PARISH REGISTRATION FORM

A message from Fr David.

Dear Friends,

This Sunday, we celebrate those who enjoy now the fullness of communion with God: the Saints! They speak to us of the destiny into which we too are invited. It is a helpful moment for us to realise that we come to God not alone but as part of a entire People who have encountered the Risen Christ and lived in discipleship with him over so many centuries and in so many contexts. Let us remember always that they are our companions on our own journey too.

We enter the month of November also mindful of those whom we have loved and gone before us. November, traditionally, is the month in which we remember our deceased. On Monday 2 November we Commemorate All Souls. We have Masses at 9.00am, 12.30pm and at 7.00pm on that day. However, through the whole month there are various ways by which to remember those whom we have loved; through a devotional candle, through our Book of Remembrance, or through a Mass offering using the speak November Mass envelopes. Please be mindful that these Masses cannot be offered at a time especially requested. They will be celebrated by a priest over the course of the entire month and beyond. We cannot guarantee a specific time. If we are not able to fulfil the obligation to celebrate the Mass personally in our parish, then the request and its donation is given to other priests.

A special event that we are celebrating during the month of November is our annual Footprints Mass in which we remember all those who have died through miscarriage or stillbirth. This special Mass will be celebrated on Wednesday 4 November at 6.30pm. All are welcome.

Over the next several weeks we are conducting our annual Parish Pulse Survey. This is an important indicator of the life and tone of our parish community. We invite everyone to complete the survey. The survey will be available in the pews over the coming weekends or it is possible to complete online through the link: https://form.jotform.com/chatswoodparish/2026-parish-pulse or through the QR code below. Your participation in this survey is a great help to us as we continue to discern how we can grow together.

This coming week I will be attending the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference. As Diocesan Administrator I am a full member of the Conference during the term of my service. Please pray for the bishops in Conference that the Spirit will guide and bless the gathering.

Finally, but not least a very special word of congratulations to all our children celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation on Saturday 31 October! We pray the fullness of the Spirt upon each of them!

We acknowledge the Cammeraygal People of the Eora Nation, custodians of the land on which our parish stands and we commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of national reconciliation.

As a Parish of Catholic Faith we are committed to ensuring always a community of safety and care for all, especially for children, and those who are vulnerable.

Marian Movement of Priests (MMP) Rosary

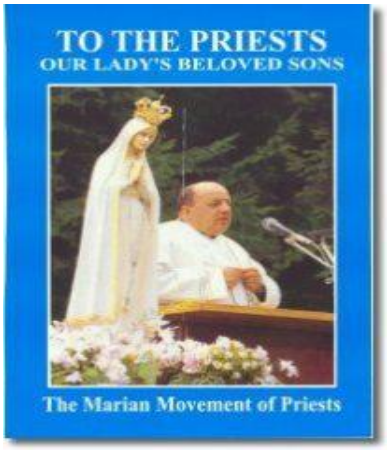

We warmly invite you to join us in answering our Blessed Mother's call to prayer by participating in the Rosary Cenacle for the Marian Movement of Priests (MMP).

In her messages to Fr. Stefano Gobbi, Our Lady asked us to gather together in "Cenacles" of prayer to invoke the Holy Spirit, support our priests, and seek her maternal protection. In these gatherings, we pray the Holy Rosary, read from the book "To the Priests, Our Lady's Beloved Sons", and renew our Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Whether you have been praying the Rosary for decades or are completely new to this devotion, your presence is a beautiful gift to our parish family and to the wider Church. Our weekly gatherings take place on:

Our Sunday Celebration

All Saints / A — 1 November 2026

A COUNTLESS MULTITUDE. On this feast of All Saints we remember the countless multitude of men, women and children, including many we have known, who are now in heaven. We continue to be inspired by the qualities they revealed in their lives: humility, a concern for justice, gentleness, purity of heart, mercy, and courage. We take comfort in knowing that from their home in heaven they intercede for us still.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

GREETING

P. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
R. Amen.

P. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
R. And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

P. Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.
All: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking the breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
R. Amen.

V. Lord, have mercy.
R. Lord, have mercy.
V. Christ, have mercy.
R. Christ, have mercy.
V. Lord, have mercy.
R. Lord, have mercy.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, / and on earth peace to people of good will. / We praise you, / we bless you, / we adore you, / we glorify you, / we give you thanks for your great glory, / Lord God, heavenly King, / O God, almighty Father. / Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, / Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, / you take away the sins of the world, / have mercy on us; / you take away the sins of the world, / receive our prayer; / you are seated at the right hand of the Father, / have mercy on us. / For you alone are the Holy One, / you alone are the Lord, / you alone are the Most High, / Jesus Christ, / with the Holy Spirit, / in the glory of God the Father. / Amen.

COLLECT

P. Almighty ever-living God, by whose gift we venerate in one celebration the merits of all the Saints, bestow on us, we pray, through the prayers of so many intercessors, an abundance of the reconciliation with you for which we earnestly long. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING — Apoc 7: 2-4, 9-14

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse.
I saw an immense crowd, beyond hope of counting, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language.

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.

After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words: 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'

One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my Lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

The word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — Ps 23: 1-6. R. cf. v. 6

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

1. The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. R.

2. Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. R.

3. He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. R.

SECOND READING — 1 Jn 3: 1-3

A reading from the first letter of John
We shall see God as he really is.

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us,
by letting us be called God's children;
and that is what we are.
Because the world refused to acknowledge him,
therefore it does not acknowledge us.
My dear people, we are already the children of God
but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed;
all we know is, that when it is revealed
we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.
Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

The word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION — Mt 11: 28

Alleluia, alleluia! / Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened, / and I will give you rest, says the Lord. / Alleluia!

GOSPEL — Mt 5: 1-12

P. The Lord be with you.
R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.
R. Glory to you, O Lord.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit;
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage;
Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted;
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied;
Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them;
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God;
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God;
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH APOSTLES' CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. Amen.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

BLESSED ARE YOU

Today's Feast of All Saints beautifully recognises our communion with all who have died and gone before us in faith. As we gather around the Eucharist, and as the Presider gives thanks to God over the bread and wine, we remember those whose lives continue to touch and shape us. They remain part of the Communion of Saints, a rich and enduring tradition in Catholic theology.

The Gospel presents Jesus' familiar teaching on the Beatitudes, highlighting the source of their holiness—and ours. The Beatitudes recognise people who struggle with the realities of life and, rather than relying solely on themselves, look beyond their circumstances trusting God's action. The Beatitudes address those who are poor in spirit, whose lives are not controlled by what they possess; the gentle, who choose compassion rather than aggression; those who mourn and grieve the sadness and tragedy of life; those who hunger and thirst for justice amid injustice; those who are 'pure of heart', living with authenticity and integrity; those who seek to build communion and peace; and those who endure persecution because of their faith and discipleship. Matthew's account adds a final, ninth Beatitude, reflecting the experience of Jesus' followers in Matthew's day who were themselves facing persecution.

One final distinction is important. Some translations begin each Beatitude with 'happy', but the more faithful translation is 'blessed'. Happiness is something we seek and experience, but it can come and go. Blessedness is different. It is God's gift and action within us, whether we are feeling happy or not, orienting our lives towards holiness. And that is lasting.

Praise And Worship

If you've never been to a Praise & Worship night, here's the honest version: it's not a concert, and it's not a classroom. It starts with food and people (the part where you find your friends, meet a few new ones, and stop feeling like the new kid).

Then the band plays, and something in the room shifts. You don't have to know the songs. You don't have to sing loudly, or at all. You can stand at the back with your arms crossed for the first three songs, and plenty of people do.

Somewhere in the middle there's a talk, and time for Reconciliation if you want it. Then comes Adoration, and the room goes quiet in a way that's hard to find anywhere else these days. Afterwards the band comes back with everything they've got, and by then the arms are uncrossed.

On Friday, 13 November at 6pm in Chatswood, that talk will come from Tomasz Juszczak, a Polish-Australian evangelist and founder of https://www.donumministries.com/ Donum Ministries, and he'll be speaking on holiness and the saints. We're still close to All Saints' Day, and it felt like the right moment to look at the people the Church holds up as heroes and notice how ordinary most of them started out.

Sainthood isn't reserved for statues and stained glass, it's the actual invitation on the table for every young person in this room, and it's nothing to be afraid of. So come. Come exactly as you are, with whatever kind of week you've had, and bring someone who'd never walk in on their own.

Register through the link below, we'd love to know you're coming. 👉 Register via QR Code.

CREATING A PATHWAY OUT OF POVERTY THROUGH EDUCATION

OUR LADY OF DOLOURS TIMOR-LESTE TERTIARY SCHOLARSHIP PROJECT

Bring Hope. Share Love. Build Futures.

Our Parish Story of 15 Years of Dedication and Partnership with Sally Bracken, ATLAS, Chris and Louise Bracken to empower Timor-Leste's Future.

Sally Bracken (1927–2011) was a much-loved parishioner at Our Lady of Dolours. In her 80s she was involved in the parish's newly formed Social Justice committee. She was inspired by a Timorese priest's parish talk on Timor, particularly St Therese's Orphanage in Maubara, and subsequently led the Social Justice committee project to raise money for a badly needed water tank for the orphanage.

Recognising that girls at the orphanage typically stopped formal schooling at Year 9 due to a lack of local secondary options, part of Sally's bequest, entrusted to her nephew, Chris Bracken and wife Louise, was dedicated to building a facility at the Carmelite Convent in Fatuhada, Dili. In collaboration with Sally's generous contribution our Parish helped fund the initial fit-out with beds, wardrobes, study desks and other furnishings.

Completed in July 2013, this facility provided a dining/study hall, kitchen, and laundry space, enabling girls from Maubara to transition to Dili to complete Years 10–12 and pursue tertiary education. The Study Room is affectionately known as "Sally's Room" and there is a plaque attached to its entrance commemorating Sally. Chris and Louise Bracken continue Sally's legacy to this day. Through Sally their introduction to Timor-Leste grew into a close partnership with Our Lady of Dolours Parish and with ATLAS, the major sponsor of Maubara Orphanage. Working in tandem with ATLAS and the Carmelite Sisters, Chris and Louise have made annual trips to Timor-Leste since 2011 working on the ground to manage project funds, ensure financial accountability, coordinate infrastructure maintenance, help coordinate and co-sponsor educational scholarships and provide hands-on mentorship to the children. Chris and Louise offer both the students and Our Lady of Dolours invaluable guidance for our Tertiary Scholarship project.

"From little things big things grow". As we look back over our Timor-Leste relationships, we are thankful for what God is doing in our midst. May He continue to bless and multiply as we here at Our Lady of Dolours work together with our friends of like mind to BRING HOPE. SHARE LOVE. BUILD FUTURES.

Additional Parish Notices & News

RED WEDNESDAY - PRAY – SUPPORT – ACT

During the month of November, Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) invites everyone around Australia to remember and pray in a particular way for Christians who suffer persecution for their faith.

What can we do this RED WEDNESDAY?

RED WEDNESDAY MASS

You are invited to join the Red Wednesday Mass at Our Lady of Dolours Church (94 Archer Street, Chatswood) to remember and pray for persecuted Christians around the world. The Diocesan Administrator Very Rev. Dr David Ranson will celebrate Mass at 7:00pm, on Wednesday, 18 November sharing his reflection on this day as we hold the memory of all those who suffer for their faith.

PRAY

- Pray the RED ROSARY focusing on each decade on regions where Christians suffer.
- Before you begin
- SIGN OF THE CROSS.
- "Lord Jesus, I offer this RED Rosary for your persecuted Church across the world."
- To pray the RED Rosary, we begin as we would the traditional Rosary - offering each decade with a special intention for persecuted Christians.
- THE SORROWFUL MYSTERIES
- AGONY IN THE GARDEN
- For Christians in the Middle East & Asia - living with war and extremism.
- SCOURGING AT THE PILLAR For Christians in the Americas - facing crime and marginalisation.
- CROWNING WITH THORNS For Christians in Oceania & Australia - facing pressure to hide their faith.
- CARRYING OF THE CROSS For Christians in Europe - where ancient communities are under pressure.
- THE CRUCIFIXION For Christians in Africa - suffering violence and kidnappings.

SUPPORT: Give to the RED WEDNESDAY appeal – your generosity can support Christians in crisis via family-focused ACN projects in countries around the world: Nigeria, Syria, Middle East, India and other countries in greatest need.

ACT: Wear RED when you attend our parish event, as a sign of solidarity with persecuted Christians worldwide, and as a sign of the modern martyrs who suffered and died for their Catholic faith.

CCA Fellowship - Faith Journey

Last Sunday 25 October 2026, we held our Inaugural CCA Fellowship, Faith Journey.

We were delighted that 19 people turned up. Thank you to Gladys Chung for preparing the very relatable materials for our community gathering. We prayed together and sang beautiful contemporary spiritual songs, followed by a Scripture-based discussion on the fellowship's theme, " how to recognise God's voice."

We achieved our main goal: coming together for personal conversations and getting to know and caring for one another better.

CCA-Lunar New Year Raffle Sale

John Kennedy, our new CCA-LNY committee member, is leading the LNY2027 Raffle sale. John has introduced a new online Raffle Sale channel, RaffleTix.

If you have any enquiries please contact John on 0422668700.

The old Pink raffle is also available for sale in the parish, as usual. The Mini Food Fair members have started selling these old pink hard copy raffle tickets.

Mandarin Mass

Father Abraham Chiu was ordained a priest in Hong Kong on September 9, 1990. He currently serves in the Diocese of Sacramento, USA, and ministers to the local Chinese Catholic community. After earning his doctorate, he taught theology at philosophical-theological seminaries in mainland China, forming local seminarians and clergy.

For our elderly Mandarin- and Cantonese-speaking parishioners who have a weak command of English, they can confess in Cantonese or Mandarin from 12:00- 1:45 pm on 8 November 2026. But they must register, and space is limited (see QR code on the flyer). No walk-ins on the day. Father Abraham celebrates Chinese Mass with us at 2:00 pm. Please see flyer on page 19 for the day's programme.

Daily Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, we praise You for Your goodness and thank You for Your gifts. Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church. Assist all Your people to know their vocation in life and help them to prepare for it. Call many to be priests, deacons and consecrated men and women for Your greater glory, and for the service of Your people. Give those whom You call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithfully. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
