PARISH REGISTRATION FORM

A message from Fr David.

Dear Friends,

Thank you so much to the many, many people who completed our Parish Pulse Survey last weekend. We have already had over 500 responses. We will continue to make the survey available this coming weekend. This is an important indicator of the life and tone of our parish community. We invite everyone to complete the survey. The survey will be available in the pews over the coming weekends or it is possible to complete online through the link: https://form.jotform.com/chatswoodparish/2026-parish-pulse or through the QR code. Your participation in this survey is a great help to us as we continue to discern how we can grow together.

This last week it was my privilege in my service as Diocesan Administrator to be with all the bishops in Australia for their annual November plenary meeting which was held in North Sydney. These are important gatherings in which every diocese, through its Pastor, reflects together on the mission of the Church throughout Australia. Given that this is my second term as a Diocesan Administrator, the assembly was quite familiar, and I was made to feel very welcome. The week together finished with a time spent with Cardinal Mario Grech. Secretary General of the Synod of Bishops, relating the Church's perspective on the synodal journey. The day before, Brendan Tertini and Yvonne Corpuz had the great privilege of meeting with the Cardinal personally and presenting to him our own community's development of "Parish-in-Council." The Cardinal was delighted with what Brendan and Yvonne presented and he has taken the presentation with him back to Rome. We are greatly blessed to recognise how the Spirit has been at work in us in line with what the Church universally is being invited into.

This coming Friday, we conduct a Praise and Worship event for our young people – not only from our parish but across the Diocese. Further information is available further in the bulletin. Do spread the word!

We acknowledge the Cammeraygal People of the Eora Nation, custodians of the land on which our parish stands and we commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of national reconciliation.

As a Parish of Catholic Faith we are committed to ensuring always a community of safety and care for all, especially for children, and those who are vulnerable.

Very Rev Dr David Ranson PP
Parish Priest, Our Lady of Dolours Church

Last Week in Review

Parish In Council

The Catholic Parish of Lower North Shore celebrated a significant milestone on Saturday, 31st October 2026, with its first Parish-in-Council (PiC 1), bringing together more than 100 parishioners to explore the theme of "Belonging".

This event marked an important step towards strengthening relationships across the three communities of St Thomas' in Willoughby, St Leonard's in Naremburn and St Philip Neri in Northbridge, and nurturing a deeper sense of belonging as one parish family.

Yvonne Corpuz and Brendan Tertini guided and mentored the parish PiC Team, drawing on their own experiences and lessons learned to help shape the initiative and equip those involved to bring it to life.

PEW (Praise, Evangelise, Worship) Ministry: A Time for Spiritual Reflection and Planning

The PEW Ministry held its inaugural Annual Spiritual Reflection on Sunday, 25 October, led by Fr Joey Frez.

Centred on the theme of how the PEW Ministry helps build the Body of Christ, Fr Joey reminded members that the gift shop serves as more than a place to purchase religious items. It provides an opportunity to open doors for parishioners to encounter Christ through sacramentals and deepen their faith. The reflection also provided an opportunity for members to discern and shape the Ministry's plans and priorities for 2027–28.

Following the reflection, members gathered for their Quarterly Meeting to review the Ministry's achievements over the past quarter. We also heard from Fr David about current parish projects and initiatives, as well as the plans and priorities for the parish in 2027–28.

It was a meaningful opportunity for the PEW team to reflect on its mission, celebrate its contributions and look ahead with renewed purpose as it continues to serve the parish community.

Marian Movement of Priests (MMP) Rosary

We warmly invite you to join us in answering our Blessed Mother's call to prayer by participating in the Rosary Cenacle for the Marian Movement of Priests (MMP).

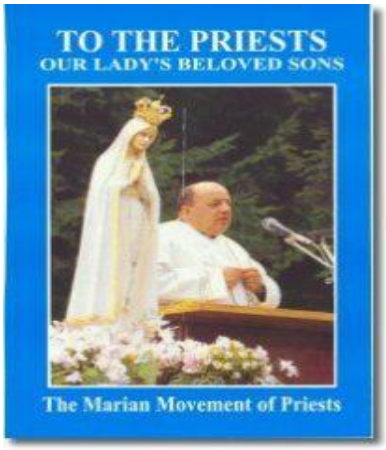

In her messages to Fr. Stefano Gobbi, Our Lady asked us to gather together in "Cenacles" of prayer to invoke the Holy Spirit, support our priests, and seek her maternal protection. In these gatherings, we pray the Holy Rosary, read from the book "To the Priests, Our Lady's Beloved Sons", and renew our Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Whether you have been praying the Rosary for decades or are completely new to this devotion, your presence is a beautiful gift to our parish family and to the wider Church. Our weekly gatherings take place on:

Day: Monday
Time: 11.45 am (preceded by the chaplet of the Divine Mercy at 11.30 am

Location: In the church near Our Lady's shrine

Let us enter the safe refuge of Mary's Immaculate Heart together, asking for her intercession for our families, our priests, and peace in the world.

Our Sunday Celebration

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time / A — 8 November 2026

KEEP YOUR LAMPS BURNING. We human beings need fuel to keep going. Without food and drink we become weak and eventually die. Our spiritual life also needs fuel, namely the body and blood of Christ in the Eucharist. We are nourished also by prayer, the Scriptures, the community and by loving others. If we seek this nourishment regularly our light will be shining brightly when Christ comes in glory.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON
cf. Ps 87: 3

Let my prayer come into your presence.
Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

GREETING

R. Amen.

P. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

R. And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

P. Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.
P. Lord Jesus, you have revealed yourself as the way to the Father: Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

P. You have poured out on your people the Spirit of truth: Christ, have mercy.

R. Christ, have mercy.

P. You are the Good Shepherd, leading us to eternal life: Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

R. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, / and on earth peace to people of good will. / We praise you, / we bless you, / we adore you, / we glorify you, / we give you thanks for your great glory, / Lord God, heavenly King, / O God, almighty Father. / Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, / Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, / you take away the sins of the world, / have mercy on us; / you take away the sins of the world, / receive our prayer; / you are seated at the right hand of the Father, / have mercy on us. / For you alone are the Holy One, / you alone are the Lord, / you alone are the Most High, / Jesus Christ, / with the Holy Spirit, / in the glory of God the Father. / Amen.

COLLECT

P. Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep from us all adversity, so that, unhindered in mind and body alike, we may pursue in freedom of heart the things that are yours. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING
Wis 6: 12-16

A reading from the book of Wisdom.
Wisdom is found by those who look for it.

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim.
By those who love her she is readily seen,
and found by those who look for her.
Quick to anticipate those who desire her,
she makes herself known to them.
Watch for her early and you will have no trouble;
you will find her sitting at your gates.
Even to think about her is understanding fully grown;
be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you.
She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go.
in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

The word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Ps 62: 2-8. R. v. 2

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

1. O God, you are my God, for you I long;
for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you like a dry, weary land without water. R.

2. So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips will speak your praise. R.

3. So I will bless you all my life,
in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise you with joy. R.

4. On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night
for you have been my help;
in the shadow of your wings I rejoice. R.

SECOND READING
1 Thess 4: 13-18

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians.
Those who died as Christians, God will bring to life with Jesus.

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him.

We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them, to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

The word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

Shorter form, 1 Thess 4: 13-14

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION
Mt 24: 42, 44. R. v. 2

Alleluia, alleluia! / Be watchful and ready: / you know not when the Son of Man is coming. / Alleluia!

GOSPEL
Mt 25: 1-13

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

Look, the bridegroom comes. Go out to meet him.

Jesus told this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven will be like this: Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. the other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH APOSTLES' CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. Amen.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

STAY AWAKE!

As we move towards the final Sundays of our liturgical year, the Evangelist turns our attention to watchfulness and alertness. While this teaching is essentially about God's coming at the end of time—the 'Parousia,' or God's final coming—it also invites us to remain alert to Christ's coming whenever and however that occurs in our lives.

Matthew sets his parable within the familiar setting of a Middle Eastern wedding. At night, ten bridesmaids await the arrival of the bridegroom, carrying oil lamps to welcome him to the celebrations. Five are prepared and have enough oil; the others are not. When the bridegroom's arrival is delayed, the unprepared bridesmaids ask the others to share their oil. They refuse, telling them instead to go and buy what they need. By the time they return, the wedding celebration has begun and the door is shut. The Gospel concludes with the familiar injunction: 'Stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.' The message seems clear: we are to remain ready for God's coming, whenever that may be.

But is that the whole message? Another question deserves consideration: Why do those who have enough oil refuse to share with those who do not? Their refusal contributes to their sisters' exclusion from the wedding feast. Could the Gospel be asking us to 'stay awake' not simply for God's coming, but to recognise those in need around us—so that everyone might share in the divine wedding banquet?

St Vincent de Paul Society October Report

Chatswood OLD Vinnies received 8 calls for help in October, mercifully down from the nearly 20 we have been receiving in recent months, maybe it's the warmer weather.
Only one of the cases was new to us. Three of the oldies were for help with moving out or setting up in new digs. One was to assist a disabled move due to failing health as he was no longer permitted to live unaided following recent hospitalisation. Another was for temporary arrangements pending completion of a move from our area.
We helped with 6 months car registration for an unemployed bread winner required to help his wife with the three children while she struggled with complications following their recent newly born.
A refugee family with large medical and medicinal needs and facing loss of their rented accommodation at the end of the year required assistance with pharmaceuticals and making appointments. We needed help with interpreting from a Vinnies colleague from Forestville. We have been in discussions with Catholic Care and other agencies concerning this family.
The new case involved a DV victim needing to resettle with her son in safer surroundings .
Some $2000 was expended..
Old Vinnies is very grateful for the $14,000 contributed to our winter appeal. Our current budget position reflects expenditure of $10,000 against this income.

We are hoping that our Summer Appeal on 5/6 December will receive similar support.

Volunteers are needed to help us deliver Vinnies Christmas hampers to our local households.
If you can carry up to 7kg repetitively and are available on a weekend in December and/or Friday 18th December, please do sign up.

The sign-up sheet is in the foyer of the church or contact El at el.herlianto@vinnies.org.au

OLD TERTIARY SCHOLARSHIPS FOR TIMOR-LESTE

Bring Hope. Share Love. Build Futures.

Carla Gageler is our Parish project leader of OLD Tertiary Scholarships for Timor-Leste and representative on the ATLAS committee. On 1st October to 8th October, she travelled with ATLAS Chairman Gerald Keneally to Timor-Leste. The purpose for Carla was to meet our Scholarship students with Mrs Maria Dos Santos in the Timor-Leste ATLAS Foundation office in Dili.

Carla met with 8 of our 11 current students with Mrs Dos Santos as translator. The meetings were extremely beneficial for all participants to build relationships, to resolve issues of budgeting and reporting and to understand the needs of the students to meet the requirements of their courses.

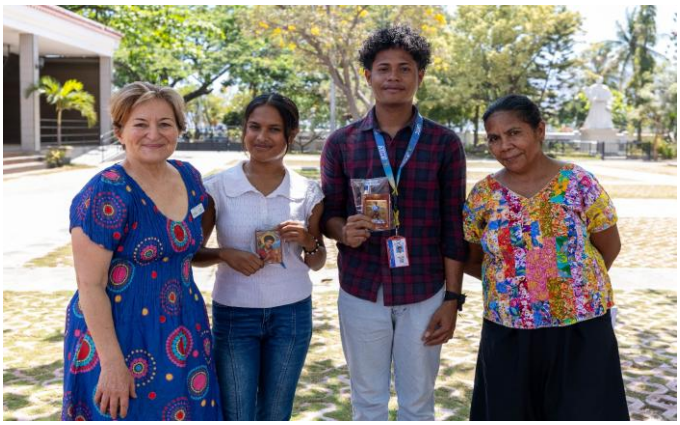

Carla conveyed the Parish's best wishes for each student and gave each on behalf of the parish a card of St Carlo and St Pier Georgio and inscribed OLD pen.
She also showed them the article on Palmira that was featured in our Newsletter and our fundraising endeavours on their behalf. All of the students were delightful and very appreciative of the support they are given.

At the meetings, each student was given a copy of the Scholarship Terms and Conditions which had been translated into Tetun and a copy of their individually approved budget based on the fee structure provided by their tertiary institution. Because Timor-Leste is a developing country their relatively new tertiary institutions have internal administrative challenges, one of which is their websites that need updating. A common problem to be addressed was that the Nursing students learn at short notice that they are required to pay extra costs for uniforms and clinical placements for work experience. Unless these are paid before their exams they cannot sit the exams. With the help of Mrs dos Santos a better understanding by all parties was achieved and student anxieties allayed.

Mrs Dos Santos was able to arrange a meeting with Father Guil who had asked our Parish for sponsorship for 5 students attending the Catholic University. Fr Guil arranged for Mrs dos Santos and Carla to visit the Catholic University and the Nursing Teaching Laboratory.

There were many fruitful discussions, and Carla will be presenting a more detailed information sharing event early next year. Carla would like to acknowledge the invaluable assistance obtained through our ATLAS partner without whom these connections and facility of communication would not have been possible.

Disclosure: Trip to Timor-Leste by ATLAS members and Carla are always self-funded

Celebrate the joy of Christ's birth with gifts that share the true meaning of Christmas!

Here are some suggestions from your friends in the PEW:

Give the Gift of Faith This Christmas

Beautiful crucifixes to inspire faith, bring blessings and keep Christ at the heart of every home.

Byzantine-Style Crucifix with Apostles
A beautifully detailed crucifix featuring Christ at the centre, surrounded by images of the Apostles. It celebrates Christ as the foundation of our faith and the Apostles as witnesses to His life, death and resurrection. A meaningful reminder of our apostolic heritage, our unity in Christ and our call to carry the Gospel into the world.

The Four Mysteries of Christ Crucifix

A beautifully detailed devotional crucifix depicting Christ at the centre, surrounded by four significant mysteries of our faith: the Nativity, the Institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper, the Resurrection and Pentecost. This crucifix tells the story of our salvation – from God's becoming man to Christ's victory over death and the birth of the Church

Christ on the Cross Surrounded by the Saints

This crucifix brings together devotion to Christ Crucified, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the saints. The crucifix brings together Mary, who stood faithfully beside Jesus, John, who remained at the foot of the Cross, and Francis and Anthony, who devoted their lives to following Christ. It is a reminder that holiness begins with keeping Christ at the centre of our lives.

Byzantine-style San Damiano Cross icon
Traditionally, it was before the San Damiano Cross that St Francis heard Christ calling him to rebuild His Church. More than a devotional image, the San Damiano Cross is a reminder of our personal calling to listen to Christ, renew His Church and live the Gospel through humility, love and service.

Christmas calendars and Christmas cards are available, too! Be sure to visit early while stocks last.

Daily Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, we praise You for Your goodness and thank You for Your gifts. Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church. Assist all Your people to know their vocation in life and help them to prepare for it. Call many to be priests, deacons and consecrated men and women for Your greater glory, and for the service of Your people. Give those whom You call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithfully. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
