Reflection on this Sunday's Gospel

For the sake of precision, the common designation of a character in today's gospel (Luke 23:35-43) as "the Good Thief" is oxymoronic; if he were good at being a thief he would not have been caught. Luke does not say that he is a thief, but refers to him as an "evil doer". It is Mark and Matthew who the two crucified alongside Jesus robbers or thieves, but they both deride him. John refers to them simply as "two others", so they neither deride nor repent. So Luke's character's later appellation is a result of cross-pollination or of the harmonisation of the separate gospels in people's minds. What are we to make of Luke's unique account?

Back on Sunday 24C we read what the Lectionary's introduction calls the "Gospel within the Gospel: the message of pardon and reconciliation—the parables of God's mercy". Mercy is not mentioned directly in any of the three parables; the concept they do clearly share is the rejoicing that takes place on retrieving what had been lost. To speak of mercy, which is to put aside retribution and to release from punishment, makes no sense concerning the lost coin or missing sheep, for what punishment could either deserve? A stupid and bad shepherd might indeed punish a reclaimed sheep for having strayed, but what could be done to punish a retrieved coin, and who would try it? The wayward son of the third parable may merit censure, but he meets instead the compassion of his father, who does not treat the son as he himself thinks he deserves—that is mercy. Again, however, it is not mercy that is common to all three parables, but God's rejoicing, which is a grace, the bestowal of a good thing undeserved. God's rejoicing over the redeemed and regained is a manifestation of God's merciful grace.

Those parables, two of which are unique to Luke, were told in the middle of the journey to Jerusalem, on the way of the cross; at its beginning Jesus had invited his disciples metaphorically to take up their cross and follow him (Sunday 12C); here on the last Sunday in Ordinary Time, on the feast commonly called Christ the King, we are at that journey's end, at Jerusalem and on the cross. Here we are presented with Luke's unique account of one who echoes those parables, the one crucified with him though he had not taken up the cross of discipleship to follow him, who acknowledges his own wrongdoing and asks to be remembered in the kingdom, and who is promised welcome in paradise that same day. He is not rewarded for any good thing he has done. Rather here is the lost sheep brought home by the shepherd, here we find not so much a lost coin unearthed but perhaps a rough diamond, and here the errant brother is welcomed by the elder brother, "the first born from the dead" (NRSV, Colossians 1:18), who invites him on the Father's behalf into heaven's celebration of the lost and restored.

From Fr David

Dear friends,

Farewell to Nicole Gorman, our Parish Secretary

As I shared some weeks ago, our parish office team has been in the process of restructuring. Over this time, we have been able to recruit our Administration Assistant, Chloe Aylward and our Director of Music, Patrick Harrison.

Now, I am able to share with you that we will implement the new role of Parish Support Officer as from Monday 28 November 2022. This will mean that Nicole Gorman, our Parish Secretary hitherto, will conclude her time with us in the parish office on Thursday 24 November 2022.

This is a very significant moment for us. Nicole has been part of our Parish Team for many, many years. She has been constant in her commitment, providing the most diligent of service across the many different responsibilities she has always managed with grace. Nicole has gone through no end of change through that time, and she has always presented herself in the most professional manner through all the experiences of the last 17 years. I wish to record the esteem of the entire Parish to Nicole. We owe her a great debt of gratitude, and I know that our team will miss her greatly.

Nicole will always be a part of our Chatswood family. She was married in Our Lady of Dolours and she enjoys a number of connections with the parish and our church. I have assured Nicole will always be welcome with us, and that we look forward to seeing her and her family with us often.

From Fr David cont'd

We congratulate Fr Joey Frez who is in Melbourne this weekend, graduating from his course in spiritual direction, Siloam under the auspices of the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart and Yarra Theological Union. Fr Joey has been in study mode each Monday for the last two years and speaks highly of his experience throughout the program.

This coming week is the final week of our Church's liturgical year. Next weekend we begin a new year with the First Sunday of Advent. Commencing with the celebration of Christ the King, this is a good week for us to pray for peace in our world which, as we know, is very fragile. Subsequently, we have set aside the week ahead in a special way. On Monday and Tuesday night the façade of our church will be bathed in the colors of Ukraine and again on Thursday and Friday nights. On Wednesday, it will be bathed in the colour of red, representing the suffering of those with Christian faith. Bishop Anthony will celebrate Mass on Wednesday at 7.30pm and we will also be joined by many people from across our Diocese. Do come along and join with many as we pray for peace!

With the special Red Mass on Wednesday 23 November and the beginning of Advent next weekend we now ask that the beautiful photos of our loved ones adorning our sanctuary be collected.

If you are not able to collect your photo please be assured we will keep it safely stored in our Sacristy until you are able

From our Director of Music Patrick Harrison

In preparation for the celebration of Fr David's Formal installation as Parish Priest and his 30th Anniversary of his ordination to the Priesthood, our music ministry is looking for any willing volunteers who would like to sing with the choir for the special event. The revival of the parish choir is an exciting initiative that will bring together all its members to sing at big events in our parish. If you are a singer, or know someone who would be interested, please contact me on my email:

Christmas Novena Dawn Masses

Advent is a time of expectation and anticipation; a time of celebration and a time for prayer. The annual NOVENA OF DAWN MASSES is a spiritual preparation for the birth of Jesus Christ. It is an expression of our faith and a gesture to show gratitude to God for giving us His Son Jesus Christ.

The NOVENA OF DAWN MASSES at Our Lady of Dolours Parish in Chatswood will be held daily from 16-24 December 2019 at 5:30am. Different priests who serve in various churches and ministries around Sydney will be the Mass Celebrants. Light breakfast will be served at the Church forecourt afterwards.

It is a wonderful way to start the day with an early morning mass and fellowship with the community. Everyone is invited to come and join the parish community in continuing this beautiful tradition which originated from the Philippines and is now celebrated in many Australian parishes.

Painting RE Materials - Helpers needed

This year Catholic Schools Broken Bay implemented the new Religious Education Kindergarten Curriculum. This new approach to teaching and learning has promoted a sense of wonder and awe about the Catholic faith and belonging to a Catholic community.

We are excited to continue this new approach to learning in Year 1 2023! Our Lady of Dolours Catholic Primary School is in need of some helpers who can assist with painting some RE materials for our students. The paintings are simple, so please do not worry if you are not a confident painter.

If you are interested in assisting us with painting figurines (see the pictures below) please contact Miss Camilla Brown via the office at oid@dbb.catholic.edu.au.

Requests for Mass Intentions

It is a privilege for one of our priests to be able to offer Mass for a special intention, especially at the time someone has died or on the occasion of their anniversary. We welcome such requests. It is important to note, however, that a priest can only receive one intention per Mass. Therefore, it may not be possible to have a Mass offered on a specific day and at a particular time, given that the priest may already have allocated an intention for the Mass. Do be assured that if a Mass cannot be offered on a specific occasion it will be offered by a priest at the first available opportunity. Notwithstanding, if you would like a Mass for a specific purpose at a particular time, please contact a priest directly to seek to arrange this. All emails are on the back page of this bulletin.

Altar Flower Signup

If you would like to reserve a date for Altar flowers, please contact our Parish Office on 9410 9020 or chatswoodoffice@bbcatholic.org.au. Altar flower arrangements can be in memory of a loved one, or in honor of a special occasion; birthdays, anniversaries, baptisms, marriages, etc.. The suggested donation for flower memorials is $100. Volunteers will then beautifully and simply arrange the flowers for Sunday.

Please submit your donation at least one week prior to the date you would like to dedicate the flowers. This will give the parish office time to ensure your dedication is in the weekly bulletin.
