

Sunday 9 November 2025
Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Welcome!
Come and See! Come and Grow! Come and Serve!

靠你有力量、心中想往锡安大道的，这人便为有福！

他们经过流泪谷、叫这谷变为泉源之地，并有秋雨之福盖满了全谷。 诗篇 84:5-6

Blessed are those who find their strength in you, whose hearts are set on pilgrimage.
As they pass through the Valley of Weeping (Baca), they make it a place of springs;
the early rain also covers it with blessings. Psalms 84:5-6

Come and See!

Dear friends,

On the first twelve days in October, I had the privilege of accompanying pilgrims across our Diocese of Broken Bay to Italy. One of the most profound moments for me was standing before the Basilica of St John Lateran, the Cathedral Church of the Bishop of Rome—the Pope. There we stood — about twenty of us — gathered in a circle in prayer. We held hands, prayed the intentions of the Holy Father, professed the Creed, and prayed the Our Father. Then, together, we gently walked through the Holy Door of Basilica.

It was not merely a ritual; it was a moment of awe and purpose. In that sacred space, we were reminded again why we were there and what God called us to be — a pilgrim people, a people of HOPE.

Today, as we celebrate the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica, we remember those moments and hold in prayer our fellow parish pilgrims who are currently in Rome with Father David, walking through the Holy Doors, praying through those sacred basilicas, and carrying our intentions with them.

Although this weekend falls on the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Church chooses to honour the dedication of St John Lateran — the Archbasilica of the Most Holy Saviour and of Saints John the Baptist and John the Evangelist. This basilica is the Cathedral of the Pope, “the mother and head of all churches” (mater et caput omnium ecclesiarum), and the oldest public church in Rome, dedicated in 324 AD. While St Peter’s Basilica is more widely known, St John Lateran is the heart and home of the Church’s apostolic authority. This feast is therefore not simply about a historical building; it is a celebration of our unity with the successor of Peter.

This feast also reminds us that the Church is one, holy, catholic, and apostolic, and that God truly dwells among His people. The Scriptures for this feast call us to remember that we are not only part of a visible Church — we are living stones, God’s spiritual temple, joined together in Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus declares, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up” (John 2:19), and St John explains, “He was speaking of the sanctuary of His Body” (John 2:21). Thus, this feast draws us from the physical temple of stone to the mystical temple which is Christ’s Body, and finally to the spiritual temple— each one of us who is baptised and filled with the Holy Spirit (cf. 1 Corinthians 3:16–17).

More important than the building is the living Church — each of its members. Each baptised person is a living stone, invited to love, to grow, to serve, and to reflect Christ to one another. As we celebrate this feast, may our hearts be set ablaze with love. May we continue to let the light of Christ shine forth, so that all who come here in our local church, and all whom we are to encounter, may discover hope in Him.

In Christ,
Fr Hien

We acknowledge the Cammeraygal People of the Eora Nation, custodians of the land on which our parish stands and we commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of national reconciliation.

As a Parish of Catholic Faith we are committed to ensuring always a community of safety and care for all especially for children, and those who are vulnerable.

Sacrament of Confirmation 2025

Last Thursday evening, 30 November, our parish joyfully celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation for 70 children, conferred by Bishop Anthony Randazzo.

This year's group included children from our local public schools as well as from Our Lady of Dolour's Primary.

Families, sponsors, and parishioners gathered to support, to pray for, and to pray with our children as they were sealed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

A heartfelt thank you to all our helpers and facilitators who made this ceremony such a memorable and joyful celebration. Congratulations to our newly confirmed! May they continue to grow in faith and live out the graces of God in their lives.

OUR SUNDAY CELEBRATION

DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

9 NOVEMBER 2025

YOU ARE GOD'S TEMPLE. We have great respect for a church building and are horrified when we hear of one being desecrated by vandals. Do we also appreciate that the Christian community is God's temple, built on the foundation of Jesus Christ? Let us pray that our respect for the sacred building in which we gather for worship is reflected in the respect and reverence we have for all who make up the Body of Christ.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON cf. Apoc 21: 2

I saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband.

GREETING

P. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

P. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

R. And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

P. Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

All: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking the breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

R. Amen.

V. Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

V. Christ, have mercy.

R. Christ, have mercy.

V. Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, / and on earth peace to people of good will. / We praise you, / we bless you, / we adore you, / we glorify you, / we give you thanks for your great glory, / Lord God, heavenly King, / O God, almighty Father, / Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, / Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, / you take away the sins of the world, / have mercy on us; / you take away the sins of the world, / receive our prayer; / you are seated at the right hand of the Father, / have mercy on us. / For you alone are the Holy One, / you alone are the Lord, / you alone are the Most High, / Jesus Christ, / with the Holy Spirit, / in the glory of God the Father. / Amen.

COLLECT

P. O God, who from living and chosen stones prepare an eternal dwelling for your majesty, increase in your Church the spirit of grace you have bestowed, so that by new growth your faithful people may build up the heavenly Jerusalem. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Ezek 47: 1-2, 8-9, 12

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

I saw water flowing from the temple and all who were touched by it were saved.

The angel brought me to the entrance of the Temple, where a stream came out from under the Temple threshold and flowed eastwards, since the Temple faced east. The water flowed from under the right side of the Temple, south of the altar. He took me out by the north gate and led me right round outside as far as the outer east gate where the water flowed out on the right-hand side. The man went to the east holding his measuring line and measured off a thousand cubits; he made me wade across the stream; the water reached my ankles. He measured off another thousand and made me wade across the stream again; the water reached my knees. He measured off another thousand and made me wade across again; the water reached my waist. He measured off another thousand; it was now a river which I could not cross; the stream had swollen and was now deep water, a river impossible to cross. He then said, 'Do you see, son of man?' He took me further, then brought me back to the bank of the river. When I got back, there were many trees on each bank of the river. He said, 'This water flows east down to the Arabah and to the sea; and flowing into the sea it makes its waters wholesome. Wherever the river flows, all living creatures teeming in it will live. Fish will be very plentiful, for wherever the water goes it brings health, and life teems wherever the river flows. Along the river, on either bank, will grow every kind of fruit tree with leaves that never wither and fruit that never fails, they will bear new fruit every month, because this water comes from the sanctuary. And their fruit will be good to eat and the leaves medicinal.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESP PSALM Ps 45: 2-3, 5-6, 8-9. R. v. 5

R. The waters of the river gladden the city of God.

1. God is for us a refuge and strength, / a helper close at hand, in time of distress: / so we shall not fear though the earth should rock, / though the mountains fall into the depths of the sea. R.
2. The waters of a river give joy to God's city, / the holy place where the Most High dwells. / God is within, it cannot be shaken; / God will help it at the dawning of the day. R.
3. The Lord of hosts is with us: / the God of Jacob is our stronghold. / Come, consider the works of the Lord / the redoubtable deeds he has done on the earth. R.

SECOND READING Cor 3: 9-11, 16-17

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

You are the temple of God.

You are God's building, By the grace God gave me, I succeeded as an architect and laid the foundations, on which someone else is doing the building. Everyone doing the building must work carefully. For the foundation, nobody can lay any other than the one which has already been laid, that is, Jesus Christ.

Didn't you realise that you were God's temple and that the Spirit of God was living among you? If anybody should destroy the temple of God, God will destroy him, because the temple of God is sacred; and you are that temple.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION 2 Chron 7: 16

Alleluia, alleluia! I have chosen and sanctified this house, says the Lord, that my name may remain in it for all time. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Jn 2: 13-22

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

He spoke about the temple of his own body.

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money changers' coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father's house into a market.' Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?' Jesus answered, 'Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH APOSTLES' CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

After the priest raises the paten with the bread and prays, and then the chalice, we respond to each prayer:

R. Blessed be God for ever.

P. Pray, brethren (brothers and sisters), that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

P. Accept, we pray, O Lord, the offering made here and grant that by it those who seek your favour may receive in this place the power of the Sacraments and the answer to their prayers. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. Lift up your hearts.

R. We lift them up to the Lord.

P. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is right and just.

PREFACE II FOR THE DEDICATION OF A CHURCH

After the Preface, we sing or say:

All: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

THE MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

P. The mystery of faith.

All: Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

COMMUNION RITE

P. At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven . . .

P. Deliver us, Lord, we pray . . .

All: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

P. Lord Jesus Christ, who said . . .

R. Amen.

P. The peace of the Lord be with you always.

R. And with your spirit.

P. Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

All exchange a sign of peace

LAMB OF GOD

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

P. Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

R. Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

1 Pet 2: 5

Be built up like living stones, into a spiritual house, a holy priesthood.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

P. O God, who chose to foreshadow for us the heavenly Jerusalem through the sign of your Church on earth, grant, we pray, that, by our partaking of this Sacrament, we may be made the temple of your grace and may enter the dwelling place of your glory.

Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son,  and the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

P. Go forth, the Mass is ended.

R. Thanks be to God.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

SACRED SPACE

Frequently while celebrating Sunday Eucharist, the Sacrament of Marriage or a funeral, I am touched by those present. While some are perhaps not regular church goers, something happens among them within the setting of the church. Besides the liturgical rite and the readings of Scripture, the church building, its DNA, can touch them. It is a sacred space, blessed by people of faith over the decades. The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica is a celebration of the importance of place and the environment in which people of faith gather. Rather than St Peter's Basilica, this Basilica in Rome is the Pope's church, the 'mother' of all churches throughout the world. It symbolises holiness and communion. Today's commemoration also links to the Gospel. Jesus acts definitively against the traders and sellers to renew the Temple and its precincts in its sacredness. Rather than a marketplace, the Temple is the place of divine presence. In John, it further symbolises and anticipates what happens to the body of Jesus, the abode of God's holiness, in his passion, death and resurrection.

Our own parish churches and parishes need ongoing renewal and purification, in the spirit of Jesus' renewal of the Temple in John's Gospel story. They are places where we gather to celebrate the Eucharist each Sunday and our local sacred spaces where holiness and communion are experienced. We celebrate our communion with the Bishop of Rome and allow our local parish church to be the palpable expression of the universal Church—of outreach, openness and hospitality.

Public Rosary on Saturday, 1st November

It was a beautiful gathering of faith and community, as we came together in prayer and devotion. Thank you to everyone who participated and helped make the event meaningful.

In Honour of the Saints and Commemoration of All Souls

On the Feast of All Saints, a group of parishioners visited Macquarie Cemetery. There, we paused and prayed together—through the intercession of all the saints—remembering those who have gone before us in faith.

"I believe that I shall see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living."

Our St Vincent de Paul Conference September Report

Through your support for our appeals and poor box donations Chatswood was able to respond to a record 22 requests for help in September expending over $2000. It never ceases to amaze us how difficult it is for some people to manage to live. Five of the requests came from people with mental difficulties, 2 from families of Asian background ineligible or Centrelink benefits one of whom is an asylum seeker. Sickness was the reason for another request, one elderly person sought companionship as much as anything else. Most of the others came from people weighed down with difficulties without the life skills to cope which most of us take for granted. A homeless lass advised of having a very tough upbringing and family being in jail. She confessed of drug addiction but that she was currently clean. She said she had unhappy recent relationships including DV. She had very few belongings. We helped her with food, clothing, Opal top up and told her about places where she could do washing. We are looking for more volunteers to help meet the high demand for help. If you can spare 1 or 2 half days a week and have some admin and computer skills, and willingness to do home visitations please get in touch with El at el.herlianto@vinnies.org.au or call John on 0439783956

DONATIONS OF PRIZES FOR FUNDRAISER NEEDED

On Saturday 15 November in Harrington Hall our parish is coming together to raise enough money to provide water filters for survivors of the earthquake that hit the Cebu Province on 30 September. There has been a series of after-shocks continuing since then and people are in great need, particularly as water is unsafe to drink. We have a direct line to deliver water filters directly to distribution points in Cebu Province. We just need to raise enough money. How can you help?

Please donate a prize to either the raffle or the auction to be held on the night. Ask businesses you know, friends with access to discounts, or donate a new unopened item you can spare. Vouchers for restaurants or activities are always popular. Contact Mariza Sollano at marizasollano@gmail.com or call 0422 225 960 or drop your donation off at the parish office.

And come along for a feast of Filipino specialty dishes of Cebu province and a night of entertainment on 15 November at 6.30 p.m. https://events.humanitix.com/cebu_earthquake_2025?

?? DIGNITY Pro-Life Alliance

Upholding the dignity and rights of every human being from conception.
Honoring the dignity of women as mothers and co-creators with God.

?? Abortion – Today's epidemic

Abortion claims thousands upon thousands of lives each year yet
It is endorsed by Government;
It has the assistance of sections of the medical profession;
It turns parents against their very own children.

This amounts to an enormous assault on the dignity of the unborn and of the role which women play as co-operators with God in His plan of creation. It flaunts God's commandment 'Thou Shall Not Kill' and the natural law. In short it is an outrageous situation which has to be regarded as totally intolerable and unacceptable in a civilised society.

?? A Catholic Call to Action: Catholics are called to –

Defend the innocent and powerless—especially the unborn
Uphold the dignity of women in God's plan
Reject indifference and live out the commandment to love our neighbour

Catholics do much to help the sick, the poor and the marginalised in response to God's command of love. Such compassion and care is particularly applicable to the unborn since they share the same dignity in God's eyes as does any other human person but are totally without capacity to fend for themselves. To remain indifferent to the plight of the unborn is to reject God's commandment of love. Please join in saying the prayer below daily.

?? Prayer for Life

"Heavenly Father, in Your love for us, protect against the wickedness of the devil, those helpless little ones to whom You have given the gift of life. Touch with pity the hearts of those women pregnant in our world today who are not thinking of motherhood. Help them to see that the child they carry is made in Your image, as well as theirs, made for eternal life. Dispel their fears and selfishness and give them true womanly hearts to love their babies and give them birth and all the needed care that a mother can give. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen."

The word 'FLOWER' is written in large white capital letters, and 'DONATIONS' is written in even larger white capital letters below it. At the bottom, in a cursive script, it says 'Would you like to donate flowers to adorn our church?'

FLOWER DONATIONS

Would you like to donate flowers to adorn our church?

Honour a special occasion or remember a loved one with altar flower arrangements

Donations can be one-time or annual.

Suggested donations: $130+ for standard arrangements, $150-$200 for fuller or specific flowers like roses.

Our volunteers, Irene, Cynthia, and Teresa, will beautifully arrange and place them by the tabernacle for Sunday.

Submit your donation at least one month in advance.
To reserve a date, contact Chloe at Chloe.Aylward@bbcatholic.org.au.

Our Altar Flowers this Week

This week's Altar Flowers are donated by Lourdes Davies in thanksgiving to God.

To order a candle for our deceased loved ones whom we especially wish to remember in the month of November, please go to <https://www.trybooking.com/DGPGU> or use the QR code

However, orders can also be received in cash at the Parish Office.
Candles are $5.

They will be battery operated and turned on and off remotely before each Mass.
