A message from Fr David.

Dear Friends,

A very warm word of gratitude to the Parish Team and to Fr Andrew Feng over this last week whilst Fr Hien and I were in Vietnam for the Thanksgiving Masses of Fr Tan Nguyen and Fr Huy Tran. We are very grateful for their extra work and for their generosity in maintaining the regularity of our community's life.

The Masses in Vietnam, themselves, were remarkable occasions. Well over 1000 people attended Fr Tan's Mass of Thanksgiving and many, many priests. We entered the church to a brass band along with Vietnamese drums and the entire celebration was one of great joy. The connection between the Church in Vietnam and our own local Church of Broken Bay was very strong. We continue to wish Fr Tan every blessing as he commences his priestly ministry, and we look forward to inviting him back to our own parish in mid-year once he has returned to this new Parish of St Ives after spending some time with his family in Vietnam. The link to Fr Tan's Mass of Thanksgiving in Vietnam is at <https://www.youtube.com/live/4dFIdABkwTc?si=X8u76LyLH8KIEZDm>

This weekend we gather as Parish-in-Council. So much work goes into these occasions to make them such significant moments for our parish family.

We welcome our children who are preparing to receive the Eucharist for the first time in June. Over 70 children are enrolled in the program and it is a joy to introduce many of them at our Saturday Vigil Mass and Sunday 9.00am Mass over these weeks of preparation.

Last weekend we learnt of the death of Fr Robert Crawford, a retired priest of our Diocese. Fr Robert will be farewelled at a Mass of Christian Burial on Monday 25 May, at 11.30am, at Our Lady of the Rosary Cathedral, Waitara. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Fr David Ranson PP

We acknowledge the Cammeraygal People of the Eora Nation, custodians of the land on which our parish stands and we commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of national reconciliation.

As a Parish of Catholic Faith we are committed to ensuring always a community of safety and care for all, especially for children, and those who are vulnerable.

A Joyful Mother's Day Celebration at the PEW Gift Shop

Our Mother's Day Sale was truly a joyful occasion for our parish community. It was wonderful to see parishioners gathering after the Masses to browse gifts, share ideas, exchange stories, and celebrate the special women in their lives.

Beyond the gifts and displays, the day was a beautiful reminder of the warmth and fellowship that make our parish community so special. We are grateful to everyone who stopped by, supported the sale, and contributed to the welcoming spirit of the occasion.

While the PEW Gift Shop offers meaningful gifts and religious items, its deeper purpose is reflected in its name - Pray, Evangelise and Worship. The Ministry of the PEW Gift Shop is not simply about selling items, but about accompanying one another in faith, encouraging prayerful living, sharing the message of Christ, and supporting the worship life of our parish community.

Thank you for helping make this Mother's Day celebration such a memorable and faith-filled experience.

SUPPORT AT HOME – YOUR WAY

CatholicCare is prioritising our senior parishioners

CatholicCare is the social care agency of the Catholic Church in the Diocese of Broken Bay. Under the leadership of Archbishop Anthony, we have been serving the communities of Northern Sydney, the Northern Beaches and the Central Coast for more than 35 years.

We are delighted to announce we are now providing Support at Home services to our senior parishioners across the Hills, North Shore and southern Central Coast, and are prioritising parish communities before opening more broadly to the public. The Support at Home program (formerly Home Care Packages) helps older people remain living safely, comfortably and independently in the homes and communities they love. Our flexible, personalised services include help at home, personal care, transport, companionship, nursing and care coordination, delivered with compassion, dignity and respect.

We understand that families worry about ageing parents or loved ones living alone. Our goal is to provide reassurance, reliable support and familiar faces that help older people remain confident, connected and independent for longer.

If you or someone you know may benefit, we would be honoured to help. Call 1800 324 924, email info@catholiccaredbb.org.au or visit www.catholiccaredbb.org.au today to find out more.

OUR SUNDAY CELEBRATION

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD / A

17 MAY 2026

I AM WITH YOU ALWAYS. When Christ ascended into heaven he did not abandon his disciples. Matthew's Gospel begins with the angel's words that Jesus will be called Emmanuel, which means God-is-with-us, and it ends with Jesus' promise: 'Know that I am with you always, yes, to the end of time.' In a special way Emmanuel is with us in this Eucharist for 'where two or three are gathered in my name, I shall be there with them.'

INTRODUCTORY RITES

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Acts 1:11

Men of Galilee, why gaze in wonder at the heavens? This Jesus whom you saw ascending into heaven will return as you saw him go, alleluia.

GREETING

P. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

P. Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

P. Lord Jesus, you are the image of the unseen God: Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

P. You are the first born of all creation: Christ, have mercy.

R. Christ, have mercy.

P. You are the head of the body, the Church: Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

R. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, / and on earth peace to people of good will. / We praise you, / we bless you, / we adore you, / we glorify you, / we give you thanks for your great glory, / Lord God, heavenly King, / O God, almighty Father. / Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, / Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, / you take away the sins of the world, / have mercy on us; / you take away the sins of the world, / receive our prayer; / you are seated at the right hand of the Father, / have mercy on us. / For you alone are the Holy One, / you alone are the Lord, / you alone are the Most High, / Jesus Christ, / with the Holy Spirit, / in the glory of God the Father. / Amen.

COLLECT

P. Gladden us with holy joys, almighty God, and make us rejoice with devout thanksgiving, for the Ascension of Christ your Son is our exaltation, and, where the Head has gone before in glory, the Body is called to follow in hope. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 1:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
Why are you standing here looking into the sky? Jesus has been taken into heaven.

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is' he had said 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom of Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.'

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESP PSALM

Ps 46:2-3, 6-9. R. v. 6

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord. (or Alleluia!)

1. All peoples, clap your hands, / cry to God with shouts of joy! / For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, / great king over all the earth. R.

2. God goes up with shouts of joy; / the Lord goes up with trumpet blast. / Sing praise for God, sing praise, / sing praise to our king, sing praise. R.

3. God is king of all the earth. / Sing praise with all your skill. / God is king over the nations; / God reigns on his holy throne. R.

SECOND READING

Eph 1:17-23

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

He made Jesus to sit at his right hand in heaven.

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named, not only in this age, but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet, and made him as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Mt 28:19, 20

Alleluia, alleluia! Go and teach all people my gospel. I am with you always, until the end of the world. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mt 28:16-20

P. The Lord be with you.
R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH APOSTLES' CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. Amen.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

I AM WITH YOU ALWAYS

When reflecting on Jesus' Ascension, our liturgical focus has been heavily influenced by Luke's double version of the Ascension; one set on Easter Day in the concluding scene in Luke's Gospel (24:50-52) as Jesus' blesses his disciples at Bethany and departs from them; the other in the opening chapter of Acts (Acts 1:6-11) as Jesus leaves the disciples and is carried into heaven.

Our Gospel today is quite different. It is the concluding verses of Matthew's Gospel. The Risen Jesus gathers with the Eleven on 'the' mountain, the place of divine encounter, already familiar from earlier in the Gospel in the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7). Here, at the Gospel's conclusion, Jesus is with the Eleven—not the Twelve, a reminder of the failure of one of the key members of the apostolic leadership group (Judas). It is to this group of failed leaders that Jesus, God's authoritative agent, entrusts his final teaching and missionary endorsement. They are to make disciples of all nations. This is an important injunction, given that Matthew's audience which is predominantly Jewish is now encouraged to move into the gentile world.

In Matthew's Gospel Jesus offers a universal vision. Baptism and Gospel ethical teaching will become key notes for incorporating members into this renewed community of Jesus. The Gospel concludes on a promise of divine companionship. Jesus, called 'Emmanuel' ('God with us') in the birth narrative (Matthew 1:23), reminds his audience that 'I am with you always ... to the end of time.' This affirmation of Jesus' eternal presence is comforting to Matthew's audience, and us, dealing with life's struggles and cultural challenges.

Spotlight on: Praise & Worship!

Before we dive in — who are you? Give us the basics: name, age, and one thing you're really into right now.

My name is Jenevieve, I'm 21 and right now I'm doing my Honours year so into doing lots of research!

How did you end up at praise and worship last year? Was it your idea, or did someone drag you there?

I decided to join the band last year because I've always wanted the opportunity to join a choir or a band to sing at church. It was and continues to be one of my favourite ways to serve the Lord and contribute to such an amazing night like this!

Was there a moment during the event where you felt something shift — like God just showed up in a way you weren't expecting?

I got the chance to help coordinate the queue for reconciliation with the many priests available. It was so amazing to see so many people partake in that sacrament and witness God's mercy through the forgiveness of sins right in front of me.

One of the things people talk about is the feeling in the room — being surrounded by other young people who actually want to be there. What was that like for you?

I think there's not many places where young Catholics can go to worship and praise the Lord like we do on Praise and Worship night. The sense of community and belonging you feel is incredible and it's so reassuring to see so many young people show up for God! It's also a great opportunity to meet new people and make some like-minded friends

If someone your age is reading this and they're on the fence — what would you say to them? No sugarcoating.

Go, you won't regret it!

Before we dive in — who are you? Give us the basics: name and one thing you're really into right now.

I'm Ryan, and at the moment a lot of my life revolves around community, music ministry and helping young people find spaces where they can genuinely belong. Outside of that, I'm probably at my happiest when I'm running, playing music, or sitting down with a good tea after a long day. I think I'm someone who really values depth — in conversations, relationships, faith, all of it.

What did you bring home with you after the event — not like a flyer, but inside?

Hope, honestly. Not in a vague sense, but real hope for young people and the Church. Working in ministry and education, you sometimes see how much pressure young people carry. Events like this remind you that they're searching for meaning, connection and authenticity more than ever. I left feeling renewed in why these spaces matter.

If someone your age is reading this and they're on the fence — what would you say to them? No sugarcoating.

I don't know if this is limited to someone being "my age", but I'd say this: don't write it off before you experience it. You don't need to have everything figured out. You don't need to be "super religious." Just come honestly. Worst case, you spend a night with good people and good music. Best case, something shifts in you a little. And sometimes that's all God needs to begin working.

If you have a teenager or young adult at home, invite them to be part of this uplifting evening Friday 22 May 6pm in Our Lady of Dolours Church!

Additional Parish & Diocesan Notices

St Vincent de Paul Monthly Report

We received 16 requests for help in April, of these 3 were new. Of these, one was having difficulty with coping with a recent addition to the family at a time of temporarily reduced income. Another young single mother, supported by a welfare agency, needed help settling into new digs. The third was looking for help with her electricity bill.

Two were from our little group of families we are trying to support till better times. These are mainly families which currently have no regular income except irregular casual work insufficient to meet needs and are not eligible for Centrelink benefits. One needs advocacy support to get children enrolled in school. The other is receiving treatment for a serious illness which has precluded him from working until end of May. We are providing food and transport support.

The other requests were of a more usual nature involving food, white goods and furniture. We provided a supporting letter for childcare subsidy for one single parent and advice on local cheap food outlets to another. We shared removal costs for one family to relocate to improved accommodation. Some $2200 was expended

6 cases this month were from people suffering with some sort of mental disability, one being from North Shore Health for white goods for a chap with substance abuse difficulties who is known to us. 5 cases were complicated by domestic violence.

Our family mentioned above, who is successfully recovering from illness needs to move from their rented accommodation shortly. They have asked if we know of any furnished studio or room available in Chatswood.

If any parishioner may be able to assist them, please contact El.Herlianto@vinines.org.au or John.Russell@vinnies.org.au

Invitation from Fr Hien

Dear friends,

The family is the heart of the Church, and marriage is one of the beautiful sacraments through which God reveals His love. Our first experience of faith, prayer, and love is often learned within the family itself. It is there that many of us first encounter God and begin to grow in love for one another.

One of our parish mission priorities is community and family. During my seminary years, a parishioner once invited me to attend and observe a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend, and I saw how enriching and renewing it could be for married couples.

This year, I have also registered to attend the weekend myself, and I would love to encourage any interested couples from our parish to consider joining as well.

A Worldwide Marriage Encounter (WWME) weekend offers couples a gentle and prayerful “time away” — an opportunity to deepen communication, renew love, and strengthen the gift of marriage amidst the busyness of life. (Worldwide Marriage Encounter Australia).

I warmly encourage married couples in our parish to consider joining this experience.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend

Date: 19- 21 June 2026

Venue: Mt Carmel Retreat Centre

To register for the weekend: www.wwme.org.au/book

Please feel free to let me know if you are interested in attending. I would be delighted to hear from you and support you in joining the weekend.

Fr Hien

hien.vu@bbcatholic.org.au

Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends are simply a series of presentation topics given by a specially trained team of three couples and a priest. Most of your time is spent learning and developing a technique of communication called dialogue.

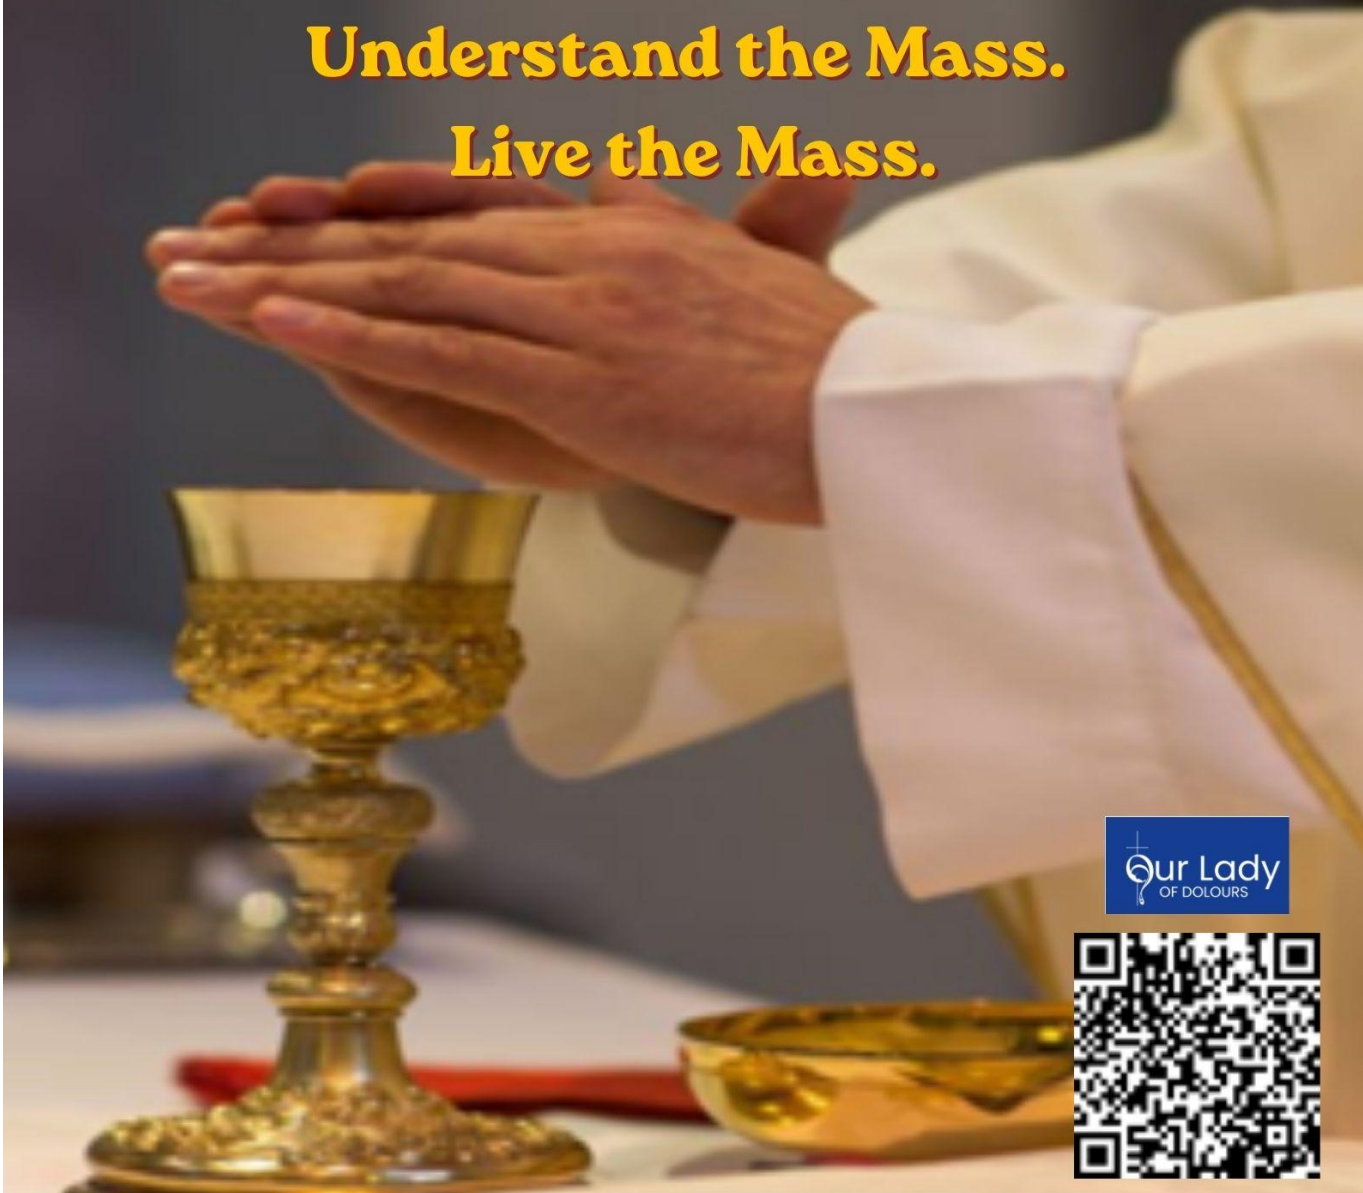

The talks, while structured, include examples of the things the presenting team have discovered within their relationships and the adaptations they have made during their journeys through married life. Such reflections lead you to look at yourselves and your marriage with new eyes.

After each talk there is time for you to practise your new-found communication skills and share your thoughts and feelings about various aspects of your marriage in private. There is no group discussion.

The regular Worldwide Marriage Encounter (WWME) Weekend starts at 7:00 pm on Friday night and ends at about 5:00 pm on Sunday afternoon. Meals and accommodation are provided.

Prayer for Vocations

During this month, the Serra Association invites parishioners to remember in prayer the bishops, priests, and deacons of our Diocese, asking God to strengthen and sustain them in their ministry and to inspire future vocations.

Prayer For Vocations

Heavenly Father, we praise you for your goodness and thank you for your gifts.

Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church.

Assist all your people to know their vocations in life and help them to prepare for it.

Call many to be Priests, Deacons, and Consecrated Men and Women for your greater glory and for the service of your people.

Give those whom you call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithfully.

We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
