to highlight the remarkable Asian cuisine in the area, curated by respected food writer Lee Tran Lam.

Celebrating "Word of God Sunday"

Pope Francis, 5 October 2014

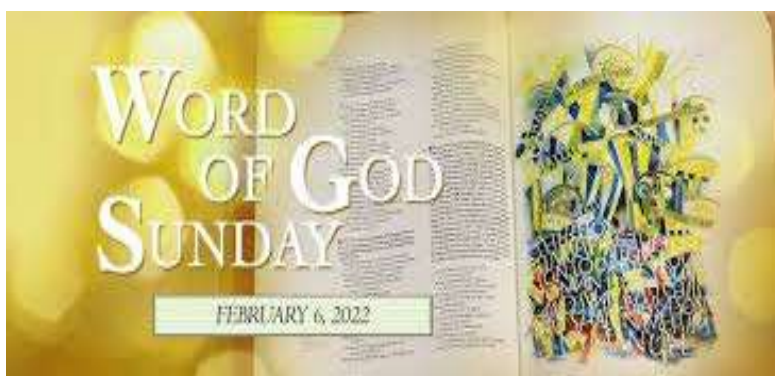

"So today, as the Synod on the Family opens, with the help of the Paulines we can say: a Bible for every family!
"But Father, we have two, three of them..."
But where have you hidden them?...

The Bible, not to place it on a shelf, but to keep it at hand, to read it often, every day, both individually and together, husband and wife, parents and children, maybe in the evening, especially on Sundays.

This way the family grows, walks, with the light and power of the Word of God!

Below are OLD Catechists at Chatswood Public High School

The catechists are at the time "storyteller"
The "Word of God" is told and represented through symbols and artcraft.

Celebrating Our Lady of Lourdes and the 30th World Day of the Sick

Amongst the apparitions of Our Lady probably the most well-known are those at Lourdes (France) in 1858 and Fatima (Portugal) in 1917. The feast of Our Lady of Lourdes is celebrated on the 11 February and will be marked by a special Parish zoom rosary on that day at 8 pm (see separate notice). Then on Saturday 12 February at 4 pm the Association of Mary Help of Christians will present part of a video via Zoom recounting the events surrounding Our Lady's apparition and miracles of physical and spiritual healings which has led to Lourdes becoming a very well frequented pilgrimage destination - <https://zoom.us/j/8034195601> (ID 803 419 5601, no passcode required). Parishioners are invited to join us in viewing this very instructive and uplifting presentation about Lourdes. Those interested in knowing more about the Association of Our Lady Help of Christians are warmly invited to join our Zoom meeting on Tuesdays at 7.45 pm using the same zoom link.

PARISH ROSARY ON FEAST DAY OF OUR LADY OF LOURDES AND 30TH WORLD DAY OF THE SICK- 11 February 2022

You are warmly invited to join a Parish Rosary on Zoom on 11 February 2022 at 8.00 pm to pray for the Sick, including all those known to our Parishioners and all that have been touched by Covid-19. We also continue our unceasing prayers for an end to this pandemic.

Following the Rosary, you are welcome to stay for an on-line pilgrimage to Our Lady's Shrine at Lourdes in France for your silent prayers for the Sick and special intentions.

DID YOU KNOW? Thirty years ago, Saint John Paul II instituted the World Day of the Sick to encourage the people of God, Catholic health institutions and civil society to be increasingly attentive to the Sick and to those who care for them. Pope Francis has chosen the theme for the 30th World Day of the Sick as: Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful" (Lk 6:36).

ZOOM Details:

Meeting ID: 823 9526 5265

Passcode: 583250

Parishioners can ring and access the audio of the Zoom Rosary. This may assist our Seniors who may not be able to join by Zoom but would be very welcome to ring up. The telephone number is +61 2 8015 6011 Australia (Sydney)

Extract from Pope Francis message for World Day of the Sick

The theme chosen for this Thirtieth World Day of the Sick, "Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful" (Lk 6:36), makes us first turn our gaze towards God, who is "rich in mercy" (Eph 2:4); he always watches over his children with a father's love, even when they turn away from him. Mercy is God's name par excellence; mercy, understood not as an occasional sentimental feeling but as an ever-present and active force, expresses God's very nature. It combines strength and tenderness. For this reason, we can say with wonder and gratitude that God's mercy embraces both fatherhood and motherhood (cf. Is 49:15). God cares for us with the strength of a father and the tenderness of a mother; he unceasingly desires to give us new life in the Holy Spirit.

One twentieth-century philosopher suggests a reason for this: "Pain isolates in an absolute way, and absolute isolation gives rise to the need to appeal to the other, to call out to the other". When individuals experience frailty and suffering in their own flesh as a result of illness, their hearts become heavy, fear spreads, uncertainties multiply, and questions about the meaning of what is happening in their lives become all the more urgent. How can we forget, in this regard, all those patients who, during this time of pandemic spent the last part of their earthly life in solitude, in an intensive care unit, assisted by generous healthcare workers, yet far from their loved ones and the most important people in their lives? This helps us to see how important is the presence at our side of witnesses to God's charity, who, following the example of Jesus, the very mercy of the Father, pour the balm of consolation and the wine of hope on the wounds of the sick.

The World Day of the Sick is also a good occasion to focus our attention on centres of care. Down the centuries, showing mercy to the sick led the Christian community to open innumerable "inns of the good Samaritan", where love and care can be given to people with various kinds of sickness, especially those whose health needs are not being met due to poverty or social exclusion or to the difficulties associated with treating certain pathologies. In these situations, it is children, the elderly and those who are most frail who most often pay the price. Merciful like the Father, countless missionaries have combined the preaching of the Gospel with the construction of hospitals, dispensaries and care homes. These are precious means whereby Christian charity has taken visible shape and the love of Christ, witnessed by that of his disciples, has become more credible.

First Reconciliation 2022

Invitation

Do you thirst for spiritual conversation?

All are welcome to join us in experiencing and praying the First Spiritual Exercises during a Lenten FSE retreat in daily life.

Over five Mondays we will guide you through this gentle Lenten retreat, and invite you to enter into the mysteries of Love, forgiveness, mercy, reconciliation, healing, freedom and inner peace with the Lord.

The First Spiritual Exercises are a series of prayer exercises created by St Ignatius of Loyola, offering guidance to those seeking a more intimate relationship with our creator, and a deep inner peace.

Inner peace in Darkness and Light FSE retreat, is a four-week retreat where participants are guided by givers of the First Spiritual Exercises through a contemplative prayer each Monday and then continue at home for most days in your own time, with prepared prayer exercises. Through out the retreat you will be invited to pray, be silent, journal in your listening book and then gather to listen and share your experiences with sacred listening and spiritual conversation.

Our facilitators for this retreat are ... Karen Wong , Giver of the FSE Ministry

Cheryl Thomas , Giver of the FSE Ministry
